Introduction.

FOR several years there has been a demand, which has found expression through the denominational papers and in discussion at our National Councils, for a Hymnal suited to the needs of Congregational Churches, published under denominational auspices and sold at a moderate price. The Congregational Sunday-School and Publishing Society has been repeatedly asked to issue such a book, but has not felt warranted in doing so heretofore in view of the large number of good hymnals already before the public, and the knowledge that others were in preparation which promised to be even better. Much study has been given to hymnology in recent years, and in many of our churches a taste has been developed for music of a higher order than the old hymn-books usually contained, so that books which were reasonably satisfactory twenty years ago are no longer so when compared with the latest and best collections. On the other hand, a large number of churches, while desiring the best possible collection of hymns, are not sufficiently well equipped musically to make profitable use of a hymnal containing, from the musician's standpoint, exclusively tunes of the highest order.

To meet all requirements, therefore, it is necessary that many favorite hymns and tunes be retained, even if not up to the very highest standard in musical or literary merit, while it is equally desirable to include modern music of the highest class for such churches as are in a position to make use of it. In other words, a hymn-book to meet the requirements of Congregational Churches generally must have both the popular and the classical tunes, both the stately and the evangelistic hymns, so that something may be found suited to all occasions, and meeting equally well the requirements of the home missionary church and the great city congregation.

It is believed that this Hymnal for Congregational Churches better than any other fulfils these conditions. It was edited by Rev. Louis F. Benson, D. D., and William W. Gilchrist, Mus. Doc., with the aid of many eminent musicians and writers, with the needs of the Presbyterian and Congregational Churches constantly in mind, and is issued jointly by the Presbyterian Board of Publication and the Congregational Sunday-School and Publishing Society.

The hymns are intended to cover every side of Church worship and work, and of Christian experience, and are so classified as to be most readily at hand to meet the occasion. Great pains have been taken to secure accuracy of the text. The Editor has in all cases sought to have before him the author's original version, and the authorized text also of such amendments and revisions as seemed worthy of attention. As far as possible, the hymns are printed as their authors wrote them. When any changes have been adopted, the fact has invariably been noted beneath the hymn, partly in the interests of intelligent hymnology, partly also for honesty's sake, that no man's name be put to anything that he did not write. These footnotes, with very few exceptions, are records of a personal inspection of the facts recorded, and furnish an interesting and, it is believed, trustworthy history of the hymn. In the selection of hymns, those endeared to the churches by a proved fitness have been given first place.

Each hymn in this collection is set to its own tune, and very careful thought has been given to securing music not merely adapted to the rhythm of the hymn, but giving the proper musical expression to its sentiment and spiritual quality. To many of the hymns an alternate tune has been added, chosen with a view of bringing the hymn into use on occasions or under conditions when the first tune may not conveniently be used. Sometimes an alternate tune is designated by a cross-reference to its place in the book. And very often, when no alternate tunes are indicated in either way, the tunes are so grouped that at any given opening of the book there may be two or three tunes available for any one of the hymns. The method of printing the alternate tune to a hymn on that part of the opposite page nearest to the words themselves will, it is thought, commend itself to singers from its greater convenience in actual use. It is the usage of many of our churches to sing the Amen at the close of each hymn, and the proper chords have been provided for such purpose.

The names of the tunes, unless for good reason to the contrary, are those originally given them when first published, and the dates set to them are the dates of first publication. The date set to the hymn is the earliest date obtainable, ordinarily that of its composition, in some cases necessarily that of first publication. Where two dates are given, they indicate that of the original form of the hymn and that of the author's revised text used in this book. The word "publ." indicates that the date of writing is unknown, and that the date of publication is posthumous. The letter c. (circa) before a date is used where exact certainty is unobtainable. Where dates, either of hymns or tunes, are altogether wanting, the date of the author's or composer's birth and death are given in brackets—e. g. (1816–1893), or, where living, that of birth only—e. g. (1838—), or the date of death when that alone is known—e. g. (—1850).

Among the many composers who have set to music the hymns assigned them, special acknowledgments are due for courtesies received at their hands to the Musical Editor, William W. Gilchrist, Mus. Doc., George William Warren, Mus. Doc., Uzziah C. Burnap, Rev. William P. Merrill, and the Rev. John Anketell, A. M. Thanks are given also to the following

To-morrow, Lord, is Thine . . . . .	457	While Thee I seek, protecting Power . . .	520
To our Redeemer's glorious Name . . . . .	147	While with ceaseless course the sun . . . .	649
To Thee, and to Thy Christ, O God . . . .	236	Who are these like stars appearing . . . .	407
To Thee, O Comforter Divine . . . . .	274	Who is on the Lord's side . . . . .	358
To Thee, O dear, dear Saviour . . . . .	548	Who is this that comes from Edom . . . .	164
To Thee, O Lord, our hearts we raise . . .	657	Who trusts in God, a strong abode . . . .	523
To Thee, our God, we fly . . . . .	668	With broken heart and contrite sigh . . .	454
To Thy temple I repair . . . . .	50	With glory clad, with strength arrayed . .	111
Triumphant Zion, lift thy head . . . . .	305	With songs and honors sounding loud . . .	94
UPWARD, where the stars are burning . . .	636	With tearful eyes I look around . . . . .	646
WAIT, my soul, upon the Lord . . . . .	514	With the sweet word of peace . . . . .	680
Wake, awake, for night is flying . . . . .	261	With Thee, my Lord, my God . . . . .
Walk in the light: so shalt thou know . .	605	See Still with Thee, O my God . . . . .	76
Was there ever kindest shepherd . . . . .	438	Work, for the night is coming . . . . .	359
Watchman, tell us of the night . . . . .	392	YE Christian heralds, go proclaim . . . .	396
We bless Thee for Thy peace, O God . . . .	607	Ye holy angels bright . . . . .	62
We come unto our fathers' God . . . . .	408	Ye servants of God, your Master proclaim . .	154
We give Thee but Thine own . . . . .	376	Ye servants of the Lord . . . . .	343
We have not known Thee as we ought . .	472	Yet there is room: the Lamb's bright hall . .	456
We plough the fields, and scatter . . . . .	709	Your harps, ye trembling saints . . . . .	539
We sing His love, who once was slain . . .	616	ZION, to thy Saviour singing . . . . .	329
Weary of earth, and laden with my sin . .	471

The Lord's Prayer

OUR FATHER WHICH ART IN HEAVEN, HALLOWED BE THY NAME; THY KINGDOM COME; THY WILL BE DONE IN EARTH AS IT IS IN HEAVEN; GIVE US THIS DAY OUR DAILY BREAD; AND FORGIVE US OUR DEBTS, AS WE FORGIVE OUR DEBTORS; AND LEAD US NOT INTO TEMPTATION, BUT DELIVER US FROM EVIL; FOR THINE IS THE KINGDOM, AND THE POWER, AND THE GLORY, FOR EVER. AMEN.

The Ten Commandments

GOD spake all these words, saying, I am the LORD thy God, which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

I. Thou shalt have no other gods before Me.

II. Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I the LORD thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate Me; and showing mercy unto thousands of them that love Me, and keep My commandments.

III. Thou shalt not take the Name of the LORD thy God in vain; for the LORD will not hold him guiltless that taketh His Name in vain.

IV. Remember the Sabbath-day, to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labor, and do all thy work: but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the LORD thy God; in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy man-servant, nor thy maid-servant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates; for in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the LORD blessed the Sabbath-day, and hallowed it.

V. Honor thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee.

VI. Thou shalt not kill.

VII. Thou shalt not commit adultery.

VIII. Thou shalt not steal.

IX. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.

X. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife, nor his man-servant, nor his maid-servant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor any thing that is thy neighbor's.

HEAR also the words of our Lord Jesus, how He saith: Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it: Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.

The Apostles' Creed

I BELIEVE in GOD THE FATHER Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth:

And in JESUS CHRIST His only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost; born of the Virgin Mary: suffered under Pontius Pilate; was crucified, dead, and buried; He descended into hell;* the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven; and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the HOLY GHOST; the holy Catholic Church; the Communion of Saints; the Forgiveness of sins: the Resurrection of the body; and the Life everlasting. Amen.

* i. e. Continued in the state of the dead and under the power of death until the third day.

Opening Sentences

LET Israel hope in the Lord : for with the Lord there is mercy, and with Him is plenteous redemption.

My voice shalt Thou hear in the morning, O Lord ; in the morning will I direct my prayer unto Thee, and will look up.

I WILL come into Thy house in the multitude of Thy mercy ; and in Thy fear will I worship toward Thy holy temple.

Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in Thy sight, O Lord, my strength and my Redeemer.

OUR help is in the name of the Lord, who made heaven and earth.

Where two or three are gathered together in My name, there am I in the midst of them.

IF we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.

If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

WE have not an High Priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities ; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.

I WILL arise and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before thee, and am no more worthy to be called thy son.

Enter not into judgment with Thy servant : for in Thy sight shall no man living be justified.

THE sacrifices of God are a broken spirit : a broken and a contrite heart, O God, Thou wilt not despise.

Offer the sacrifices of righteousness, and put your trust in the Lord.

RETURN unto thy rest, O my soul ; for the Lord hath dealt bountifully with thee.

Abide with us : for it is toward evening, and the day is far spent.

LORD, I cry unto Thee : make haste unto me ; give ear unto my voice, when I cry unto Thee.

Let my prayer be set forth before Thee as incense ; and the lifting up of my hands as the evening sacrifice.

THE hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth : for the Father seeketh such to worship Him. God is a Spirit : and they that worship Him must worship Him in spirit and in truth.

BLESSED is the man whom Thou choosest, and causest to approach unto Thee, that he may dwell in Thy courts : we shall be satisfied with the goodness of Thy house, even of Thy holy temple.

THE Lord is in His holy temple : let all the earth keep silence before Him.

O worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness : fear before Him all the earth.

IT is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord, and to sing praises unto Thy name, O Most High : to show forth Thy loving-kindness in the morning, and Thy faithfulness every night.

Delight thyself also in the Lord ; and He shall give thee the desires of thine heart.

THE Lord is nigh unto all them that call upon Him, to all that call upon Him in truth. He will fulfil the desire of them that fear Him : He also will hear their cry, and will save them.

O Thou that hearest prayer, unto Thee shall all flesh come.

I EVERY MORNING 7.7.7.7.7.7.

Edward J. Hopkins, 1872

1 Ev - ery morn - ing mer - cies new Fall as fresh as morn - ing dew ;

Ev - ery morn - ing let us pay Trib - ute with the ear - ly day :

For Thy mer - cies, Lord, are sure ; Thy com - pas - sion doth en - dure. A - MEN.

2 Still the greatness of Thy love
Daily doth our sins remove ;
Daily, far as east from west,
Lifts the burden from the breast ;
Gives unbought to those who pray
Strength to stand in evil day.

3 Let our prayers each morn prevail,
That these gifts may never fail ;
And, as we confess the sin
And the tempter's power within,
Every morning, for the strife,
Feed us with the Bread of Life.

4 As the morning light returns,
As the sun with splendor burns,
Teach us still to turn to Thee,
Ever-blessèd Trinity,
With our hands our hearts to raise,
In unfailing prayer and praise.

1 O God, be - fore Thy sun's bright beams All night's dark shad - ows fly;

So on the soul Thy mer - cy gleams, And doubts and ter - rors die. A - MEN.

- 2 So freshly falls Thy heaven-sent grace,
As morning's gladdening breath;
Gives light to all to seek Thy face,
And guides in life and death.
- 4 Swift comes the hour when none can toil,
Short is the rugged way;
Teach us our lamps to fill with oil,
Whilst it is called to-day.
- 3 O holy light! O light of God!
O light unseen below,
Which fills the courts of Thine abode,
Which there the blest shall know!
- 5 Then we shall see that glorious light
Which to the saints is given,
So sweet, so fair, so passing bright,
The eternal morn of heaven.

6 O Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
O holy One in Three,
Grant us, with all Thy glorious host,
To share that morn with Thee.

1 Lord, in the morn-ing Thou shalt hear My voice as - cend - ing high;

To Thee will I di - rect my prayer, To Thee lift up mine eye: A - MEN.

2 Up to the hills, where Christ is gone
To plead for all His saints,
Presenting at His Father's throne
Our songs and our complaints.

4 But to Thy house will I resort,
To taste Thy mercies there;
I will frequent Thy holy court,
And worship in Thy fear.

3 Thou art a God before whose sight
The wicked shall not stand;
Sinners shall ne'er be Thy delight,
Nor dwell at Thy right hand.

5 O may Thy Spirit guide my feet
In ways of righteousness;
Make every path of duty straight
And plain before my face.

4 MORNING HYMN L. M.

François H. Barthélémon, 1791

I A - wake, my soul, and with the sun Thy dai - ly stage of du - ty run:

Shake off dull sloth, and joy - ful rise To pay thy morn - ing sac - ri - fice. A - MEN.

2 Thy precious time misspent redeem ;
Each present day thy last esteem ;
Improve thy talent with due care ;
For the great day thyself prepare.

3 By influence of the light Divine
Let thy own light to others shine ;
Reflect all heaven's propitious rays
In ardent love and cheerful praise.

4 Wake and lift up thyself, my heart,
And with the angels bear thy part,
Who all night long, unwearied, sing
High praise to the Eternal King.

5 All praise to Thee, who safe hast kept,
And hast refreshed me whilst I slept :
Grant, Lord, when I from death shall wake,
I may of endless light partake.

6 Direct, control, suggest, this day,
All I design, or do, or say ;
That all my powers, with all their might,
In Thy sole glory may unite.

7 Praise God from whom all blessings flow ;
Praise Him, all creatures here below ;
Praise Him above, ye heavenly host :
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Bishop Thomas Ken, 1695 (Text of 1709)

- 2 To Thee, whose word, the fount of light unsealing,
When hill and dale in thickest darkness lay,
Awoke bright rays across the dim earth stealing,
And bade the even and morn complete the day.
- 3 Look from the tower of heaven, and send to cheer us
Thy light and truth, to guide us onward still;
Still let Thy mercy, as of old, be near us,
And lead us safely to Thy holy hill.
- 4 In vain to labor, unless Thou be with him,
Man goeth forth through all the weary day;
In vain his strife, in vain his toil unceasing,
Unless Thy staff bring comfort on his way.
- 5 Thou, who hast made the north and south, watch o'er us;
Thou, in whose Name the lonely ones rejoice,
Still let Thy cloudy pillar glide before us,
Still let us listen for Thy warning voice.
- 6 So, when that morn of endless light is waking,
And shades of evil from its splendors flee,
Safe may we rise, the earth's dark breast forsaking,
Through all the long bright day to dwell with Thee.

IO HAYDN 8. 4. 7. 8. 4. 7.

Arr. from Joseph Haydn (1732-1809)

1 Come, my soul, thou must be waking ; Now is breaking O'er the earth an-oth - er day :

Come to Him who made this splendor ; See thou render All thy feeble powers can pay. A-MEN.

2 Pray that He may prosper ever
Each endeavor,
When thine aim is good and true ;
But that He may ever thwart thee,
And convert thee,
When thou evil wouldst pursue.

4 Mayest thou on life's last morrow,
Free from sorrow,
Pass away in slumber sweet ;
And, released from death's dark sadness,
Rise in gladness,
That far brighter Sun to greet.

3 Think that He thy ways beholdeth ;
He unfoldeth
Every fault that lurks within ;
Every stain of shame glossed over
Can discover,
And discern each deed of sin.

5 Only God's free gifts abuse not,
Light refuse not,
But His Spirit's voice obey ;
Thou with Him shalt dwell, beholding
Light enfolding
All things in unclouded day.

Her even - ing sac - ri - fice. A-MEN.

4 So now beneath His eye
Would calmly rest,
Without a wish or thought
Abiding in the breast,

5 Save that His will be done,
Whate'er betide;
Dead to herself, and dead
In Him to all beside.

2 As Christ, upon the cross
In death reclined,
Into His Father's hands
His parting soul resigned;

6 Thus would I live; yet now
Not I, but He
In all His power and love
Henceforth alive in me,

3 So now herself my soul
Would wholly give Into His sacred charge,
In whom all spirits live;

7 One sacred Trinity,
One Lord Divine;
Myself for ever His,
And He for ever mine!

14 NOW GOD BE WITH US 11. 11. 11. 5.

Sir Joseph Barnby, 1872

1 Now God be with us, for the night is clos - ing: The light and dark - ness are of His dis - pos - ing; And 'neath His shad - ow here to rest we yield us, For He will shield us. A - MEN.

Slower.

- 2 Let evil thoughts and spirits flee before us;
Till morning cometh, watch, O Master, o'er us;
In soul and body Thou from harm defend us,
Thine angels send us.
- 3 Let holy thoughts be ours when sleep o'ertakes us;
Our earliest thoughts be Thine when morning wakes us;
All day serve Thee, in all that we are doing
Thy praise pursuing.
- 4 As Thy beloved, soothe the sick and weeping,
And bid the prisoner lose his griefs in sleeping;
Widows and orphans, we to Thee commend them,
Do Thou befriend them.
- 5 We have no refuge, none on earth to aid us,
Save Thee, O Father, who Thine own hast made us;
But Thy dear presence will not leave them lonely,
Who seek Thee only.
- 6 Father, Thy Name be praised, Thy kingdom given,
Thy will be done on earth as 'tis in heaven;
Keep us in life, forgive our sins, deliver
Us now and ever.

1 This is the day the Lord hath made; He calls the hours His own;

Let heaven re-joice, let earth be glad, And praise sur-round the throne. A-MEN.

2 To-day He rose and left the dead,
And Satan's empire fell;
To-day the saints His triumphs spread,
And all His wonders tell.

4 Blest be the Lord, who comes to men
With messages of grace;
Who comes in God His Father's Name
To save our sinful race.

3 Hosanna to the anointed King,
To David's holy Son!
Help us, O Lord; descend and bring

2 Now may the King descend,
And fill His throne of grace:
Thy sceptre, Lord, extend,
While saints address Thy face;
Let sinners feel Thy quickening word,
And learn to know and fear the Lord.

3 Descend, celestial Dove,
With all Thy quickening powers;
Disclose a Saviour's love,
And bless these sacred hours;
Then shall my soul new life obtain,
Nor Sabbaths e'er be spent in vain.

2 Fount of all our joy and peace,
To Thy living waters lead me;
Thou from earth my soul release,
And with grace and mercy feed me;
Bless Thy word, that it may prove Rich in fruits that Thou dost love.

4 Let me with my heart to-day,
Holy, Holy, Holy, singing,
Rapt awhile from earth away,
All my soul to Thee upspringing,
Have a foretaste inly given
How they worship Thee in heaven.

3 Kindle Thou the sacrifice
That upon my lips is lying;
Clear the shadows from mine eyes,
That, from every error flying,
No strange fire may in me glow
That Thine altar doth not know.

5 Rest in me, and I in Thee;
Build a paradise within me;
O reveal Thyself to me,
Blessèd Love, who diedst to win me;
Fed from Thine exhaustless urn,
Pure and bright my lamp shall burn.

6 Hence all care, all vanity,
For the day to God is holy;
Come, Thou glorious Majesty,
Deign to fill this temple lowly;
Naught to-day my soul shall move,
Simply resting in Thy love.

2 Sad and weary were our way,
Fainting oft beneath our load,
But for thee, thou blessed day,
Resting-place on life's rough road :
Here flow forth the streams of grace ;
Strengthened hence we run our race.

3 Great Creator, who this day
From Thy perfect work didst rest,
By the souls that own Thy sway
Hallowed be its hours and blest ;
Cares of earth aside be thrown,
This day given to heaven alone.

4 Saviour, who this day didst break
The dark prison of the tomb,
Bid my slumbering soul awake ;
Shine through all its sin and gloom :
Let me, from my bonds set free,
Rise from sin, and live to Thee.

5 Blessed Spirit, Comforter,
Sent this day from Christ on high ;
Lord, on me Thy gifts confer,
Cleanse, illumine, sanctify :
All Thine influence shed abroad ;
Lead me to the truth of God.

3 O Saviour, with protecting care,
Return to this Thy house of prayer;
Assembled in Thy sacred Name,
Where we Thy parting promise claim:
Hosanna, Lord! Hosanna in the highest!

4 But, chiefest, in our cleansed breast,
Eternal, bid Thy Spirit rest,
And make our secret soul to be
A temple pure, and worthy Thee:
Hosanna, Lord! Hosanna in the highest!

5 So, in the last and dreadful day,
When earth and heaven shall melt away,
Thy flock, redeemed from sinful stain,
Shall swell the sound of praise again:

57 HOLY DAY 7. 6. 7. 6. 7. 7.

John H. Gower, 1895

1 Lord, on Thy re - turn - ing day, From common la - bor freed, We are come to sing and pray With felt re - turn - ing need : Come to seek our for - mer rest,

Come to urge our old request. A - MEN.

Copyright, 1895, by THE TRUSTEES OF THE PRESBYTERIAN
BOARD OF PUBLICATION AND SABBATH-SCHOOL WORK

3 We would sing as in the rays
Of mercy ever bright,
Which endureth, to Thy praise,
For ever Thy delight :
Sing for happiness we know,
Or that we may happy grow.

2 Show us, Lord, the goal of life,
And give us heart to run ;
Breathe the peace that follows strife,
Lest future work we shun :
Hearts that hasty time has grieved
Are by Sabbath calm relieved.

4 We would pray as those who stand
Their truest Friend beside,
Whom He takes as by the hand,
Unto their God to guide ;
By His power, and for His sake,
Fully us Thy children make.

Rev. Thomas T. Lynch, 1855

58 (TRINITY) 6. 6. 4. 6. 6. 6. 4.

1 COME, Thou Almighty King,
Help us Thy Name to sing,
Help us to praise :
Father, all-glorious,
O'er all victorious,
Come, and reign over us,
Ancient of days.

2 Come, Thou Incarnate Word,
Gird on Thy mighty sword,
Our prayer attend :
Come, and Thy people bless,
And give Thy word success ;
Spirit of holiness,
On us descend.

3 Come, Holy Comforter,
Thy sacred witness bear
In this glad hour :
Thou who almighty art,
Now rule in every heart,
And ne'er from us depart,
Spirit of power.

4 To the great One in Three Eternal praises be
Hence evermore.
His sovereign majesty
May we in glory see,
And to eternity
Love and adore.

1 Je - sus, wher-e'er Thy peo - ple meet, There they be-hold Thy mer - cy - seat;

Wher-e'er they seek Thee, Thou art found, And ev-ery place is hal-lowed ground : A - MEN.

2 For Thou, within no walls confined,
Inhabitest the humble mind ;

4 Here may we prove the power of prayer
To strengthen faith, and sweeten care,
To teach our faint desires to rise,
And bring all heaven before our eyes.

3 Dear Shepherd of Thy chosen few,
Thy former mercies here renew ;
Here to our waiting hearts proclaim
The sweetness of Thy saving Name.

5 Lord, we are few, but Thou art near ;
Nor short Thine arm, nor deaf Thine ear :
O rend the heavens, come quickly down,
And make a thousand hearts Thine own.

2 Ye blessed souls at rest,
Who ran this earthly race,
And now, from sin released,
Behold your Saviour's face,
God's praises sound, as in His light
With sweet delight ye do abound.

3 Ye saints, who toil below,
Adore your heavenly King,
And onward as ye go
Some joyful anthem sing;
Take what He gives, and praise Him still,
Through good and ill, who ever lives.

4 My soul, bear thou thy part,
Triumph in God above,
And with a well-tuned heart
Sing thou the songs of love:
Let all thy days till life shall end,
Whate'er He send, be filled with praise.

Old English Melody: Parish Choir, 1851

1 Christ is our Cor-ner-stone. On Him a-lone we build; With His true saints a-lone

The courts of heaven are filled: On His great love our hopes we place

Of present grace and joys a-bove. A-MEN.

2 O then with hymns of praise
These hallowed courts shall ring;
Our voices we will raise
The Three in One to sing;
And thus proclaim in joyful song,
Both loud and long, that glorious
Name.

3 Here, gracious God, do Thou
For evermore draw nigh;
Accept each faithful vow,
And mark each suppliant sigh;
In copious shower on all who pray,
Each holy day, Thy blessings pour.

4 Here may we gain from heaven
The grace which we implore;
And may that grace, once given,
Be with us evermore,
Until that day when all the blest
To endless rest are called away.

64 (DARWALL'S 148th) 6. 6. 6. 6. 8. 8.

1 LORD of the worlds above,
How pleasant and how fair
The dwellings of Thy love,
Thine earthly temples, are:
To Thine abode my heart aspires,
With warm desires to see my God.

2 O happy souls that pray
Where God appoints to hear!
O happy men that pay
Their constant service there!
They praise Thee still; and happy they
That love the way to Zion's hill.

3 They go from strength to strength,
Through this dark vale of tears,
Till each arrives at length,
Till each in heaven appears:
O glorious seat, when God, our King,
Shall thither bring our willing feet!

4 God is our Sun and Shield,
Our Light and our Defence;
With gifts His hands are filled;
We draw our blessings thence.
Thrice happy he, O God of hosts,
Whose spirit trusts alone in Thee.

2 Father of all, to Thee
Our contrite hearts we raise,
Unstrung by sin and pain,
Long voiceless in Thy praise ;
Breathe Thou the silent chords along,
Until they tremble into song.

3 Father of all, to Thee
We breathe unuttered fears,
Deep-hidden in our souls,

That have no voice but tears ;
Take Thou our hand, and through the wild
Lead gently on each trembling child.

4 Father of all, may we
In praise our tongues employ,
When gladness fills the soul
With deep and hallowed joy ;
In storm and calm give us to see
The path of peace, which leads to Thee.

Rev. John Julian, 1874

1 LORD, we come before Thee now ;
At Thy feet we humbly bow ;
O do not our suit disdain :
Shall we seek Thee, Lord, in vain ?

2 Lord, on Thee our souls depend ;
In compassion now descend ;
Fill our hearts with Thy rich grace,
Tune our lips to sing Thy praise.

3 In Thine own appointed way,
Now we seek Thee, here we stay :

Lord, we know not how to go,
Till a blessing Thou bestow.

4 Send some message from Thy word,
That may joy and peace afford ;
Let Thy Spirit now impart
Full salvation to each heart.

5 Comfort those who weep and mourn,
Let the time of joy return ;
Heal the sick, the captive free,
Let us all rejoice in Thee.

 Lord of all the heavenly powers,
 Be the same loud anthem ours.

3 Glorified apostles raise
 Night and day continual praise;
 Hast Thou not a mission too
 For Thy children here to do?

4 With Thy prophets' goodly line
 We in mystic bond combine;
 For Thou hast to babes revealed
 Things that to the wise were sealed.

5 Martyrs, in a noble host,
 Of Thy cross are heard to boast;
 Since so bright the crown they wear,
 Early we Thy cross would bear.

6 All Thy Church in heaven and earth,
 Jesus, hail Thy spotless birth,
 Own the God who all has made,
 And the Spirit's soothing aid.

7 Offspring of a Virgin's womb,
 Slain, and Victor o'er the tomb,
 Seated on the judgment-throne,
 Number us among Thine own.

at Thy word, Is - sued in - to glo - rious birth, All Thy works be - fore Thee stood,

And Thine eye be - held them good, While they sang with sweet ac - cord, Ho - ly, Ho - ly, Ho - ly, Lord! A - MEN.

2 Holy, Holy, Holy! Thee,
One Jehovah evermore,
Father, Son, and Spirit, we,
Dust and ashes, would adore;

Lightly by the world esteemed,
From that world by Thee redeemed,
Sing we here with glad accord,
Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord!

3 Holy, Holy, Holy! All
Heaven's triumphant choirs shall sing,
When the ransomed nations fall
At the footstool of their King:
Then shall saints and seraphim,
Hearts and voices, swell one hymn,
Round the throne with full accord,
Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord!

2 Our years are like the shadows
On sunny hills that lie,
Or grasses in the meadows
That blossom but to die ;
A sleep, a dream, a story
By strangers quickly told,
An unremaining glory
Of things that soon are old.

3 O Thou, who canst not slumber,
Whose light grows never pale,
Teach us aright to number
Our years before they fail ;

On us Thy mercy lighten,
On us Thy goodness rest,
And let Thy Spirit brighten
The hearts Thyself hast blessed.

4 Lord, crown our faith's endeavor
With beauty and with grace,
Till, clothed in light for ever,
We see Thee face to face :
A joy no language measures ;
A fountain brimming o'er ;
An endless flow of pleasures ;
An ocean without shore.

2 Their golden crowns they fling
Before His throne of light,
And strike the rapturous string,
Unceasing, day and night :
“ Earth, heaven, and sea,
Thy praise declare ;
For Thine they are,
And Thine shall be.

3 “ O Holy, Holy Lord,
Creation’s sovereign King !
Thy majesty adored
Let all creation sing ;
Who wast, and art,
And art to be ;
Nor time shall see
Thy sway depart.

4 “ Great are Thy works of praise,
O God of boundless might ;
All just and true Thy ways,
Thou King of saints, in light :

Let all above,
And all below,
Conspire to show
Thy power and love.

5 “ Who shall not fear Thee, Lord,
And magnify Thy Name ?
Thy judgments, sent abroad,
Thy holiness proclaim :
Nations shall throng
From every shore,
And all adore
In one loud song.”

6 While thus the powers on high
Their swelling chorus raise,
Let earth and man reply,
And echo back the praise :
His glory own,
First, last, and best ;
God ever blest,
And God alone.

And Him my only portion make,
My Shield and Tower.

3 He by Himself hath sworn,
I on His oath depend ;
I shall, on eagle's wings upborne,
To heaven ascend :
I shall behold His face,
I shall His power adore,
And sing the wonders of His grace
For evermore.

4 There dwells the Lord our King,
The Lord our Righteousness,
Triumphant o'er the world and sin,
The Prince of Peace ;

On Zion's sacred height
His kingdom still maintains,
And, glorious with His saints in light,
For ever reigns.

5 The God who reigns on high
The great archangels sing ;
And, " Holy, Holy, Holy," cry,
" Almighty King !
Who was, and is, the same,
And evermore shall be ;
Jehovah, Father, Great I AM !
We worship Thee."

6 The whole triumphant host
Give thanks to God on high ;
" Hail, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost !
They ever cry :
Hail, Abraham's God and mine !
I join the heavenly lays ;
All might and majesty are Thine,
And endless praise.

109 (POSEN) 7. 7. 7. 7.

1 SONGS of praise the angels sang,
Heaven with alleluias rang,
When Jehovah's work begun,
When He spake, and it was done.

2 Songs of praise awoke the morn,
When the Prince of Peace was born :
Songs of praise arose, when He Captive led captivity.

3 Heaven and earth must pass away,
Songs of praise shall crown that day :
God will make new heavens, new earth,
Songs of praise shall hail their birth.

4 And can man alone be dumb,
Till that glorious kingdom come ?
No : the Church delights to raise
Psalms, and hymns, and songs of praise.

5 Saints below, with heart and voice,
Still in songs of praise rejoice,
Learning here, by faith and love,
Songs of praise to sing above.

6 Borne upon their latest breath,
Songs of praise shall conquer death :
Then, amidst eternal joy,
Songs of praise their powers employ.

2 Thou who art beyond the farthest
Mortal eye can scan,
Can it be that Thou regardest
Songs of sinful man?
Can we feel that Thou art near us,
And wilt hear us?
Yea, we can.

3 Yea, we know Thy love rejoices
O'er each work of Thine;
Thou didst ears and hands and voices
For Thy praise combine;
Craftsman's art and music's measure
For Thy pleasure
Didst design.

4 Here, great God, to-day we offer
Of Thine own to Thee;
And for Thine acceptance proffer,
All unworthily,
Hearts and minds, and hands and voices,
In our choicest
Melody.

5 Honor, glory, might, and merit,
Thine shall ever be,

- 2 The Lord Jehovah is my God,
My Rock, my Strength, my Wealth ;
My strong Deliverer, and my Trust,
My spirit's only Health.
- 3 In my distress I sought my God,
I sought Jehovah's face :
My cry before Him came ; He heard
Out of His holy place.
- 4 The Lord descended from above
And bowed the heavens most high,
And underneath His feet He cast
The darkness of the sky.
- 5 On cherub and on cherubim
Full royally He rode,
And on the wings of mighty winds
Came flying all abroad.
- 6 The voice of God did thunder high,
The lightnings answered keen ;
The channels of the deep were bared,
The world's foundations seen.
- 7 And so delivered He my soul :
Who is a rock but He ?

3 Thy providence is kind and large,
Both man and beast Thy bounty share ;
The whole creation is Thy charge,
But saints are Thy peculiar care.

4 My God, how excellent Thy grace,
Whence all our hope and comfort spring !
The sons of Adam in distress
Fly to the shadow of Thy wing.

5 From the provisions of Thy house

Stand up, and bless the Lord your God,
With heart and soul and voice.

2 Though high above all praise,
Above all blessing high,
Who would not fear His holy Name,
And laud, and magnify ?

3 O for the living flame,
From His own altar brought,
To touch our lips, our minds inspire,
And wing to heaven our thought !

4 God is our Strength and Song,
And His salvation ours ;
Then be His love in Christ proclaimed
With all our ransomed powers.

5 Stand up, and bless the Lord ;
The Lord your God adore :
Stand up, and bless His glorious Name,
Henceforth for evermore.

2 Let the ransomed thus rejoice,
Gathered out of every land,
As the people of His choice,
Plucked from the destroyer's hand.

4 Then unto the Lord they cry;
He inclines a gracious ear,
Sends deliverance from on high,
Rescues them from all their fear.

3 In the wilderness astray,
Hither, thither, while they roam,
Hungry, fainting by the way,
Far from refuge, shelter, home :

5 To a pleasant land He brings,
Where the vine and olive grow,
Where from flowery hills the springs
Through luxuriant valleys flow.

6 O that men would praise the Lord
For His goodness to their race,
For the wonders of His word,
And the riches of His grace.

Leaving all behind us,
May we hasten on,
Backward never looking
Till the prize is won.

6 Higher, then, and higher,
Bear the ransomed soul,
Earthly toils forgetting,
Saviour, to its goal;
Where in joys unthought of Saints with angels sing,
Never weary, raising
Praises to their King.

153 DAY OF PRAISE S. M.

Charles Steggall, 1867

1 A - wake, and sing the song Of Mo - ses and the Lamb;

Wake ev - ery heart and ev - ery tongue To praise the Saviour's Name. A - MEN.

(See also ST. THOMAS, No. 114)

2 Sing of His dying love ;
Sing of His rising power ;
Sing how He intercedes above
For those whose sins He bore.

4 Sing on your heavenly way,
Ye ransomed sinners, sing ;
Sing on, rejoicing every day
In Christ the Eternal King.

3 Sing, till we feel our hearts
Ascending with our tongues ;
Sing, till the love of sin departs,
And grace inspires our songs.

5 Soon shall ye hear Him say,
"Ye blessed children, come ;"
Soon will He call you hence away,
And take His wanderers home.

I55 (CRUSADER'S HYMN) 5. 6. 8. 5. 5. 8.

- 1 FAIREST Lord Jesus,
Ruler of all nature,
O Thou of God and man the Son ;
Thee will I cherish,
Thee will I honor,
Thou, my soul's Glory, Joy, and Crown.
- 2 Fair are the meadows,
Fairer still the woodlands,
Robed in the blooming garb of spring :
- Jesus is fairer,
Jesus is purer,
Who makes the woeful heart to sing.
- 3 Fair is the sunshine,
Fairer still the moonlight,

2 Thou art our Holy Lord,
The all-subduing Word,
Healer of strife:
Thou didst Thyself abase,
That from sin's deep disgrace
Thou mightest save our race,
And give us life.

3 Thou art the Great High Priest,
Thou hast prepared the feast
Of heavenly love:
While in our mortal pain,
None calls on Thee in vain:
Help Thou dost not disdain,
Help from above.

4 Ever be Thou our Guide,
Our Shepherd and our Pride.
Our Staff and Song:
Jesus, Thou Christ of God,
By Thy perennial word,
Lead us where Thou hast trod:
Make our faith strong.

5 So now and till we die,
Sound we Thy praises high.
And joyful sing:
Infants, and the glad throng
Who to Thy Church belong,
Unite to swell the song
To Christ our King.

3 When unto Thee I flee,
Thou wilt my Refuge be,
Jesus, my Lord :
What need I now to fear,
What earthly grief or care,
Since Thou art ever near?
Jesus, my Lord.

2 Thou, blessèd Son of God,
Hast bought me with Thy blood,
Jesus, my Lord :
O how great is Thy love,
All other loves above,
Love that I daily prove,
Jesus, my Lord.

4 Soon Thou wilt come again ;
I shall be happy then,

1 GLORY to God on high !
Let praises fill the sky ;
Praise ye His Name :
Angels His Name adore,
Who all our sorrows bore ;
And saints cry evermore,
" Worthy the Lamb ! "

2 All they around the throne
Cheerfully join in one,
Praising His Name :
We who have felt His blood
Sealing our peace with God,
Spread His dear Name abroad ;
Worthy the Lamb !

3 Join all the human race
Our Lord and God to bless,
Praise ye His Name :
In Him we will rejoice,
Making a cheerful noise,
And say with heart and voice,
" Worthy the Lamb ! "

4 Though we must change our place,
Our souls shall never cease
Praising His Name :
To Him we'll tribute bring,
Laud Him, our gracious King,
And, without ceasing, sing,
" Worthy the Lamb ! "

3 Crown Him the Lord of peace ;

From pole to pole, that wars may cease,
Absorbed in prayer and praise :

His reign shall know no end ;
And round His piercèd feet
Fair flowers of Paradise extend Their fragrance ever sweet.

4 Crown Him the Lord of years,
The Potentate of time ;

4 This the Saviour has effected
By His mighty arm alone;
See the throne for Him erected;
'Tis an everlasting throne:
'Tis the great reward He gains,
Glorious fruit of all His pains.

3 Why that blood His raiment staining?
'Tis the blood of many slain;
Of His foes there's none remaining,
None the contest to maintain:
Fallen they are, no more to rise,
All their glory prostrate lies.

2 Still through the cloven skies they come,
With peaceful wings unfurled,
And still their heavenly music floats
O'er all the weary world :
Above its sad and lowly plains
They bend on hovering wing,
And ever o'er its Babel-sounds
The blessed angels sing.

3 And ye, beneath life's crushing load,
Whose forms are bending low,
Who toil along the climbing way
With painful steps and slow, —

Look now ! for glad and golden hours
Come swiftly on the wing :
O rest beside the weary road,
And hear the angels sing.

4 For lo, the days are hastening on,
By prophet bards foretold,
When with the ever-circling years
Comes round the age of gold ;
When peace shall over all the earth
Its ancient splendors fling,
And the whole world give back the song
Which now the angels sing.

Since hap - pier light from heav - en shone Than ev - er shone be - fore:

And in the hearts of old and young A joy most joy - ful stirred,

That sent such news from tongue to tongue As ears had nev - er heard. A-MEN.

2 Then angels on their starry way
Felt bliss unfelt before,
For news that men should be as they,
To darkened earth they bore;
So toiling men and spirits bright
A first communion had,
And in meek mercy's rising light
Were each exceeding glad.

3 And we are glad, and we will sing,
As in the days of yore;
Come all, and hearts made ready bring,
To welcome back once more

The day when first on wintry earth
A summer change began,
And, dawning in a lowly birth,
Uprose the Light of man.

4 For trouble such as men must bear
From childhood to fourscore,
He shared with us, that we might share
His joy for evermore;
And twice a thousand years of grief,
Of conflict, and of sin,
May tell how large the harvest sheaf
His patient love shall win.

1 Chris-tians, a - wake! sa-lute the happy morn Where-on the Sav-iour of the world was born;

Rise to a - dore the mys-ter - y of love Which hosts of an-gels chanted from a - bove:

With them the joy-ful tid-ings first be-gun Of God In-car-nate and the Virgin's Son. AMEN.

- 2 Then to the watchful shepherds it was told,
Who heard the angelic herald's voice: "Behold,
I bring good tidings of a Saviour's birth
To you, and all the nations upon earth:
This day hath God fulfilled His promised word;
This day is born a Saviour, Christ the Lord."
- 3 He spake: and straightway the celestial choir
In hymns of joy, unknown before, conspire;
The praises of redeeming love they sang,
And heaven's whole orb with alleluias rang:
God's highest glory was their anthem still,
Peace upon earth, and mutual good will.
- 4 To Bethlehem straight the enlightened shepherds ran,
To see the wonder God had wrought for man;
And found, with Joseph and the blessed maid,
Her Son, the Saviour, in a manger laid:
Amazed, the wondrous story they proclaim,
The first apostles of His infant fame.

The Nativity

5 Let us, like these good shepherds, then, employ
Our grateful voices to proclaim the joy:
Trace we the Babe, who has retrieved our loss,
From His poor manger to His bitter cross;
Treading His steps, assisted by His grace,
Till man's first heavenly state again takes place.

2 Shepherds, in the fields abiding,
Watching o'er your flocks by night,
God with man is now residing,
Yonder shines the infant Light:
Come and worship,
Worship Christ, the new-born King.

3 Sages, leave your contemplations,
Brighter visions beam afar;
Seek the great Desire of nations;
Ye have seen His natal star:
Come and worship,
Worship Christ, the new-born King.

4 Saints, before the altar bending,
Watching long in hope and fear,
Suddenly the Lord, descending,
In His temple shall appear:
Come and worship,
Worship Christ, the new-born King.

5 All creation, join in praising
God the Father, Spirit, Son;
Evermore your voices raising

2 Ye saw the heaven-born Child

In human flesh arrayed,

Benevolent and mild,

While in the manger laid :

And " Praise to God,

And peace on earth,"

For such a birth,

Proclaimed aloud.

3 Around the bloody tree

Ye pressed with strong desire

That wondrous sight to see,

The Lord of life expire :

And could your eyes

Have known a tear,

Had dropped it there

In sad surprise.

4 Around His sacred tomb

A willing watch ye keep

Till the blest moment come

To rouse Him from His sleep :

Then rolled the stone,

And all adored

Your rising Lord

With joy unknown.

5 When, all arrayed in light,

The shining Conqueror rode,

Ye hailed His rapturous flight

Up to the throne of God,

And waved around

Your golden wings,

And struck your strings

Of sweetest sound.

6 The warbling notes pursue,

And louder anthems raise,

While mortals sing with you

Their own Redeemer's praise :

And thou, my heart,

With equal flame,

And joy the same,

Perform thy part.

He shed those tears for thee.
3 He wept that we might weep ;
Each sin demands a tear ;
In heaven alone no sin is found,
And there 's no weeping there.

198 DELIVERANCE C. M. D.

Sir Joseph Barnby, 1867

I Thine arm, O Lord, in days of old Was strong to heal and save;

It triumphed o'er dis-ease and death, O'er dark-ness and the grave.

To Thee they went, the blind, the dumb, The pal-sied and the lame,

The lep-er with his taint-ed life, The sick with fe-vered frame. A - MEN.

2 And lo, Thy touch brought life and health,
Gave speech, and strength, and sight;
And youth renewed and frenzy calmed
Owned Thee, the Lord of light:
And now, O Lord, be near to bless,
Almighty as of yore,
In crowded street, by restless couch,
As by Gennesareth's shore.

3 Though Love and Might no longer heal
By touch, or word, or look;
Though they who do Thy work must read
Thy laws in nature's book;

Yet come to heal the sick man's soul,
Come, cleanse the leprous taint;
Give joy and peace where all is strife,
And strength where all is faint.

4 Be Thou our great Deliverer still,
Thou Lord of life and death;
Restore and quicken, soothe and bless
With Thine almighty breath.
To hands that work and eyes that see
Give wisdom's heavenly lore,
That whole and sick, and weak and strong,
May praise Thee evermore.

199 LAND OF REST C. M. D.

Richard S. Newman, 1879

O where is He that trod the sea, O where is He that spake,
And de-mons from their vic-tims flee, The dead their slum-bers break:
The pal-sied rise in free-dom strong, The dumb men talk and sing,
And from blind eyes, be-night-ed long, Bright beams of morn-ing spring? A - MEN.

2 O where is He that trod the sea,
O where is He that spake,
And piercing words of liberty
The deaf ears open shake;
And mildest words arrest the haste
Of fever's deadly fire,
And strong ones heal the weak who waste
Their life in sad desire?

3 O where is He that trod the sea,
O where is He that spake,
And dark waves rolling heavily
A glassy smoothness take;
And lepers, whose own flesh has been
A solitary grave,
See with amaze that they are clean,
And cry, "'Tis He can save"?

4 O where is He that trod the sea?
'Tis only He can save;
To thousands hungering wearily
A wondrous meal He gave;
Full soon, celestially fed,
Their rustic fare they take;
'Twas springtide when He blest the bread,
And harvest when He brake.

5 O where is He that trod the sea?
My soul, the Lord is here:
Let all thy fears be hushed in thee;
To leap, to look, to hear
Be thine: thy needs He'll satisfy.
Art thou diseased or dumb,
Or dost thou in thine hunger cry?
"I come," saith Christ, "I come."

1 How shall I fol - low Him I serve? How shall I cop - y Him I love?

Nor from those bless-ed foot-steps swerve, Which lead me to His seat a-bove? A-MEN.

2 Privations, sorrows, bitter scorn,
The life of toil, the mean abode,
The faithless kiss, the crown of thorn, —
Are these the consecrated road?

5 O let me think how Thou didst leave
Untasted every pure delight,
To fast, to faint, to watch, to grieve,
The toilsome day, the homeless night: —

3 'Twas thus He suffered, though a Son,
Foreknowing, choosing, feeling all,
Until the perfect work was done,
And drunk the bitter cup of gall.

6 To faint, to grieve, to die for me!
Thou camest, not Thyself to please;
And, dear as earthly comforts be,
Shall I not love Thee more than these?

4 Lord, should my path through suffering lie, 7
Forbid it I should e'er repine;
Still let me turn to Calvary,
Nor heed my griefs, remembering Thine.

Yes, I would count them all but loss,
To gain the notice of Thine eye:
Flesh shrinks and trembles at the cross,
But Thou canst give the victory.

2 He sent no angel to our race,
Of higher or of lower place,
But wore the robe of human frame,
And He Himself to this world came.

3 For us baptized, for us He bore
His holy fast, and hungered sore,
For us temptations sharp He knew,
For us the tempter overthrew.

4 For us He preaches and He prays,
Would do all things, would try all ways;
By words, and signs, and actions, thus
Still seeking not Himself, but us.

5 For us to wicked men betrayed,
Scourged, mocked, in crown of thorns
arrayed;
For us He bore the cross's death,
For us at length gave up His breath.

6 For us He rose from death again,
For us He went on high to reign,
For us He sent His Spirit here
To guide, to strengthen, and to cheer.

7 All honor, laud, and glory be,

O who like Thee did ever go
So patient through a world of woe!

2 O who like Thee so humbly bore
The scorn, the scoffs of men before;
So meek, forgiving, Godlike, high,
So glorious in humility!

3 And all Thy life's unchanging years,
A man of sorrows and of tears,
The cross, where all our sins were laid,
Upon Thy bending shoulders weighed;

4 And death, which sets the prisoner free,
Was pang, and scoff, and scorn to Thee;
Yet love through all Thy torture glowed,
And mercy with Thy life-blood flowed.

5 O in Thy light be mine to go,
Illuming all this way of woe;
And give me ever on the road
To trace Thy footsteps, Son of God.

To thank Thee, dearest Friend,
For this Thy dying sorrow,
Thy pity without end?
O make me Thine for ever;
And should I fainting be,

O show Thy cross to me;
And for my succor flying,

220 CHESHIRE C. M.

Este's Psalter, 1592

2 The awful sorrow of His face,
The bowing of His frame,
Come not from torture or disgrace;
He fears not cross or shame.

3 There is a deeper pang of grief,
An agony unknown,
In which His love finds no relief;
He bears it all alone.

4 He thinks of all for whom His life
Of lowliness and pain,
And weariness and care and strife,
Will be, alas, in vain.

5 He sees the souls for whom He dies
Yet clinging to their sin,
And heirs of mansions in the skies
Who will not enter in.

6 Ah! this, my Saviour, was the shame
That bowed Thy head so low;
These were the wounds that racked Thy
And made Thy tears to flow. [frame,

7 O may I in Thy sorrow share,
And mourn that sins of mine
Should ever wound with grief or care
That loving heart of Thine.

1 O THOU, the Eternal Son of God,
The Lamb for sinners slain,
We worship, while Thy head is bowed
In agony and pain.

2 None tread with Thee the holy place;
Thou sufferest alone;
Thine is the perfect sacrifice
Which only can atone.

3 Thou Great High Priest, Thy glory-rob
To-day are laid aside;
And human sorrows, Son of Man,
Thy Godhead seem to hide.

4 The cross is sharp, but in Thy woe
This is the lightest part;
Our sin it is which pierces Thee,
And breaks Thy sacred heart.

5 Who love Thee most, at Thy dear cross,
Will truest, Lord, abide;
Make Thou that cross our only hope,
O Jesus crucified.

227 THE SEVEN WORDS 7-7-7-6.

Arr. by Sir Arthur Sullivan, 1874

PART I. — "Father, forgive them ; for they know not what they do."

- 2 Saviour, for our pardon sue,
When our sins Thy pangs renew,
For we know not what we do :
Hear us, Holy Jesus.

- 3 O may we, who mercy need,
Be like Thee in heart and deed,
When with wrong our spirits bleed :
Hear us, Holy Jesus.

PART II. — "To-day shalt thou be with Me in Paradise."

- 1 JESUS, pitying the sighs
Of the thief who near Thee dies,
Promising him Paradise :
Hear us, Holy Jesus.

- 2 May we in our guilt and shame,
Still Thy love and mercy claim,
Calling humbly on Thy Name :
Hear us, Holy Jesus.

- 3 O remember us who pine,
Looking from our cross to Thine ;
Cheer our souls with hope Divine :
Hear us, Holy Jesus.

PART III. — "Woman, behold thy Son !"
"Behold thy mother !"

- 1 JESUS, loving to the end
Her whose heart Thy sorrows rend,
And Thy dearest human friend :
Hear us, Holy Jesus.

- 2 May we in Thy sorrows share,
And for Thee all peril dare,

And enjoy Thy tender care :
Hear us, Holy Jesus.

- 3 May we all Thy loved ones be,
All one holy family,
Loving for the love of Thee :
Hear us, Holy Jesus.

PART IV. — "My God, My God, why hast Thou forsaken Me ?"

- 1 JESUS, whelmed in fears unknown,
With our evil left alone,
While no light from heaven is shown :
Hear us, Holy Jesus.

- 2 When we vainly seem to pray,
And our hope seems far away,
In the darkness be our Stay :
Hear us, Holy Jesus.

- 3 Though no Father seem to hear,
Though no light our spirits cheer,
Tell our faith that God is near :
Hear us, Holy Jesus.

PART V. — "I thirst."

- 1 JESUS, in Thy thirst and pain,
While Thy wounds Thy life-blood drain,
Thirsting more our love to gain :
Hear us, Holy Jesus.

- 2 Thirst for us in mercy still ;
All Thy holy work fulfil ;
Satisfy Thy loving will :
Hear us, Holy Jesus.

- 3 May we thirst Thy love to know ;
Lead us in our sin and woe
Where the healing waters flow :
Hear us, Holy Jesus.

The Passion and Crucifixion

PART VI. — "It is finished."

- 1 JESUS, all our ransom paid,
All Thy Father's will obeyed;
By Thy sufferings perfect made:
Hear us, Holy Jesus.
- 2 Save us in our soul's distress;
Be our Help to cheer and bless,
While we grow in holiness:
Hear us, Holy Jesus.
- 3 Brighten all our heavenward way
With an ever holier ray,
Till we pass to perfect day:
Hear us, Holy Jesus.

PART VII. — "Father, into Thy hands I commend My spirit."

- 1 JESUS, all Thy labor vast,
All Thy woe and conflict past;
Yielding up Thy soul at last:
Hear us, Holy Jesus.
- 2 When the death shades round us lower,
Guard us from the tempter's power,
Keep us in that trial hour:
Hear us, Holy Jesus.
- 3 May Thy life and death supply
Grace to live and grace to die,
Grace to reach the home on high:
Hear us, Holy Jesus.

1 All is o'er, the pain, the sor-row, Hu-man taunts and fiend-ish spite;

Death shall be de-spoiled to-mor-row Of the prey he grasps to-night:

Yet a-while, His own to save, Christ must lin-ger in the grave. A-MEN.

While in brief repose He lies;
Deep the slumber that enfolds Him,
Veiled awhile from mortal eyes;
Slumber such as needs must be
After hard-won victory.
- 3 Fierce and deadly was the anguish
Which on yonder cross He bore;
How did soul and body languish
Till the toil of death was o'er:
But that toil, so fierce and dread,
Bruised and crushed the serpent's head.
- 4 All night long, with plaintive voicing,
Chant His requiem soft and low:
Loftier strains of loud rejoicing
From to-morrow's harps shall flow:
"Death and hell at length are slain!
Christ hath triumphed! Christ doth reign!"

Christ the Lord is risen to-day.

4 Every note with wonder swell,
Sin o'erthrown and captived hell :
Where is hell's once dreaded king?
Where, O death, thy mortal sting?

Alleluia ! Alleluia !

1 Lift up, lift up your voi - ces now; The whole wide world re - joic - es now:

The Lord hath triumphed glo-rious-ly, The Lord shall reign vic - to - rious-ly. A-MEN.

- 2 In vain with stone the cave they barred; 4 And all He did, and all He bare,
In vain the watch kept ward and guard: He gives us as our own to share;
Majestic from the spoilt tomb, And hope and joy and peace begin,
In pomp of triumph Christ is come. For Christ has won, and man shall win.
- 3 He binds in chains the ancient foe; 5 O Victor, aid us in the fight,
A countless host He frees from woe, And lead through death to realms of light:
And heaven's high portal open flies, We safely pass where Thou hast trod;
For Christ has risen, and man shall rise. In Thee we die to rise to God.
- 6 Thy flock, from sin and death set free,
Glad alleluias raise to Thee;
And ever with the heavenly host
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

- 2 Death seemed all-conquering when he bound
The Lord of life in prison;
The night of death was nowhere found
When Christ again was risen;
Wherefore praise Him night and day,
Him who took death's sting away.
- 3 His saints with Him must bow to death,
With Him are raised in spirit,
With Him they dwell above by faith,
Accepted through His merit:
Heaven and earth resound the strain,
Death by Jesus Christ is slain.

243 (WIRTEMBURG) 7. 7. 7. 7. with Alleluia

- 1 CHRIST the Lord is risen again;
Christ hath broken every chain:
Hark, angelic voices cry,
Singing evermore on high, Alleluia!
- 2 He who gave for us His life,
Who for us endured the strife,
Is our Paschal Lamb to-day;
We too sing for joy, and say, Alleluia!
- 3 He who bore all pain and loss
Comfortless upon the Cross,
Lives in glory now on high,
Pleads for us and hears our cry; Alleluia!
- 4 He who slumbered in the grave,
Is exalted now to save;
Now through Christendom it rings
That the Lamb is King of kings. Alleluia!
- 5 Now He bids us tell abroad
How the lost may be restored,
How the penitent forgiven,
How we too may enter heaven. Alleluia!
- 6 Thou our Paschal Lamb indeed,
Christ, to-day Thy people feed;
Take our sins and guilt away,
That we all may sing for aye, Alleluia!

Though returning to His throne,
Still He calls mankind His own.

4 See, He lifts His hands above;
See, He shows the prints of love;
Hark! His gracious lips bestow
Blessings on His Church below.

5 Still for us His death He pleads;
Prevalent He intercedes;
Near Himself prepares our place,

William S. Bambridge, 1872

1 See, the Conqueror mounts in tri-umph; See the King in roy-al state,

Rid-ing on the clouds, His char-iot, To His heav-enly pal-ace gate:

Hark! the choirs of an-gel voi-ces Joy-ful al-le-lu-ias sing,

And the por-tals high are lift-ed To re-ceive their heav-en-ly King. A-MEN.

2 Who is this that comes in glory,
With the trump of jubilee?
Lord of battles, God of armies,
He has gained the victory;
He who on the cross did suffer,
He who from the grave arose,
He has vanquished sin and Satan,
He by death has spoiled His foes.

3 While He raised His hands in blessing,
He was parted from His friends;
While their eager eyes behold Him,
He upon the clouds ascends;
He who walked with God, and pleased
Him,
Preaching truth and doom to come,
Christ, our Enoch, is translated
To His everlasting home.

4 Now our heavenly Aaron enters,
With His blood, within the veil;
Joshua now is come to Canaan,
And the kings before Him quail;
Now He plants the tribes of Israel
In their promised resting-place;
Now our great Elijah offers
Double portion of His grace.

5 Thou hast raised our human nature
In the clouds to God's right hand;
There we sit in heavenly places,
There with Thee in glory stand:
Jesus reigns, adored by angels,
Man with God is on the throne;
Mighty Lord, in Thine ascension
We by faith behold our own.

That once from heaven shone,
When startled shepherds in the night
The angels came upon.

2 O shine again, ye angel host,
And say that He is near;
Though but a simple few at most Believe He will appear.

3 Ye heavens, that have been growing dark,
Now also are ye dumb;

When shall the listeners say, "Hark!
They're singing — He will come"?

4 Lord, come again, O come again,
Come even as Thou wilt;
But not anew to suffer pain,
And strive with human guilt.

5 O come again, Thou mighty King,
Let earth Thy glory see;
And let us hear the angels sing,
"He comes with victory."

Josiah Booth, 1887

1 O quick - ly come, dread Judge of all ; For, aw - ful though Thine ad - vent be,

All shad - ows from the truth will fall, And false - hood die, in sight of Thee :

O quick - ly come ; for doubt and fear Like clouds dis - solve when Thou art near. A - MEN.

2 O quickly come, great King of all ;
Reign all around us, and within ;
Let sin no more our souls enthrall,
Let pain and sorrow die with sin :
O quickly come ; for Thou alone
Canst make Thy scattered people one.

3 O quickly come, true Life of all ;
For death is mighty all around ;
On every home his shadows fall,

On every heart his mark is found :
O quickly come ; for grief and pain
Can never cloud Thy glorious reign.

4 O quickly come, sure Light of all ;
For gloomy night broods o'er our way ;
And weakly souls begin to fall
With weary watching for the day :
O quickly come ; for round Thy throne
No eye is blind, no night is known.

263 DIES IRAE 8. 8. 8.

Rev. John B. Dykes, 1861

1 Day of wrath! O day of mourn-ing! See ful-filled the proph-ets' warn-ing,

Heaven and earth in ash-es burn-ing! 2 O what fear man's bo-som rend-eth,

When from heaven the Judge descendeth, On whose sen-tence all de-pend-eth.

3 Wondrous sound the trumpet fingeth;
Through earth's sepulchres it ringeth;
All before the throne it bringeth.

4 Death is struck, and nature quaking;
All creation is awaking,
To its Judge an answer making.

5 Lo, the book, exactly worded,
Wherein all hath been recorded:
Thence shall judgment be awarded.

6 When the Judge His seat attaineth,
And each hidden deed arraigneth,
Nothing unavenged remaineth.

7 What shall I, frail man, be pleading,
Who for me be interceding,
When the just are mercy needing?

8 King of Majesty tremendous,
Who dost free salvation send us,
Fount of pity, then befriend us.

9 Think, kind Jesus, my salvation
Cost Thy wondrous Incarnation;
Leave me not to reprobation.

10 Faint and weary Thou hast sought me,
On the cross of suffering bought me;
Shall such grace be vainly brought me?

11 Righteous Judge of retribution,
Grant Thy gift of absolution
Ere that reckoning-day's conclusion.

12 Guilty, now I pour my moaning,
All my shame with anguish owning;
Spare, O God, Thy suppliant groaning.

13 Thou the sinful woman savedst;
Thou the dying thief forgavest;
And to me a hope vouchsafest.

14 Worthless are my prayers and sighing;
Yet, good Lord, in grace complying,
Rescue me from fires undying.

15 With Thy favored sheep O place me; Nor a-mong the goats a-base me; But to Thy right

The Second Coming and Judgment

hand up-raise me. 16 While the wicked are confounded, Doomed to flames of woe unbounded,

Call me, with Thy saints surrounded. 17 Low I kneel with heart-submission; See, like ashes, my con-tri-tion; Help me in my last condition. 18 Ah, that day of tears and mourning!

From the dust of earth returning, Man for judgment must prepare him; Spare, O God, in mer-cy spare him: 19 Lord, all pitying, Jesus blest. Grant us Thine e - ter - nal rest. A-MEN.

William H. Monk, 1875

I Thou art com-ing, O my Sav-iour, Thou art com-ing, O my King,

In Thy beau-ty all re-splen-dent, In Thy glo-ry all trans-cend-ent;

Well may we re-joice and sing: Com-ing! in the open-ing east Her-ald brightness slow-ly swells; Com-ing! O my glo-rious Priest, Hear we not Thy golden bells? A-MEN.

2 Thou art coming, Thou art coming ;

We shall meet Thee on Thy way,
We shall see Thee, we shall know Thee,
We shall bless Thee, we shall show Thee
All our hearts could never say :
What an anthem that will be,
Ringing out our love to Thee,
Pouring out our rapture sweet
At Thine own all-glorious feet.

3 Thou art coming ; at Thy Table

We are witnesses for this ;
While remembering hearts Thou meetest
In communion clearest, sweetest,
Earnest of our coming bliss ;
Showing not Thy death alone,
And Thy love exceeding great,
But Thy coming and Thy throne,
All for which we long and wait.

The Second Coming and Judgment

4 Thou art coming ; we are waiting
 With a hope that cannot fail ;
 Asking not the day or hour,
 Resting on Thy word of power,
 Anchored safe within the veil :
 Time appointed may be long,
 But the vision must be sure ;
 Certainty shall make us strong,
 Joyful patience can endure.

5 O the joy to see Thee reigning,
 Thee, my own beloved Lord !
 Every tongue Thy Name confessing,
 Worship, honor, glory, blessing
 Brought to Thee with glad accord ;
 Thee, my Master and my Friend,
 Vindicated and enthroned ;
 Unto earth's remotest end
 Glorified, adored, and owned.

Sir John Stainer, 1875

1 Lift up your heads, re-joice, Redemption draweth nigh ; Now breathes a softer air,

Now shines a mild-er sky ; The early trees put forth Their new and ten-der leaf ;

Hushed is the moan-ing wind That told of win-ter's grief. A - MEN.

2 Lift up your heads, rejoice,
 Redemption draweth nigh ;
 Now mount the laden clouds,
 Now flames the darkening sky ;
 The early scattered drops
 Descend with heavy fall,
 And to the waiting earth
 The hidden thunders call.

3 Lift up your heads, rejoice,
 Redemption draweth nigh ;
 O note the varying signs
 Of earth, and air, and sky ;

The God of glory comes
 In gentleness and might,
 To comfort and alarm,
 To succor and to smite.

4 He comes, the wide world's King,
 He comes, the true heart's Friend,
 New gladness to begin,
 And ancient wrong to end ;
 He comes, to fill with light
 The weary waiting eye :
 Lift up your heads, rejoice,
 Redemption draweth nigh.

266 LUTHER'S HYMN 8. 7. 8. 7. 8. 8. 7.

Joseph Klug's Geistliche Lieder,
Wittenberg, 1535

1 { Great God, what do I see and hear! The end of things cre - a - ted! }
{ The Judge of man-kind doth ap-pear On clouds of glo - ry seat - ed! }

The trum - pet sounds; the graves re - store The dead which they con - tained be - fore: Pre - pare, my soul, to meet Him. A-MEN.

2 The dead in Christ shall first arise,
At the last trumpet's sounding,
Caught up to meet Him in the skies,
With joy their Lord surrounding;
No gloomy fears their souls dismay;
His presence sheds eternal day
On those prepared to meet Him.

3 But sinners, filled with guilty fears,
Behold His wrath prevailing;
For they shall rise, and find their tears
And sighs are unavailing:
The day of grace is past and gone;
Trembling they stand before the throne,
All unprepared to meet Him.

4 Great God, what do I see and hear!
The end of things created!
The Judge of mankind doth appear,
On clouds of glory seated!
Beneath His cross I view the day
When heaven and earth shall pass away,
And thus prepare to meet Him.

283 ST. PHILIP 7. 7. 7.

William H. Monk, 1861

2 Come, Thou Father of the poor,
Come with treasures which endure,
Come, Thou Light of all that live.

3 Thou, of all consolars best,
Thou, the soul's delightful Guest,
Dost refreshing peace bestow.

4 Thou in toil art comfort sweet,
Pleasant coolness in the heat,
Solace in the midst of woe.

5 Light immortal, Light Divine,
Visit Thou these hearts of Thine,
And our inmost being fill.

6 If Thou take Thy grace away,
Nothing pure in man will stay;
All his good is turned to ill.

7 Heal our wounds; our strength renew;
On our dryness pour Thy dew;
Wash the stains of guilt away.

8 Bend the stubborn heart and will;
Melt the frozen, warm the chill;
Guide the steps that go astray.

9 Thou, on those who evermore
Thee confess and Thee adore,
In Thy sevenfold gifts descend:

10 Give them comfort when they die,
Give them life with Thee on high;
Give them joys that never end.

Anon. (Latin, 13th cent.) Tr. Rev. Edward Caswall, 1849

1 O GRANT us light, that we may know
The wisdom Thou alone canst give;
That truth may guide where'er we go,
And virtue bless where'er we live.

2 O grant us light, that we may see
Where error lurks in human lore,
And turn our doubting minds to Thee,
And love Thy simple word the more.

3 O grant us light, that we may learn
How dead is life from Thee apart,

How sure is joy for all who turn
To Thee an undivided heart.

4 O grant us light, in grief and pain,
To lift our burdened hearts above,
And count the very cross a gain,
And bless our Father's hidden love.

5 O grant us light, when, soon or late,
All earthly scenes shall pass away,
In Thee to find the open gate
To deathless home and endless day.

2 The Church from her dear Master
Received the gift Divine,
And still that light she lifteth
O'er all the earth to shine.
It is the golden casket,
Where gems of truth are stored ;
It is the heaven-drawn picture
Of Christ, the living Word.

3 It floateth like a banner
Before God's host unfurled ;
It shineth like a beacon
Above the darkling world.

It is the chart and compass
That o'er life's surging sea,
'Mid mists and rocks and quicksands,
Still guides, O Christ, to Thee.

4 O make Thy Church, dear Saviour,
A lamp of purest gold,
To bear before the nations
Thy true light, as of old.
O teach Thy wandering pilgrims
By this their path to trace,
Till, clouds and darkness ended,
They see Thee face to face.

1 HOW precious is the book Divine,
By inspiration given :
Bright as a lamp its doctrines shine,
To guide our souls to heaven.

2 It sweetly cheers our drooping hearts,
In this dark vale of tears ;

Life, light, and joy it still imparts,
And quells our rising fears.

3 This lamp, through all the tedious night
Of life, shall guide our way,
Till we behold the clearer light
Of an eternal day.

1 THE Spirit breathes upon the word,
And brings the truth to sight ;
Precepts and promises afford
A sanctifying light.

2 A glory gilds the sacred page,
Majestic, like the sun :
It gives a light to every age ;
It gives, but borrows none.

3 The Hand that gave it still supplies
The gracious light and heat :

His truths upon the nations rise ;
They rise, but never set.

4 Let everlasting thanks be Thine
For such a bright display
As makes a world of darkness shine
With beams of heavenly day.

5 My soul rejoices to pursue
The steps of Him I love,
Till glory break upon my view
In brighter worlds above.

Her charter of salvation
One Lord, one faith, one birth ;
One holy Name she blesses,
Partakes one holy food,
And to one hope she presses,
With every grace endued.

3 Though with a scornful wonder
Men see her sore oppressed,
By schisms rent asunder,
By heresies distressed,
Yet saints their watch are keeping,
Their cry goes up, " How long ? "
And soon the night of weeping
Shall be the morn of song.

4 'Mid toil and tribulation,
And tumult of her war,
She waits the consummation
Of peace for evermore ;
Till with the vision glorious
Her longing eyes are blest,
And the great Church victorious
Shall be the Church at rest.

5 Yet she on earth hath union
With God the Three in One,
And mystic sweet communion
With those whose rest is won :
O happy ones and holy !
Lord, give us grace that we,
Like them the meek and lowly,
On high may dwell with Thee.

O where are kings and em-pires now Of old that went and came?

But, Lord, Thy Church is pray-ing yet, A thou-sand years the same. A-MEN.

2 We mark her goodly battlements,
And her foundations strong;
We hear within the solemn voice
Of her unending song.

3 For not like kingdoms of the world
Thy holy Church, O God;

Though earthquake shocks are threaten-
And tempests are abroad; [ing her,

4 Unshaken as eternal hills,
Immovable she stands,
A mountain that shall fill the earth,
A house not made by hands.

2 Now, these little ones receiving,
Fold them in Thy gracious arm;
There, we know, Thy word believing,
Only there secure from harm.

3 Never, from Thy pasture roving,
Let them be the lion's prey;

Let Thy tenderness, so loving, [way.
Keep them through life's dangerous

4 Then, within Thy fold eternal,
Let them find a resting-place,
Feed in pastures ever vernal,
Drink the rivers of Thy grace.

Thy childhood's law a moth-er's will, O-be-dience meek Thy brightest grace; A-MEN.

- 2 Lead every child that bears Thy Name To walk in Thine own guileless way,
To dread the touch of sin and shame,
And humbly, like Thyself, obey.
- 4 Gather Thy lambs within Thine arm,
And gently in Thy bosom bear;
Keep them, O Lord, from hurt and harm,
And bid them rest for ever there.
- 3 O let not this world's scorching glow Thy Spirit's quickening dew efface,
Nor blast of sin too rudely blow,
And quench the trembling flame of grace.
- 5 So shall they, waiting here below,
Like Thee their Lord, a little span,
In wisdom and in stature grow,
And favor with both God and man.

- 2 Here would I feed upon the bread of God,
Here drink with Thee the royal wine of heaven;
Here would I lay aside each earthly load,
Here taste afresh the calm of sin forgiven.
- 3 This is the hour of banquet and of song;
This is the heavenly table spread for me:
Here let me feast, and, feasting, still prolong
The brief, bright hour of fellowship with Thee.
- 4 I have no help but Thine, nor do I need Another arm save Thine to lean upon:
It is enough, my Lord, enough indeed;
My strength is in Thy might, Thy might alone.
- 5 Mine is the sin, but Thine the righteousness;
Mine is the guilt, but Thine the cleansing blood;
Here is my robe, my refuge, and my peace,
Thy blood, Thy righteousness, O Lord my God.
- 6 Feast after feast thus comes, and passes by;
Yet, passing, points to the glad feast above,
Giving sweet foretaste of the festal joy,

Too long a wanderer and too oft beguiled,
I only ask one reconciling word.
- 3 One word from Thee, my Lord, one smile, one look,
And I could face the cold, rough world again;
And with that treasure in my heart could brook
The wrath of devils and the scorn of men.
- 4 And is not mercy Thy prerogative —
Free mercy, boundless, fathomless, Divine?
Me, Lord, the chief of sinners, me forgive,
And Thine the greater glory, only Thine.
- 5 I hear Thy voice; Thou bid'st me come and rest;
I come, I kneel, I clasp Thy piercèd feet;
Thou bid'st me take my place, a welcome guest
Among Thy saints, and of Thy banquet eat.
- 6 My praise can only breathe itself in prayer,
My prayer can only lose itself in Thee;
Dwell Thou for ever in my heart, and there,
Lord, let me sup with Thee; sup Thou with me.

335 ST. GEORGE'S, WINDSOR 7. 7. 7. 7. D.

Sir George J. Elvey, 1859

1 At the Lamb's high feast we sing Praise to our vic - to - rious King, Who hath washed us in the tide Flowing from His pierced side ; Praise we Him whose love Divine Gives His sacred blood for wine, Gives His bod-y for the feast, Christ the Vic - tim, Christ the Priest. A-MEN.

2 Where the paschal blood is poured,
Death's dark angel sheathes his sword ;
Israel's hosts triumphant go
Through the wave that drowns the foe.
Praise we Christ, whose blood is shed,
Paschal Victim, Paschal Bread ;
With sincerity and love
Eat we manna from above.

3 Mighty Victim from the sky,
Powers of hell beneath Thee lie ;
Death is conquered in the fight,
Thou hast brought us life and light :
Paschal triumph, paschal joy,
Only sin can this destroy ;
From the death of sin set free
Souls re-born, dear Lord, in Thee.

Anon. (Latin, 6th cent.) Tr. Robert Campbell, 1849 : verse 1, ll. 3, 6, 8, verse 2, l. 5, alt.

336 (SCHUMANN) S. M.

1 A PARTING hymn we sing
Around Thy table, Lord ;
Again our grateful tribute bring,
Our solemn vows record.

2 Here have we seen Thy face,
And felt Thy presence here ;
So may the savor of Thy grace
In word and life appear.

3 The purchase of Thy blood,
By sin no longer led,
The path our dear Redeemer trod
May we rejoicing tread.

4 In self-forgetting love
Be our communion shown,
Until we join the Church above,
And know as we are known.

1 Lord of the har - vest, hear Thy need - y serv - ants' cry;

An - swer our faith's ef - fec - tual prayer, And all our wants sup - ply. A - MEN.

2 On Thee we humbly wait ;
Our wants are in Thy view ;
The harvest truly, Lord, is great,
The laborers are few.

4 Give the pure gospel word,
The word of general grace ;
Thee let them preach, the common Lord,
Saviour of human race.

3 Convert and send forth more
Into Thy Church abroad,
And let them speak Thy word of power,
As workers with their God.

5 O let them spread Thy Name,
Their mission fully prove ;
Thy universal grace proclaim,
Thine all-redeeming love.

6 On all mankind, forgiven,
Empower them still to call,
And tell each creature under heaven
That Thou hast died for all.

Strong in the strength which God supplies Through His E - ter - nal Son. A - MEN.

Copyright, 1895, by THE TRUSTEES OF THE PRESBYTERIAN BOARD OF PUBLICATION AND SABBATH-SCHOOL WORK

2 Strong in the Lord of hosts,
And in His mighty power,
Who in the strength of Jesus trusts
Is more than conqueror.

3 Stand then in His great might,
With all His strength endued ;
But take, to arm you for the fight,
The panoply of God :

4 That, having all things done,
And all your conflicts passed,
Ye may o'ercome through Christ alone,
And stand entire at last.

5 From strength to strength go on ;
Wrestle, and fight, and pray ;
Tread all the powers of darkness down,
And win the well-fought day.

6 Still let the Spirit cry
In all His soldiers, "Come,"
Till Christ the Lord descends from high,
And takes the conquerors home.

Rev. Charles Wesley, 1749

343 (LABAN) S. M.

1 YE servants of the Lord,
Each in his office wait,
Observant of His heavenly word,
And watchful at His gate.

2 Let all your lamps be bright,
And trim the golden flame ;
Gird up your loins, as in His sight,
For awful is His Name.

3 Watch : 'tis your Lord's command,
And while we speak, He's near ;
Mark the first signal of His hand,
And ready all appear.

4 O happy servant he
In such a posture found !
He shall his Lord with rapture see,
And be with honor crowned.

5 Christ shall the banquet spread
With His own royal hand,
And raise that favorite servant's head
Amidst the angelic band.

2 Man may trouble and distress me,
'Twill but drive me to Thy breast;

Heaven will bring me sweeter rest:
O 'tis not in grief to harm me
While Thy love is left to me;
O 'twere not in joy to charm me,
Were that joy unmixed with Thee.

3 Take, my soul, thy full salvation,
Rise o'er sin and fear and care;
Joy to find in every station
Something still to do or bear;

Think what Spirit dwells within thee,
What a Father's smile is thine,
What a Saviour died to win thee:
Child of heaven, shouldst thou repine?

4 Haste, then, on from grace to glory,
Armed by faith, and winged by prayer;
Heaven's eternal day's before thee,

ARMAGEDDON 6. 5. 6. 5. 121.

Arr. by Sir John Goss, 1871

1 Who is on the Lord's side? Who will serve the King? Who will be His help-ers

Oth-er lives to bring? Who will leave the world's side? Who will face the foe?

Who is on the Lord's side? Who for Him will go? By Thy call of mer-cy,

By Thy grace Di-vine, We are on the Lord's side, Sav-iour, we are Thine. A-MEN.

2 Not for weight of glory,
Not for crown and palm,
Enter we the army,
Raise the warrior psalm;
But for Love that claimeth
Lives for whom He died:
He whom Jesus nameth
Must be on His side.
By Thy love constraining,
By Thy grace Divine,
We are on the Lord's side,
Saviour, we are Thine.

3 Jesus, Thou hast bought us,
Not with gold or gem,
But with Thine own life-blood,
For Thy diadem:
With Thy blessing filling
Each who comes to Thee,
Thou hast made us willing,
Thou hast made us free.
By Thy grand redemption,
By Thy grace Divine,
We are on the Lord's side,
Saviour, we are Thine.

Consecration and Service

4 Fierce may be the conflict,
 Strong may be the foe,
 But the King's own army
 None can overthrow :
 Round His standard ranging,
 Victory is secure ;
 For His truth unchanging
 Makes the triumph sure.
 Joyfully enlisting
 By Thy grace Divine,
 We are on the Lord's side,
 Saviour, we are Thine.

5 Chosen to be soldiers
 In an alien land,
 Chosen, called, and faithful,
 For our Captain's band ;
 In the service royal
 Let us not grow cold ;
 Let us be right loyal,
 Noble, true, and bold.
 Master, Thou wilt keep us,
 By Thy grace Divine,
 Always on the Lord's side,
 Saviour, always Thine.

359 WORK SONG 7. 6. 7. 5. D.

Lowell Mason, 1864

1 Work, for the night is coming : Work through the morning hours ; Work while the dew is sparkling ; Work 'mid springing flowers ; Work while the day grows brighter, Under the glowing sun ; Work, for the night is coming, When man's work is done. A - MEN.

Copyright by OLIVER DITSON COMPANY

2 Work, for the night is coming :
 Work through the sunny noon ;
 Fill brightest hours with labor,
 Rest comes sure and soon ;
 Give every flying minute
 Something to keep in store ;
 Work, for the night is coming,
 When man works no more.

3 Work, for the night is coming :
 Under the sunset skies,
 While their bright tints are glowing,
 Work, for daylight flies ;
 Work till the last beam fadeth,
 Fadeth to shine no more ;
 Work while the night is darkening,
 When man's work is o'er.

361 ELLESDIE 8. 7. 8. 7. D.

Arr. from Mozart, by Joseph P. Holbrook, 1865

1 Hark! the voice of Je-sus crying, "Who will go and work today? Fields are white, and harvests waiting;
D. S. — Who will answer, gladly say - ing,

FINE. D.S.
Who will bear the sheaves away? " Loud and long the Master calleth, Rich reward He offers free; A - MEN.
" Here am I; send me, send me."

2 If you cannot cross the ocean,
And the heathen lands explore,
You can find the heathen nearer,
You can help them at your door.
If you cannot give your thousands,
You can give the widow's mite;
And the least you give for Jesus
Will be precious in His sight.

3 If you cannot speak like angels,
If you cannot preach like Paul,
You can tell the love of Jesus,
You can say He died for all.

If you cannot rouse the wicked
With the judgment's dread alarms,
You can lead the little children
To the Saviour's waiting arms.

4 Let none hear you idly saying,
"There is nothing I can do,"
While the souls of men are dying,
And the Master calls for you:
Take the task He gives you gladly,
Let His work your pleasure be;
Answer quickly when He calleth,
"Here am I; send me, send me."

Rev. Daniel March, 1863

1 SOLDIERS who to Christ belong,
Trust ye in His word, be strong;
For His promises are sure,
His rewards for aye endure.

2 His no crowns that pass away,
His no palm that sees decay,
His the joy that shall not fade,
His the light that knows no shade;

3 His the home for spirits blest,
Where He gives them peaceful rest,
Far above the starry skies,
In the bliss of Paradise.

4 Here on earth ye can but clasp
Things that perish in the grasp:
Lift your hearts, then, to the skies;
God Himself shall be your prize.

5 Praise we now with saints at rest
Father, Son, and Spirit blest;
For His promises are sure,
His rewards shall aye endure.

Within the limits of Thy love

The conflicts that Thy strength employ
Make me Divinely blest.

6 Dear Lord and Master mine,
Still keep Thy servant true;

2 O happy if ye labor
As Jesus did for men ;
O happy if ye hunger
As Jesus hungered then.

3 The cross that Jesus carried
He carried as your due ;
The crown that Jesus weareth
He weareth it for you.

4 The trials that beset you,
The sorrows ye endure,
The manifold temptations
That death alone can cure,

5 What are they but His jewels
Of right celestial worth?
What are they but the ladder
Set up to heaven on earth?

6 O happy band of pilgrims,
Look upward to the skies,
Where such a light affliction
Shall win you such a prize.

Quicken the smouldering embers now
By Thine almighty breath.

3 Revive Thy work, O Lord,
Create soul-thirst for Thee ;
And hungering for the Bread of Life
O may our spirits be.

4 Revive Thy work, O Lord,
Exalt Thy precious Name ;
And, by the Holy Ghost, our love

5 Revive Thy work, O Lord,

My foes are ever near me,

But, Jesus, draw Thou nearer,
And shield my soul from sin.

3 O let me hear Thee speaking
In accents clear and still,
Above the storms of passion,
The murmurs of self-will:

O speak to re-assure me,
To hasten or control;
O speak, and make me listen,
Thou Guardian of my soul.

4 O Jesus, Thou hast promised

Old French Melody : arr. by R. Redhead, 1853

1 Sol - diers of the cross, a - rise, Gird you with your ar - mor bright;
 Might - y are your en - e - mies, Hard the bat - tle ye must fight. A - MEN.

- 2 O'er a faithless fallen world
 Raise your banner in the sky;
 Let it float there wide unfurled;
 Bear it onward; lift it high.
- 3 'Mid the homes of want and woe,
 Strangers to the living word,
 Let the Saviour's herald go,
 Let the voice of hope be heard.
- 4 Where the shadows deepest lie,
 Carry truth's unsullied ray;
 Where are crimes of blackest dye,
 There the saving sign display.

- 5 To the weary and the worn
 Tell of realms where sorrows cease;
 To the outcast and forlorn
 Speak of mercy and of peace.
- 6 Guard the helpless; seek the strayed;
 Comfort troubles; banish grief;
 In the might of God arrayed,
 Scatter sin and unbelief.
- 7 Be the banner still unfurled,
 Still unsheathed the Spirit's sword,
 Till the kingdoms of the world
 Are the kingdom of the Lord.

1 HASTEN, Lord, the glorious time
When, beneath Messiah's sway,
Every nation, every clime,
Shall the gospel call obey.
Mightiest kings His power shall own,
Heathen tribes His Name adore;
Satan and his host o'erthrown,
Bound in chains, shall hurt no more.

2 Then shall wars and tumults cease,
Then be banished grief and pain;
Righteousness and joy and peace,
Undisturbed shall ever reign.
Bless we, then, our gracious Lord;
Ever praise His glorious Name;
All His mighty acts record;
All His wondrous love proclaim.

Upon the fruitful earth ;
And love, joy, hope, like flowers,
Spring in His path to birth ;
Before Him on the mountains
Shall peace, the herald, go,
And righteousness, in fountains,
From hill to valley flow.

3 Kings shall fall down before Him,
And gold and incense bring ;
All nations shall adore Him,
His praise all people sing ;
For He shall have dominion
O'er river, sea, and shore,
Far as the eagle's pinion
Or dove's light wing can soar.

4 For Him shall prayer unceasing
And daily vows ascend ;
His kingdom still increasing,
A kingdom without end :
The mountain dew shall nourish
A seed in weakness sown,
Whose fruit shall spread and flourish,
And shake like Lebanon.

5 O'er every foe victorious,
He on His throne shall rest,
From age to age more glorious,
All blessing and all-blest :
The tide of time shall never
His covenant remove,
His Name shall stand for ever, —
That Name to us is Love.

406 PRESBYTER C. M. D.

Walter O. Wilkinson, 1895

1 Lift up your heads, ye gates of brass, Ye bars of i - ron, yield,

And let the King of Glo - ry pass; The cross is in the field;

That ban - ner, bright - er than the star That leads the train of night,

Shines on their march, and guides from far His serv - ants to the fight. A - MEN.

- 2 A holy war those servants wage;
Mysteriously at strife,
The powers of heaven and hell engage
For more than death or life.
Ye armies of the living God,
His sacramental host,
Where hallowed footsteps never trod
Take your appointed post:
- 3 Though few and small and weak your bands,
Strong in your Captain's strength
Go to the conquest of all lands;
All must be His at length.

- Those spoils at His victorious feet
You shall rejoice to lay,
And lay yourselves, as trophies meet,
In His great judgment-day.
- 4 O fear not, faint not, halt not now;
In Jesus' Name be strong;
To Him shall all the nations bow,
And sing with you this song:
"Uplifted are the gates of brass,
The bars of iron yield;
Behold the King of Glory pass;
The cross hath won the field."

407 ALL SAINTS OLD 8.7.8.7.7.7.

Darmstädter Gesangbuch, 1698;
arr. by J. G. C. Störl, 1711

Who are these like stars ap-pear-ing, These be-fore God's throne who stand?

Each a gold-en crown is wear-ing; Who are all this glo-rious band?

Al-le-lu-ia! hark, they sing, Prais-ing loud their heav-en-ly King. A-MEN.

2 Who are these of dazzling brightness,
These in God's own truth arrayed,
Clad in robes of purest whiteness,
Robes whose lustre ne'er shall fade,
Ne'er be touched by time's rude hand?
Whence come all this glorious band?

4 These are they whose hearts were riven,
Sore with woe and anguish tried,
Who in prayer full oft have striven
With the God they glorified;
Now, their painful conflict o'er,
God has bid them weep no more.

3 These are they who have contended
For their Saviour's honor long,
Wrestling on till life was ended,
Following not the sinful throng;
These, who well the fight sustained,
Triumph through the Lamb have gained.

5 These like priests have watched and waited,
Offering up to Christ their will;
Soul and body consecrated,
Day and night they serve Him still:
Now in God's most holy place
Blest they stand before His face.

6 Lo, the Lamb Himself now feeds them
On Mount Zion's pastures fair;
From His central throne He leads them
By the living fountains there;
Lamb and Shepherd, Good Supreme,
Free He gives the cooling stream.

408 THE GOLDEN CHAIN 8. 7. 8. 7. 8. 8. 7.

Sir Joseph Barnby, 1887

1 We come un-to our fathers' God : Their Rock is our sal - va - tion ; The eternal arms, their

dear a-bode, We make our hab - i - ta-tion ; We bring Thee, Lord, the praise they brought,

We seek Thee as Thy saints have sought In ev - ery gen - er - a - tion. A - MEN.

(See also LUTHER'S HYMN, No. 266)

2 The fire Divine their steps that led Still goeth bright before us,
The heavenly shield, around them spread,
Is still high holden o'er us ;
The grace those sinners that subdued,
The strength those weaklings that re-n
ewed,
Doth vanquish, doth restore us.

3 The cleaving sins that brought them low
Are still our souls oppressing,
The tears that from their eyes did flow
Fall fast, our shame confessing ;
As with Thee, Lord, prevailed their cry,
So our strong prayer ascends on high,
And bringeth down Thy blessing.

4 Their joy unto their Lord we bring,
Their song to us descendeth ;
The Spirit who in them did sing
To us His music lendeth :
His song in them, in us, is one ;
We raise it high, we send it on,—
The song that never endeth.

5 Ye saints to come, take up the strain,
The same sweet theme endeavor ;
Unbroken be the golden chain !
Keep on the song for ever !
Safe in the same dear dwelling-place,
Rich with the same eternal grace,
Bless the same boundless Giver.

1 For all the saints who from their la-bors rest, Who Thee by faith be-fore the world con-fessed, Thy Name, O Je-sus, be for ev-er blest. f Al-le-lu-ia! f Al-le-lu-ia! A-MEN.

- 2 Thou wast their Rock, their Fortress, and their Might;
Thou, Lord, their Captain in the well-fought fight;
Thou, in the darkness drear, their one true Light. Alleluia!
- 3 O may Thy soldiers, faithful, true, and bold,
Fight as the saints who nobly fought of old,
And win with them the victor's crown of gold. Alleluia!
- 4 O blest communion, fellowship Divine!
We feebly struggle, they in glory shine;
Yet all are one in Thee, for all are Thine. Alleluia!
- 5 And when the strife is fierce, the warfare long,
Steals on the ear the distant triumph-song,
And hearts are brave again, and arms are strong. Alleluia!
- 6 The golden evening brightens in the west;
Soon, soon to faithful warriors cometh rest;
Sweet is the calm of Paradise the blest. Alleluia!
- 7 But lo, there breaks a yet more glorious day;
The saints triumphant rise in bright array;
The King of Glory passes on His way. Alleluia!
- 8 From earth's wide bounds, from ocean's farthest coast,
Through gates of pearl streams in the countless host,
Singing to Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, Alleluia!

2 Apostles, prophets, martyrs,
And all the sacred throng
Who wear the spotless raiment,
Who raise the ceaseless song;
For these, passed on before us,
Saviour, we Thee adore,
And, walking in their footsteps,
Would serve Thee more and more.

3 Then praise we God the Father,
And praise we God the Son,
And God the Holy Spirit,
Eternal Three in One;
Till all the ransomed number
Fall down before the Throne,
And honor, power, and glory

2 We are travelling home to God
In the way the fathers trod;
They are happy now, and we
Soon their happiness shall see.

4 Lift your eyes, ye sons of light,
Zion's city is in sight;
There our endless home shall be,
There our Lord we soon shall see.

3 Shout, ye little flock and blest;
Ye on Jesus' throne shall rest;
There your seat is now prepared,
There your kingdom and reward.

5 Fear not, brethren; joyful stand
On the borders of your land;
Jesus Christ, your Father's Son,
Bids you undismayed go on.

6 Lord, obediently we go,
Gladly leaving all below;
Only Thou our Leader be,
And we still will follow Thee.

- 2 These through fiery trials trod ;
These from great affliction came ;
Now before the throne of God
Sealed with His almighty Name,

Clad in raiment pure and white,
Victor-palms in every hand,
Through their dear Redeemer's might,
More than conquerors they stand.

- 3 Hunger, thirst, disease, unknown,
On immortal fruits they feed ;
Them the Lamb amidst the throne
Shall to living fountains lead :
Joy and gladness banish sighs ;
Perfect love dispels all fear ;
And for ever from their eyes
God shall wipe away the tear.

1 GIVE me the wings of faith to rise
Within the veil, and see
The saints above, how great their joys,
And bright their glories be.

2 Once they were mourning here below,
And wet their couch with tears ;
They wrestled hard, as we do now,
With sins, and doubts, and fears.

3 I ask them whence their victory came ;
They, with united breath,

Ascribe their conquest to the Lamb,
Their triumph to His death.

4 They marked the footsteps that He trod,
His zeal inspired their breast ;
And, following their incarnate God,
Possess the promised rest.

5 Our glorious Leader claims our praise
For His own pattern given,
While the long cloud of witnesses
Show the same path to heaven.

 In that dear home how sweet your rest!
- 4 The saints of God their vigil keep
 While yet their mortal bodies sleep,
 Till from the dust they too shall rise
 And soar triumphant to the skies:
 O happy saints! rejoice and sing;
 He quickly comes, your Lord and King.

- 3 The saints of God! Life's voyage o'er, Safe landed on that blissful shore,
 No stormy tempests now they dread,
 No roaring billows lift their head:
 O happy saints! for ever blest,
 In that calm haven of your rest!
- 5 O God of saints, to Thee we cry;
 O Saviour, plead for us on high;
 O Holy Ghost, our Guide and Friend,
 Grant us Thy grace till life shall end;
 That with all saints our rest may be
 In that bright Paradise with Thee.

Arr. from a Gregorian Chant, by Lowell Mason, 1824

I Not all the blood of beasts On Jew - ish al - tars slain,

Could give the guilt - y conscience peace, Or wash a - way the stain: A - MEN.

2 But Christ, the heavenly Lamb,
Takes all our sins away,
A sacrifice of nobler name
And richer blood than they.

3 My faith would lay her hand
On that dear head of Thine,
While like a penitent I stand,
And there confess my sin.

4 My soul looks back to see
The burdens Thou didst bear,
When hanging on the cursèd tree,
And hopes her guilt was there.

5 Believing, we rejoice
To see the curse remove;
We bless the Lamb with cheerful voice.
And sing His bleeding love.

Rev. Isaac Watts, 1709

428 (ST. ANDREW) S. M.

1 NOT what these hands have done
Can save this guilty soul;
Not what this toiling flesh has borne
Can make my spirit whole.

2 Not what I feel or do
Can give me peace with God;
Not all my prayers and sighs and tears
Can bear my awful load.

3 Thy work alone, O Christ,
Can ease this weight of sin;
Thy blood alone, O Lamb of God,
Can give me peace within.

4 Thy love to me, O God,
Not mine, O Lord, to Thee,
Can rid me of this dark unrest,
And set my spirit free.

5 Thy grace alone, O God,
To me can pardon speak;
Thy power alone, O Son of God,
Can this sore bondage break.

6 I bless the Christ of God;
I rest on love Divine;
And, with unfaltering lip and heart,
I call this Saviour mine.

I Praise to the Ho - liest in the height, And in the depth be praise;
In all His words most won - der - ful, Most sure in all His ways. A - MEN.

2 O loving wisdom of our God !
When all was sin and shame,
A second Adam to the fight
And to the rescue came.

3 O wisest love ! that flesh and blood,
Which did in Adam fail,
Should strive afresh against their foe,
Should strive and should prevail ;

4 And that a higher gift than grace
Should flesh and blood refine,
God's presence, and His very Self,
And essence all-Divine.

5 O generous love ! that He, who smote
In Man for man the foe,
The double agony in Man
For man should undergo ;

6 And in the garden secretly,
And on the cross on high,
Should teach His brethren, and inspire
To suffer and to die.

7 Praise to the Holiest in the height,
And in the depth be praise ;
In all His words most wonderful,
Most sure in all His ways.

2 The dying thief rejoiced to see
That fountain in his day;

Redeeming love has been my theme,

3 Dear dying Lamb, Thy precious blood
Shall never lose its power
Till all the ransomed Church of God
Be saved, to sin no more.

5 Then in a nobler, sweeter song

- 2 There's a wideness in God's mercy,
Like the wideness of the sea;
There's a kindness in His justice,
Which is more than liberty.
There is welcome for the sinner,
And more graces for the good;
There is mercy with the Saviour,
There is healing in His blood:
- 3 For the love of God is broader
Than the measures of man's mind,
And the heart of the Eternal
Is most wonderfully kind:

But we make His love too narrow
By false limits of our own,
And we magnify His strictness
With a zeal He will not own.

- 4 There is plentiful redemption
In the blood that has been shed;
There is joy for all the members
In the sorrows of the Head.
If our love were but more simple,
We should take Him at His word;
And our lives would be all sunshine
In the sweetness of our Lord.

- 2 Tell me the story slowly,
That I may take it in,
That wonderful redemption,
God's remedy for sin :
Tell me the story often,
For I forget so soon ;
The early dew of morning
Has passed away at noon.

- 3 Tell me the story softly,
With earnest tones, and grave ;
Remember, I'm the sinner
Whom Jesus came to save :
Tell me the story always,
If you would really be,
In any time of trouble,
A comforter to me.

- 4 Tell me the same old story
When you have cause to fear
That this world's empty glory
Is costing me too dear :
Yes, and when that world's glory
Is dawning on my soul,
Tell me the old, old story,
" Christ Jesus makes thee whole."

Will you slight His grace, and die ?

3 Sinners, turn ; why will ye die ?
God, the Spirit, asks you why ;
God, who all your lives hath strove,
Wooed you to embrace His love :
Will you not the grace receive ?
Will you still refuse to live ?
Why, ye long-sought sinners, why
Will ye grieve your God, and die ?

Rev. Charles Wesley, 1741

1 "TAKE up thy cross," the Saviour said,
"If thou wouldst My disciple be ;
Take up thy cross with willing heart,
And humbly follow after Me."
2 Take up thy cross ; let not its weight
Fill thy weak soul with vain alarm ;
His strength shall bear thy spirit up,
And brace thy heart, and nerve thine arm.
3 Take up thy cross ; nor heed the shame,
And let thy foolish pride be still ;

Thy Lord refused not e'en to die
Upon a cross, on Calvary's hill.
4 Take up thy cross, then, in His strength,
And calmly sin's wild deluge brave ;
'Twill guide thee to a better home,
It points to glory o'er the grave.
5 Take up thy cross, and follow on,
Nor think till death to lay it down ;
For only he who bears the cross
May hope to wear the glorious crown.

O sin that hath no equal,
So fast to bar the gate!

- 3 O Jesus, Thou art pleading
In accents meek and low,
"I died for you, My children,

His wind, that bloweth healthily
Thy sicknesses to heal.

3 The Lord is wonderful and wise,
As all the ages tell;
O learn of Him, learn now of Him,
Then with thee it is well;
And with His light thou shalt be blest.

- 2 Day is declining, and the sun is low;
The shadows lengthen, light makes haste to go:
Room, room, still room! O enter, enter now.
- 3 The bridal hall is filling for the feast;
Pass in, pass in, and be the Bridegroom's guest:
Room, room, still room! O enter, enter now.
- 4 It fills, it fills, that hall of jubilee!
Make haste, make haste; 'tis not too full for thee:
Room, room, still room! O enter, enter now.
- 5 Yet there is room: still open stands the gate,
The gate of love; it is not yet too late:
Room, room, still room! O enter, enter now.
- 6 O enter in; that banquet is for thee;
That cup of everlasting joy is free:
Room, room, still room! O enter, enter now.
- 7 All heaven is there, all joy! Go in, go in;
The angels beckon thee the prize to win:
Room, room, still room! O enter, enter now.
- 8 Louder and sweeter sounds the loving call;
Come, lingerer, come; enter that festal hall:
Room, room, still room! O enter, enter now.
- 9 Ere night that gate may close, and seal thy doom;
Then the last low, long cry, "No room, no room!"
No room, no room! O woeful cry, "No room!"

1 DEPTH of mercy ! can there be Mercy still reserved for me ?
Can my God His wrath forbear ?
Me, the chief of sinners, spare ?

2 I have long withstood His grace,
Long provoked Him to His face,
Would not hearken to His calls,
Grieved Him by a thousand falls.

Cries, " How shall I give Thee up ? "
Let the lifted thunder drop.

God is Love : I know, I feel ;
Jesus weeps, but loves me still.

2 Ah! mine iniquity

Purge Thou my sin away,
Wash Thou my soul this day;

4 Faithful and just art Thou,
Forgiving all;
Loving and kind art Thou
When poor ones call:
Lord, let the cleansing blood,
Blood of the Lamb of God,
Pass o'er my soul.

5 Then all is peace and light

1 WITH broken heart and contrite sigh,
A trembling sinner, Lord, I cry;
Thy pardoning grace is rich and free:
O God, be merciful to me.

2 I smite upon my troubled breast,
With deep and conscious guilt oppressed,
Christ and His cross my only plea:
O God, be merciful to me.

3 Far off I stand with tearful eyes,
Nor dare uplift them to the skies;

But Thou dost all my anguish see:
O God, be merciful to me.

4 Nor alms, nor deeds that I have done,
Can for a single sin atone;
To Calvary alone I flee:
O God, be merciful to me.

5 And when, redeemed from sin and hell,
With all the ransomed throng I dwell,
My raptured song shall ever be,
"God has been merciful to me."

3 Jesus my Shepherd is;
'Twas He that loved my soul,
'Twas He that washed me in His blood,
'Twas He that made me whole;

'Twas He that sought the lost,
That found the wandering sheep,
'Twas He that brought me to the fold,
'Tis He that still doth keep.

4 I was a wandering sheep,
I would not be controlled;
But now I love my Shepherd's voice,

But now I love my Father's voice,

Evil is ever with me day by day;
Yet on mine ears the gracious tidings fall,
"Repent, confess, thou shalt be loosed from all."

4 It is the voice of Jesus that I hear;
His are the hands stretched out to draw me near,
And His the blood that can for all atone,
And set me faultless there before the throne.

5 O great Absolver, grant my soul may wear
The lowliest garb of penitence and prayer,

3 We have not loved Thee as we ought, Nor cared that we are loved by Thee; Thy presence we have coldly sought, And feebly longed Thy face to see. Lord, give a pure and loving heart To feel and own the love Thou art.	5 When shall we know Thee as we ought. And fear, and love, and serve aright! When shall we, out of trial brought, Be perfect in the land of light! Lord, may we day by day prepare To see Thy face, and serve Thee there.

473 ST. IGNATIUS S. M.

Sir Joseph Barnby, 1869

I Have mer - cy, Lord, on me, As Thou wert ev - er kind;
Let me, oppressed with loads of guilt, Thy wont-ed mer - cy find. A - MEN.

2 Against Thee, Lord, alone,
And only in Thy sight, [demned
Have I transgressed; and though con-
Must own Thy judgments right.

3 Blot out my crying sins,
Nor me in anger view;
Create in me a heart that's clean,
An upright mind renew.

4 Withdraw not Thou Thy help,
Nor cast me from Thy sight;
Nor let Thy Holy Spirit take
His everlasting flight.

5 The joy Thy favors give
Let me again obtain,
And Thy free Spirit's firm support
My fainting soul sustain.

474 ST. BRIDE S. M.

Samuel Howard, 1762

I Out of the deep I call To Thee, O Lord, to Thee;
Be - fore Thy throne of grace I fall; Be mer - ci - ful to me. A - MEN.

2 Out of the deep I cry,
The woeful deep of sin,
Of evil done in days gone by,
Of evil now within.

3 Out of the deep of fear
And dread of coming shame,

From morning watch till night is near
I plead the precious Name.
1 Lord, there is mercy now,
As ever was, with Thee;
Before Thy throne of grace I bow;
Be merciful to me.

1 My sins, my sins, my Sav - iour! They take such hold on me,
I am not a - ble to look up, Save on - ly, Christ, to Thee;
In Thee is all for - give - ness, In - Thee a - bun - dant grace,
My shad - ow and my sun - shine The brightness of Thy face. A - MEN.

- 2 My sins, my sins, my Saviour!
How sad on Thee they fall;
Seen through Thy gentle patience,
I tenfold feel them all;
I know they are forgiven,
But still, their pain to me
Is all the grief and anguish
They laid, my Lord, on Thee.
- 3 My sins, my sins, my Saviour!
Their guilt I never knew
Till with Thee in the desert
I near Thy passion drew;

Till with Thee in the garden
I heard Thy pleading prayer,
And saw the sweat-drops bloody
That told Thy sorrow there.

- 4 Therefore my songs, my Saviour,
E'en in this time of woe,
Shall tell of all Thy goodness
To suffering man below;
Thy goodness and Thy favor,
Whose presence from above
Rejoice those hearts, my Saviour,
That live in Thee and love.

J. Baptiste Calkin, 1867

1 Lord, to Thee a - lone we turn, To Thy cross for safe - ty fly;

2 In the midst of sin and strife,
In the depths of mortal woe,
Teach us, Lord, to live a life
Meet for sojourners below.
Though the road be oft-times dark,
Though the feet in weakness stray,
Lead us, Saviour, as the ark
Led Thy chosen on their way.

3 Weak and weary and alone
When the vale of death we tread,
Then be all Thy mercy shown,
Then be all Thy love displayed;
Guard us in that darksome hour,
Lead us to the land of rest,
Where, secure from Satan's power,
We may lie upon Thy breast.

2 Not the labors of my hands
Can fulfil Thy law's demands;
Could my zeal no respite know,
Could my tears for ever flow,
All for sin could not atone;
Thou must save, and Thou alone.

3 Nothing in my hand I bring,
Simply to Thy cross I cling;
Naked, come to Thee for dress,

Helpless, look to Thee for grace;
Foul, I to the fountain fly;
Wash me, Saviour, or I die.

4 While I draw this fleeting breath,
When my eyelids close in death,
When I soar to worlds unknown,
See Thee on Thy judgment throne,
Rock of Ages, cleft for me,
Let me hide myself in Thee.

 My thirst was quenched, my soul revived,
 And now I live in Him.

3 I heard the voice of Jesus say,
 "I am this dark world's Light;
 Look unto Me, thy morn shall rise,
 And all thy day be bright."
 I looked to Jesus, and I found
 In Him my Star, my Sun;
 And in that light of life I'll walk,

Pursued by foes, I come ;

A sinner, save me, or I die,
An outcast, take me home.

3 Once safe in Thine almighty arms,

- 2 I lay my wants on Jesus;
All fulness dwells in Him;
He heals all my diseases,

He from them all releases,
He all my sorrows shares.

- 3 I rest my soul on Jesus,
This weary soul of mine;
His right hand me embraces,
I on His breast recline.

I love the Name of Jesus,
Emmanuel, Christ, the Lord:
Like fragrance on the breezes
His Name abroad is poured.

- 4 I long to be like Jesus,
Meek, loving, lowly, mild;
I long to be like Jesus,
The Father's holy Child:
I long to be with Jesus
Amid the heavenly throng,
To sing with saints His praises,
To learn the angels' song.

NOTE. — The ties and slurs are to be used as the syllables require

2 Heaven's arches rang
When the angels sang,
Proclaiming Thy royal degree ;
But of lowly birth
Didst Thou come to earth,
And in great humility :
O come to my heart, Lord Jesus,
There is room in my heart for Thee.

3 The foxes found rest,
And the birds their nest,
In the shade of the forest tree ;
But Thy couch was the sod,
O Thou Son of God,
In the deserts of Galilee :
O come to my heart, Lord Jesus,
There is room in my heart for Thee.

4 Thou camest, O Lord,
With the living word
That should set Thy people free ;
But with mocking scorn,
And with crown of thorn,
They bore Thee to Calvary :
O come to my heart, Lord Jesus,
Thy cross is my only plea.

5 When heaven's arches shall ring,
And her choirs shall sing,
At Thy coming to victory,
Let Thy voice call me home,
Saying, "Yet there is room,
There is room at My side for thee."
And my heart shall rejoice, Lord Jesus,
When Thou comest and callest for me.

I Be - neath the cross of Je - sus I fain would take my stand,

The shad - ow of a might - y Rock With - in a wea - ry land;

A home with - in the wil - der - ness, A rest up - on the way,

2 Upon that cross of Jesus
 Mine eye at times can see
 The very dying form of One
 Who suffered there for me :
 And from my smitten heart with tears
 Two wonders I confess, —
 The wonders of His glorious love
 And my own worthlessness.

3 I take, O cross, thy shadow
 For my abiding-place :
 I ask no other sunshine than
 The sunshine of His face ;
 Content to let the world go by,
 To know no gain nor loss,
 My sinful self my only shame,
 My glory all the cross.

489 HOLLINGSIDE 7. 7. 7. 7. D.

Rev. John B. Dykes, 1861

2 Other refuge have I none ;
Hangs my helpless soul on Thee ;
Leave, ah ! leave me not alone,
Still support and comfort me.
All my trust on Thee is stayed,
All my help from Thee I bring ;
Cover my defenceless head
With the shadow of Thy wing.

3 Wilt Thou not regard my call ?
Wilt Thou not accept my prayer ?
Lo, I sink, I faint, I fall !
Lo, on Thee I cast my care ;
Reach me out Thy gracious hand !
While I of Thy strength receive,
Hoping against hope I stand,
Dying, and behold I live !

4 Thou, O Christ, art all I want ;
More than all in Thee I find :
Raise the fallen, cheer the faint,
Heal the sick, and lead the blind.
Just and holy is Thy Name ;
I am all unrighteousness ;
False and full of sin I am,
Thou art full of truth and grace.

5 Plenteous grace with Thee is found,
Grace to cover all my sin ;
Let the healing streams abound ;
Make and keep me pure within.
Thou of life the Fountain art,
Freely let me take of Thee ;
Spring Thou up within my heart,
Rise to all eternity.

With contrite anguish sore;
And when our hearts are cold and dead,
O help us, Lord, the more.

4 If, strangers to Thy fold, we call,
Imploring at Thy feet
The crumbs that from Thy table fall,
'Tis all we dare entreat.

3 O help us, through the prayer of faith
More firmly to believe;
For still, the more the servant hath,
The more shall he receive.

5 But be it, Lord of mercy, all,
So Thou wilt grant but this:
The crumbs that from Thy table fall
Are light, and life, and bliss.

6 O help us, Jesus, from on high;
We know no help but Thee:
O help us so to live and die
As Thine in heaven to be.

496 CHRISTMAS C. M.

Arr. from George F. Handel, 1728

I A - wake, my soul, stretch ev - ery nerve, And press with vig - or on;

A heavenly race de-mands Thy zeal, And an im - mor - tal crown,

And an im - mor - tal crown. A-MEN.

2 A cloud of witnesses around
Hold thee in full survey:
Forget the steps already trod,
And onward urge thy way.

3 'Tis God's all-animating voice
That calls thee from on high;
'Tis His own hand presents the prize
To thine aspiring eye:
4 That prize with peerless glories bright,
Which shall new lustre boast,
When victors' wreaths and monarchs'
Shall blend in common dust. [gems
5 Blest Saviour, introduced by Thee,
Have I my race begun;
And, crowned with victory, at Thy feet
I'll lay my honors down.

Rev. Philip Doddridge, publ. 1755

497 (MARLOW) C. M.

1 AM I a soldier of the cross,
A follower of the Lamb,
And shall I fear to own His cause,
Or blush to speak His Name?
2 Must I be carried to the skies
On flowery beds of ease,
While others fought to win the prize,
And sailed through bloody seas?
3 Are there no foes for me to face?
Must I not stem the flood?
Is this vile world a friend to grace,
To help me on to God?

4 Sure I must fight if I would reign:
Increase my courage, Lord;
I'll bear the toil, endure the pain,
Supported by Thy word.
5 Thy saints, in all this glorious war,
Shall conquer, though they die;
They view the triumph from afar,
And seize it with their eye.
6 When that illustrious day shall rise,
And all Thy armies shine
In robes of victory through the skies,
The glory shall be Thine.

1 CHRISTIAN, seek not yet repose,
Cast thy dreams of ease away;
Thou art in the midst of foes:
Watch and pray.

2 Principalities and powers,
Mustering their unseen array,
Wait for thy unguarded hours:
Watch and pray.

3 Gird thy heavenly armor on,
Wear it ever, night and day;
Ambushed lies the evil one:
Watch and pray.

4 Hear the victors who o'ercame;
Still they mark each warrior's way;
All with one sweet voice exclaim,
"Watch and pray."

5 Hear, above all, hear Thy Lord,
Him thou lovest to obey;
Hide within thy heart His word,
"Watch and pray."

6 Watch, as if on that alone
Hung the issue of the day;
Pray, that help may be sent down:
Watch and pray.

1. Lead, kind-ly Light, a - mid the en-cir-cling gloom, Lead Thou me on;

The night is dark, and I am far from home; Lead Thou me on:

Keep Thou my feet; I do not ask to see

The dis - tant scene, — one step e - nough for me. A - MEN.

2 I was not ever thus, nor prayed that Thou Shouldst lead me on;
I loved to choose and see my path; but now
Lead Thou me on.
I loved the garish day, and, spite of fears,
Pride ruled my will: remember not past years.

3 So long Thy power hath blest me, sure it still Will lead me on
O'er moor and fen, o'er crag and torrent, till
The night is gone;
And with the morn those angel faces smile,
Which I have loved long since, and lost awhile.

- 2 In holy contemplation
We sweetly then pursue
The theme of God's salvation,
And find it ever new;
Set free from present sorrow,
We cheerfully can say,
Let the unknown to-morrow
Bring with it what it may.
- 3 It can bring with it nothing
But He will bear us through;
Who gives the lilies clothing
Will clothe His people too:

Beneath the spreading heavens
No creature but is fed;
And He who feeds the ravens
Will give His children bread.

- 4 Though vine nor fig-tree neither
Their wonted fruit shall bear,
Though all the field should wither,
Nor flocks nor herds be there;
Yet God the same abiding,
His praise shall tune my voice,
For, while in Him confiding,
I cannot but rejoice.

1 GOD moves in a mysterious way
His wonders to perform;
He plants His footsteps in the sea,
And rides upon the storm.

2 Deep in unfathomable mines
Of never-failing skill
He treasures up His bright designs,
And works His sovereign will.

3 Ye fearful saints, fresh courage take;
The clouds ye so much dread
Are big with mercy, and shall break
In blessings on your head.

4 Judge not the Lord by feeble sense,
But trust Him for His grace;
Behind a frowning providence
He hides a smiling face.

5 His purposes will ripen fast,
Unfolding every hour;
The bud may have a bitter taste,
But sweet will be the flower.

6 Blind unbelief is sure to err,
And scan His work in vain;
God is His own Interpreter,
And He will make it plain.

1 YOUR harps, ye trembling saints,
Down from the willows take ;
Loud to the praise of love Divine
Bid every string awake.

2 Though in a foreign land,
We are not far from home ;
And nearer to our house above
We every moment come.

3 His grace will to the end

Nor present things, nor things to come,
Shall quench the spark Divine.

4 When we in darkness walk,
Nor feel the heavenly flame,
Then is the time to trust our God,
And rest upon His Name.

5 Soon shall our doubts and fears
Subside at His control ;
His loving-kindness shall break through
The midnight of the soul.

Who wait for Thy salvation, Lord,
Shall Thy salvation see.

He shall charge His angel legions
Watch and ward o'er thee to keep;
Though thou walk through hostile regions,
Though in desert wilds thou sleep.

3 Since, with pure and firm affection
Thou on God hast set thy love,
With the wings of His protection
He will shield thee from above:
Thou shalt call on Him in trouble,
He will hearken, He will save;
Here for grief reward thee double,
Crown with life beyond the grave.

543 MELITA 8. 8. 8. 8. 8. 8.

Rev. John B. Dykes, 1861

I When gathering clouds a - round I view, And days are dark, and friends are few,

On Him I lean, who not in vain Ex - pe-rienced ev - ery hu - man pain;

He sees my wants, al - lays my fears, And counts and treasures up my tears. A-MEN.

2 If aught should tempt my soul to stray
From heavenly wisdom's narrow way,
To fly the good I would pursue,
Or do the sin I would not do, —
Still He, who felt temptation's power,
Shall guard me in that dangerous hour.

3 If wounded love my bosom swell,
Deceived by those I prized too well,
He shall His pitying aid bestow,
Who felt on earth severer woe, —
At once betrayed, denied, or fled,
By those who shared His daily bread.

4 If vexing thoughts within me rise,
And, sore dismayed, my spirit dies,
Still He, who once vouchsafed to bear

The sickening anguish of despair,
Shall sweetly soothe, shall gently dry,
The throbbing heart, the streaming eye.

5 When, sorrowing, o'er some stone I bend,
Which covers what was once a friend,
And from his voice, his hand, his smile,
Divides me for a little while, —
Thou, Saviour, mark'st the tears I shed,
For Thou didst weep o'er Lazarus dead.

6 And O, when I have safely past
Through every conflict but the last;
Still, still unchanging, watch beside
My painful bed, for Thou hast died:
Then point to realms of cloudless day,
And wipe the latest tear away.

544 PATER OMNIUM S. S. S. S. S. S.

H. J. E. Holmes, 1875

1 The Lord my pas-ture shall pre-pare, And feed me with a shep-herd's care;

His pres-ence shall my wants sup-ply, And guard me with a watch-ful eye;

My noon-day walks He shall at-tend, And all my mid-night hours de-fend. A - MEN.

- 2 When in the sultry glebe I faint,
Or on the thirsty mountain pant,
To fertile vales and dewy meads
My weary, wandering steps He leads,
Where peaceful rivers, soft and slow,
Amid the verdant landscape flow.
- 3 Though in the paths of death I tread,
With gloomy horrors overspread,
My steadfast heart shall fear no ill,
For Thou, O Lord, art with me still;
Thy friendly crook shall give me aid,
And guide me through the dreadful shade.
- 4 Though in a bare and rugged way,
Through devious lonely wilds I stray,
Thy bounty shall my pains beguile;
The barren wilderness shall smile
With sudden greens and herbage crowned,
And streams shall murmur all around.

No wisdom of my own ;
But Thou, belovèd Saviour,

And weakness will be power,
If leaning hard on Thee.

3 I could not do without Thee,
O Jesus, Saviour dear ;
E'en when my eyes are holden,
I know that Thou art near.
How dreary and how lonely
This changeful life would be.
Without the sweet communion,
The secret rest with Thee !

4 I could not do without Thee ;
No other friend can read
The spirit's strange deep longings,
Interpreting its need ;
No human heart could enter
Each dim recess of mine,
And soothe, and hush, and calm it,
O blessèd Lord, but Thine.

5 I could not do without Thee,
For years are fleeting fast,
And soon in solemn loneliness
The river must be passed ;
But Thou wilt never leave me,
And though the waves roll high,
I know Thou wilt be near me,
And whisper, " It is I."

1 To Thee, O dear, dear Saviour, My spir-it turns for rest, My peace is in Thy fav-or,

2 In Thee my trust abideth,
On Thee my hope relies,
O Thou whose love provideth
For all beneath the skies;
O Thou whose mercy found me,
From bondage set me free,
And then for ever bound me
With threefold cords to Thee.

3 My grief is in the dulness
With which this sluggish heart
Doth open to the fulness
Of all Thou wouldst impart;
My joy is in Thy beauty
Of holiness Divine,
My comfort in the duty
That binds my life in Thine.

4 Alas, that I should ever
Have failed in love to Thee,
The only One who never Forgot or slighted me!
O for a heart to love Thee
More truly as I ought,
And nothing place above Thee
In deed, or word, or thought.

5 O for that choicest blessing
Of living in Thy love,
And thus on earth possessing
The peace of heaven above;
O for the bliss that by it
The soul securely knows,
The holy calm and quiet
Of faith's serene repose.

2 When all created streams are dried,
Thy fulness is the same ;
May I with this be satisfied,
And glory in Thy Name.

3 No good in creatures can be found,
But may be found in Thee ;
I must have all things, and abound,
While God is God to me.

4 O that I had a stronger faith,
To look within the veil !
To credit what my Saviour saith,
Whose word can never fail !

5 He that has made my heaven secure,
Will here all good provide ;
While Christ is rich, can I be poor?
What can I want beside?

6 O Lord, I cast my care on Thee ;

Henceforth my great concern shall be
To love and please Thee more.

1 IF Christ is mine, then all is mine,
And more than angels know ;
Both present things and things to come,
And grace and glory too.

2 If He is mine, then, though He frown,
He never will forsake ;
His chastisements all work for good,
And but His love bespeak.

3 If He is mine, I need not fear
The rage of earth and hell ;
He will support my feeble frame,
And all their power repel.

4 If He is mine, let friends forsake,
And earthly comforts flee ;
He, the Dispenser of all good,
Is more than these to me.

5 If He is mine, I'll fearless pass
Through death's tremendous vale ;
He'll be my Comfort and my Stay
When heart and flesh shall fail.

6 Let Jesus tell me He is mine,
I nothing want beside :
My soul shall at the Fountain live
When all the streams are dried.

 Naught that I have mine own I'll call,
 I'll hold it for the Giver;
 My heart, my strength, my life, my all,
 Are His, and His for ever.
- 3 I've found a Friend; O such a Friend!
 All power to Him is given,
 To guard me on my onward course,
 And bring me safe to heaven:
- Eternal glory gleams afar,
 To nerve my faint endeavor:
 So now to watch, to work, to war;
 And then to rest for ever.
- 4 I've found a Friend; O such a Friend,
 So kind and true and tender!
 So wise a Counsellor and Guide,
 So mighty a Defender!
 From Him who loves me now so well
 What power my soul shall sever?
 Shall life or death, shall earth or hell?
 No: I am His for ever.

He just - ly claims a song from me, His lov - ing-kind-ness is so free. A - MEN.

2 He saw me ruined in the fall,

He safely leads my soul along,
His loving-kindness is so strong.

4 Often I feel my sinful heart
Prone from my Jesus to depart ;
And though I oft have Him forgot,
His loving-kindness changes not.

5 So when I pass death's gloomy vale,
And life and mortal powers shall fail,
O may my last expiring breath
His loving-kindness sing in death.

6 Then shall I mount, and soar away
To the bright world of endless day ;
There shall I sing, with sweet surprise,
His loving-kindness in the skies.

End of faith, as its Beginning,
Set our hearts at liberty.

3 Come, Almighty to deliver,
Let us all Thy life receive;
Suddenly return, and never,
Never more Thy temples leave.

Thee we would be always blessing,
Serve Thee as Thy hosts above,
Pray, and praise Thee without ceasing,
Glory in Thy perfect love.

4 Finish, then, Thy new creation;
Pure and spotless let us be:
Let us see Thy great salvation
Perfectly restored in Thee;
Changed from glory into glory,

564 JESU, DOMINE 8. 8. 8. 8. 8.

Sir Joseph Barnby, 1872

p

1 Je - sus, my Lord, my God, my All, Hear me, blest Sav - iour, when I call;

cres. p

Hear me, and from Thy dwell - ing-place Pour down the rich - es of Thy grace:

rall.

Je - sus, my Lord, I Thee a - dore; O make me love Thee more and more. A - MEN.

2 Jesus, too late I Thee have sought;
How can I love Thee as I ought?
And how extol Thy matchless fame,
The glorious beauty of Thy Name?
Jesus, my Lord, I Thee adore;
O make me love Thee more and more.

3 Jesus, what didst Thou find in me
That Thou hast dealt so lovingly?
How great the joy that Thou hast brought,
So far exceeding hope or thought!
Jesus, my Lord, I Thee adore;
O make me love Thee more and more.

4 Jesus, of Thee shall be my song;
To Thee my heart and soul belong:
All that I have or am is Thine;
And Thou, blest Saviour, Thou art mine:
Jesus, my Lord, I Thee adore;
O make me love Thee more and more.

James Walch, 1875

I O Lamb of God, still keep me Near to Thy wounded side; 'Tis on - ly there in safe - ty

And peace I can a - bide. What foes and snares surround me, What doubts and fears within! The grace that sought and found me A - lone can keep me clean. A - MEN.

2 'Tis only in Thee hiding,
I know my life secure;
Only in Thee abiding,
The conflict can endure:
Thine arm the victory gaineth
O'er every hateful foe;
Thy love my heart sustaineth
In all its care and woe.

3 Soon shall my eyes behold Thee,
With rapture, face to face;
One half hath not been told me
Of all Thy power and grace;
Thy beauty, Lord, and glory,
The wonders of Thy love,
Shall be the endless story
Of all Thy saints above.

Rev. James G. Deck, 1842

567 (HENDON) 7. 7. 7. 7.

1 CHRIST, of all my hopes the Ground,
Christ, the Spring of all my joy,
Still in Thee may I be found,
Still for Thee my powers employ.

2 Fountain of o'erflowing grace,
Freely from Thy fulness give;
Till I close my earthly race,
May I prove it "Christ to live."

3 Firmly trusting in Thy blood,
Nothing shall my heart confound;

Safely I shall pass the flood,
Safely reach Emmanuel's ground.

4 When I touch the blessed shore,
Back the closing waves shall roll;
Death's dark stream shall nevermore
Part from Thee my ravished soul.

5 Thus, O thus, an entrance give
To the land of cloudless sky;
Having known it "Christ to live,"
Let me know it "gain to die."

- 2 Jesus, Bread and Wine art Thou,
Wine and Bread for ever:
Never canst Thou cease to feed,
Or refresh us never.
Feed we still on Bread Divine,
Drink we still this heavenly Wine.
- 3 Jesus, Love and Life art Thou,
Life and Love for ever:
Ne'er to quicken shalt Thou cease,
Or to love us never.
All of life and love we need
Is in Thee, in Thee indeed.

- 4 Jesus, Peace and Joy art Thou,
Joy and Peace for ever:
Joy that fades not, changes not,
Peace that leaves us never.
Joy and peace we have in Thee,
Now and through eternity.
- 5 Jesus, Song and Strength art Thou,
Strength and Song for ever:
Strength that never can decay,
Song that ceaseth never.
Still to us this strength and song
Through eternal days prolong.

Prayer

573 BYEFIELD C. M.

Thomas Hastings, 1840

2 Prayer is the burden of a sigh,
The falling of a tear,
The upward glancing of an eye
When none but God is near.

4 Prayer is the contrite sinner's voice
Returning from his ways,
While angels in their songs rejoice,
And cry, "Behold, he prays."

3 Prayer is the simplest form of speech
That infant lips can try;
Prayer the sublimest strains that reach
The Majesty on high.

5 Prayer is the Christian's vital breath,
The Christian's native air,
His watchword at the gates of death:
He enters heaven with prayer.

6 O Thou, by whom we come to God,
The Life, the Truth, the Way,
The path of prayer Thyself hast trod;
Lord, teach us how to pray.

James Montgomery, 1819

574 (NORTHREPPS) C. M.

1 THERE is an eye that never sleeps
Beneath the wing of night;
There is an ear that never shuts
When sink the beams of light;

3 That eye is fixed on seraph throngs;
That arm upholds the sky;
That ear is filled with angel songs;
That love is throned on high.

2 There is an arm that never tires
When human strength gives way;
There is a love that never fails
When earthly loves decay.

4 But there's a power which man can wield
When mortal aid is vain,
That eye, that arm, that love to reach,
That listening ear to gain.

5 That power is prayer, which soars on high,
Through Jesus, to the throne,
And moves the hand which moves the world,
To bring salvation down.

William H. Callcott, 1867: the last two lines from Mendelssohn, 1846

1 When the wea-ry, seek-ing rest, To Thy good-ness flee; When the heavy - la-den cast

All their load on Thee; When the troubled, seeking peace, On Thy Name shall call;

When the sin - ner, seek - ing life, At Thy feet shall fall: . . Hear then in

2 When the worldling, sick at heart,
Lifts his soul above;
When the prodigal looks back
To his Father's love;
When the proud man, in his pride,
Stoops to seek Thy face;
When the burdened brings his guilt
To Thy throne of grace:
Hear then in love, O Lord, the cry
In heaven, Thy dwelling-place on high.

3 When the stranger asks a home
All his toils to end;
When the hungry craveth food,
And the poor a friend;
When the sailor on the wave
Bows the fervent knee;
When the soldier on the field
Lifts his heart to Thee:
Hear then in love, O Lord, the cry
In heaven, Thy dwelling-place on high

Prayer

4 When the man of toil and care
In the city crowd ;
When the shepherd on the moor
Names the Name of God ;
When the learnèd and the high,
Tired of earthly fame,
Upon higher joys intent,
Name the blessèd Name :
Hear then in love, O Lord, the cry
In heaven, Thy dwelling-place on high.

5 When the child, with grave fresh lip,
Youth or maiden fair ;
When the agèd, weak and gray,
Seek Thy face in prayer ;
When the widow weeps to Thee,
Sad and lone and low ;
When the orphan brings to Thee
All his orphan woe :
Hear then in love, O Lord, the cry
In heaven, Thy dwelling-place on high.

2 If earthly parents hear
Their children when they cry,
If they, with love sincere,

3 Our heavenly Father, Thou !
We, children of Thy grace !
O let Thy Spirit now

Descend, and fill the place ;
That all may feel the heavenly flame,
And all unite to praise Thy Name.

4 And send Thy Spirit down
On all the nations, Lord,
With great success to crown
The preaching of Thy word ;
Till heathen lands shall own Thy sway,
And cast their idol-gods away.

Sir John Stainer, 1868

2 Strong Creator, Saviour mild,
 Humbled to a mortal child,
 Captive, beaten, bound, reviled,
 Jesus, hear and save.

3 Throned above celestial things,
 Borne aloft on angels' wings,

4 Soon to come to earth again,
 Judge of angels and of men,
 Hear us now, and hear us then,

2 My soul, ask what thou wilt;
 Thou canst not be too bold;
 Since His own blood for thee He spilt,
 What else can He withhold?

3 Thine image, Lord, bestow,
 Thy presence and Thy love;

I ask to serve Thee here below,
 And reign with Thee above.

4 Teach me to live by faith;
 Conform my will to Thine;

And for His cradle and His throne

Arthur Cottman, 1872

I O for a clos - er walk with God, A calm and heaven - ly frame,

A light to shine up - on the road That leads me to the Lamb! A - MEN.

2 Where is the blessedness I knew
When first I saw the Lord?
Where is the soul-refreshing view
Of Jesus and His word?

4 Return, O Holy Dove; return,
Sweet Messenger of rest:
I hate the sins that made Thee mourn
And drove Thee from my breast.

3 What peaceful hours I once enjoyed!
How sweet their memory still!
But they have left an aching void
The world can never fill.

5 The dearest idol I have known,
Whate'er that idol be,
Help me to tear it from Thy throne,
And worship only Thee.

6 So shall my walk be close with God,
Calm and serene my frame;
So purer light shall mark the road
That leads me to the Lamb.

2 Teach me some melodious sonnet,
Sung by flaming tongues above;

3 Here I raise my Ebenezer;
Hither by Thy help I'm come;
And I hope, by Thy good pleasure,
Safely to arrive at home.

4 Jesus sought me when a stranger,
Wandering from the fold of God:
He, to rescue me from danger,
Interposed with precious blood.

5 O to grace how great a debtor
Daily I'm constrained to be!
Let that grace now, like a fetter,
Bind my wandering heart to Thee.

6 Prone to wander, Lord, I feel it;
Prone to leave the God I love;
Here's my heart; O take and seal it,
Seal it from Thy courts above.

Forward tends to His abode,
To rest in His embrace.

3 Fly me riches, fly me cares,
Whilst I that coast explore;
Flattering world, with all thy snares,
Solicit me no more.

Pilgrims fix not here their home;
Strangers tarry but a night;
When the last dear morn is come,
They'll rise to joyful light.

4 Cease, ye pilgrims, cease to mourn,
Press onward to the prize;
Soon our Saviour will return
Triumphant in the skies:
Yet a season, and you know
Happy entrance will be given,
All our sorrows left below,
And earth exchanged for heaven.

Arr. by Lowell Mason, 1841

1 O for a faith that will not shrink Though pressed by ma-ny a foe,

That will not trem-ble on the brink Of pov - er - ty or woe; A - MEN.

2 That will not murmur nor complain
Beneath the chastening rod,
But in the hour of grief or pain
Can lean upon its God;

4 A faith that keeps the narrow way
Till life's last spark is fled,
And with a pure and heavenly ray
Lights up a dying bed.

3 A faith that shines more bright and clear
When tempests rage without,
That, when in danger, knows no fear,
In darkness feels no doubt;

5 Lord, give me such a faith as this,
And then, whate'er may come,
I taste e'en now the hallowed bliss
Of an eternal home.

By the souls that love Him
One day to be shared;
Eye hath not beheld them,
Ear hath never heard;

1 MY God, permit me not to be
A stranger to myself and Thee;
Amidst a thousand thoughts I rove,
Forgetful of my highest love.

2 Why should my passions mix with earth,
And thus debase my heavenly birth?
Why should I cleave to things below,
And let my God, my Saviour, go?

3 O Jesus, shine around us

1 'TIS by the faith of joys to come
We walk through deserts dark as night :
Till we arrive at heaven, our home,
Faith is our guide, and faith our light.
2 The want of sight she well supplies ;
She makes the pearly gates appear ;
Far into distant worlds she pries,
And brings eternal glories near.

3 Cheerful we tread the desert through,
While faith inspires a heavenly ray ;
Though lions roar and tempests blow,
And rocks and dangers fill the way.
4 So Abram, by Divine command,
Left his own house to walk with God ;
His faith beheld the promised land,
And fired his zeal along the road.

Thy peace within our breast :

3 That peace which suffers and is strong.
Trusts where it cannot see,
Deems not the trial-way too long,
But leaves the end with Thee :

4 That peace which flows serene and deep,
A river in the soul,
Whose banks a living verdure keep,
God's sunshine o'er the whole.

5 O Father, give our hearts this peace,
Whate'er the outward be,
Till all life's discipline shall cease,
And we go home to Thee.

Anon.

608 (LEIGHTON) S. M.

1 BEHOLD what wondrous grace
The Father has bestowed
On sinners of a mortal race,
To call them sons of God !

2 Nor doth it yet appear
How great we must be made ;
But when we see our Saviour here,
We shall be like our Head.

3 A hope so much Divine
May trials well endure,
May purge our souls from sense and sin,
As Christ the Lord is pure.

4 If in my Father's love
I share a filial part,
Send down Thy Spirit like a dove
To rest upon my heart.

5 We would no longer lie
Like slaves beneath the throne ;
My faith shall " Abba, Father," cry,
And Thou the kindred own.

And fain would thither flee :
My heart, O Zion, droops and yearns
When I remember thee.

- 4 To thee, to thee I press,
A dark and toilsome road :
When shall I pass the wilderness,
And reach the saints' abode ?

O guide me through the desert here,
And bring me home at last.

2 No, no, it is not dying
Heaven's citizen to be ;
A crown immortal wearing,
And rest unbroken sharing,
From care and conflict free.

3 No, no, it is not dying
To hear this gracious word,
"Receive a Father's blessing,
For evermore possessing
The favor of Thy Lord."
4 No, no, it is not dying
The Shepherd's voice to know :
His sheep He ever leadeth,
His peaceful flock He feedeth,
Where living pastures grow.

5 No, no, it is not dying
To wear a lordly crown ;
Among God's people dwelling,
The glorious triumph swelling
Of Him whose sway we own.

1 IT is not death to die,
To leave this weary road,
And midst the brotherhood on high
To be at home with God.

2 It is not death to close
The eye long dimmed by tears,
And wake, in glorious repose
To spend eternal years.

3 It is not death to bear
The wrench that sets us free

From dungeon chain, to breathe the air
Of boundless liberty.

4 It is not death to fling
Aside this sinful dust,
And rise, on strong exulting wing,
To live among the just.

5 Jesus, Thou Prince of Life,
Thy chosen cannot die :
Like Thee, they conquer in the strife,
To reign with Thee on high.

 And Spirit, evermore.
- 3 O joy all joys beyond,
 To see the Lamb who died,
 And count each sacred wound
 In hands, and feet, and side;

- To give to Him the praise
 Of every triumph won,
 And sing through endless days
 The great things He hath done.

 Nor fear to tread below
 The path your Saviour trod
 Of daily toil and woe:
 Wait but a little while
 In uncomplaining love,
 His own most gracious smile
 Shall welcome you above.

Though seven deaths lay between :
The Lamb with His fair army
Doth on Mount Zion stand,
And glory, glory dwelleth
In Emmanuel's land.

3 O Christ, He is the Fountain,
The deep sweet Well of love !
The streams on earth I've tasted
More deep I'll drink above :

4 With mercy and with judgment
My web of time He wove,
And aye the dews of sorrow
Were lusted by His love :
I'll bless the hand that guided,
I'll bless the heart that planned,
When throned where glory dwelleth
In Emmanuel's land.

5 The bride eyes not her garment,
But her dear bridegroom's face ;
I will not gaze at glory,
But on my King of grace ;
Not at the crown He giveth,
But on His pierced hand :
The Lamb is all the glory
Of Emmanuel's land.

Ah! then my spirit faints
To reach the land I love,
The bright inheritance of saints,
Jerusalem above.

3 I hear at morn and even,
At noon and midnight hour,
The choral harmonies of heaven
Earth's Babel tongues o'erpower:

Then, then I feel that He,
Remembered or forgot,
The Lord, is never far from me,
Though I perceive Him not.

4 For ever with the Lord!
Father, if 'tis Thy will,
The promise of that faithful word
E'en here to me fulfil:
Be Thou at my right hand,
Then can I never fail,
Uphold Thou me, and I shall stand;
Fight, and I must prevail.

5 So when my latest breath
Shall rend the veil in twain,
By death I shall escape from death,
And life eternal gain.
Knowing as I am known,
How shall I love that word,
And oft repeat before the throne,
"For ever with the Lord!"

1 The world is ver - y e - vil; The times are wax-ing late: Be so-ber and keep vig-il,

The Judge is at the gate,— The Judge that comes in mer-cy, The Judge that comes with might, To ter-mi-nate the e - vil, To di - a-dem the right. A - MEN.

2 Arise, arise, good Christian,
Let right to wrong succeed;
Let penitential sorrow
To heavenly gladness lead;
To the light that hath no evening,
That knows nor moon nor sun,
The light so new and golden,
The light that is but one:

3 The home of fadeless splendor,
Of flowers that fear no thorn,
Where they shall dwell as children
Who here as exiles mourn;
Midst power that knows no limit,
And wisdom free from bound,
The beatific vision
Shall glad the saints around.

4 O happy, holy portion,
Refection for the blest,
True vision of true beauty,
Sweet cure of all distress!
Strive, man, to win that glory;
Toil, man, to gain that light;
Send hope before to grasp it,
Till hope be lost in sight.

5 O sweet and blessèd country,
The home of God's elect!
O sweet and blessèd country
That eager hearts expect!
Jesus, in mercy bring us
To that dear land of rest;
Who art, with God the Father,
And Spirit, ever blest.

Sir Arthur Sullivan, 1867

1 For thee, O dear, dear country, Mine eyes their vigils keep; For ver-y love behold-ing Thy hap-py name, they weep: The men-tion of thy glo-ry

Is unc-tion to the breast, And med-i-cine in sick-ness,

And love, and life, and rest. A-MEN.

2 O one, O only mansion!
O Paradise of joy!
Where tears are ever banished,
And smiles have no alloy;
Thy loveliness oppresses
All human thought and heart,
And none, O Peace, O Zion,
Can sing thee as thou art.

3 With jaspers glow thy bulwarks,
Thy streets with emeralds blaze;
The sardius and the topaz
Unite in thee their rays;

Thine ageless walls are bonded
With amethysts unpriced;
Thy saints build up its fabric,
And the corner-stone is Christ.

4 The cross is all thy splendor,
The Crucified thy praise;
His laud and benediction
Thy ransomed people raise:
Upon the Rock of Ages
They build thy holy tower;
Thine is the victor's laurel,
And thine the golden dower.

5 O sweet and blessèd country,
The home of God's elect!
O sweet and blessèd country
That eager hearts expect!
Jesus, in mercy bring us
To that dear land of rest;
Who art, with God the Father,
And Spirit, ever blest.

2 They stand, those halls of Zion,
All jubilant with song,
And bright with many an angel,
And all the martyr throng.
The Prince is ever in them,
The daylight is serene;
The pastures of the blessèd
Are decked in glorious sheen.

3 There is the throne of David;
And there, from care released,
The song of them that triumph,
The shout of them that feast;

And they, who with their Leader
Have conquered in the fight,
For ever and for ever
Are clad in robes of white.

4 O mine, my golden Zion!
O lovelier far than gold!
With laurel-girt battalions,
And safe, victorious fold:
O sweet and blessèd country,
Shall I ever see thy face?
O sweet and blessèd country,
Shall I ever win thy grace?

5 Exult, O dust and ashes,
The Lord shall be thy part:

2 The highest hopes we cherish here,
How fast they tire and faint;
How many a spot defiles the robe
That wraps an earthly saint:
O for a heart that never sins,
O for a soul washed white,
O for a voice to praise our King,
Nor weary day or night!

3 Here faith is ours, and heavenly hope,
And grace to lead us higher;
But there are perfectness and peace,
Beyond our best desire:
O by Thy love and anguish, Lord,
O by Thy life laid down,
O that we fall not from Thy grace,
Nor cast away our crown!

1 There is a land of pure de-light, Where saints im-mor-tal reign;

In-fi-nite day ex-cludes the night, And pleas-ures ban-ish pain. A-MEN.

2 There everlasting spring abides,
And never-withering flowers;
Death, like a narrow sea, divides
This heavenly land from ours.

4 But timorous mortals start and shrink
To cross this narrow sea;
And linger, shivering, on the brink,
And fear to launch away.

3 Sweet fields beyond the swelling flood
Stand dressed in living green;
So to the Jews old Canaan stood,
While Jordan rolled between.

5 O could we make our doubts remove,
Those gloomy doubts that rise,
And see the Canaan that we love
With unbeckoned eyes;

6 Could we but climb where Moses stood,
And view the landscape o'er,
Not Jordan's stream, nor death's cold flood,
Should fright us from the shore.

All is pure, and all is holy
That within thy walls is stored.

3 There no cloud or passing vapor
Dims the brightness of the air ;
Endless noonday, glorious noonday,
From the Sun of suns is there ;
There no night brings rest from labor,
There unknown are toil and care.

4 O how glorious and resplendent,
Fragile body, shalt thou be,
When endued with so much beauty,
Full of health, and strong, and free,
Full of vigor, full of pleasure
That shall last eternally !

5 Now with gladness, now with courage,
Bear the burden on thee laid,
That hereafter these thy labors
May with endless gifts be paid,
And in everlasting glory
Thou with joy may'st be arrayed.

6 Laud and honor to the Father.
Laud and honor to the Son,
Laud and honor to the Spirit,
Ever Three and ever One ;

2 Far above that arch of gladness,
Far beyond these clouds of sadness,
Are the many mansions fair.
Far from pain and sin and folly,
In that palace of the holy,
I would find my mansion there.

3 Where the glory brightly dwelleth,
Where the new song sweetly swelleth,
And the discord never comes;
Where life's stream is ever laving,
And the palm is ever waving,
That must be the home of homes.

4 Where the Lamb on high is seated,
By ten thousand voices greeted,
Lord of lords, and King of kings.
Son of Man, they crown, they crown Him,
Son of God, they own, they own Him;
With His Name the palace rings.

5 Blessing, honor, without measure,
Heavenly riches, earthly treasure,
Lay we at His blessed feet:
Poor the praise that now we render,
Loud shall be our voices yonder,
When before His throne we meet.

All its sin, its sadness;
Brightly at last
Dawns a day of gladness:

Under thy sod,

To rest in God,
Waiting all His pleasure.

3 Though we may mourn
Those in life the dearest,
They shall return,

Soon shall Thy voice
Comfort those now weeping,
Bidding rejoice
All in Jesus sleeping.

- 2 It tells me of a place of rest ;
It tells me where my soul may flee :
O to the weary, faint, oppressed,
How sweet the bidding, "Come to Me."
- 3 When the poor heart with anguish learns
That earthly props resigned must be,
And from each broken cistern turns,
It hears the accents, "Come to Me."
- 4 When against sin I strive in vain,
And cannot from its yoke get free,
Sinking beneath the heavy chain,
The words arrest me, "Come to Me."
- 5 When nature shudders, loath to part
From all I love, enjoy, and see ;
When a faint chill steals o'er my heart,
A sweet voice utters, "Come to Me."
- 6 "Come, for all else must fail and die ;
Earth is no resting-place for thee ;
Heavenward direct thy weeping eye,
I am thy Portion ; come to Me."
- 7 O voice of mercy ! voice of love !
In conflict, grief, and agony,
Support me, cheer me from above,
And gently whisper, "Come to Me"

- 1 GOD of my life, to Thee I call ;
Afflicted, at Thy feet I fall :
When the great water-floods prevail,
Leave not my trembling heart to fail.
- 2 Friend of the friendless and the faint,
Where should I lodge my deep complaint ?
Where but with Thee, whose open door
Invites the helpless and the poor ?
- 3 Did ever mourner plead with Thee,
And Thou refuse that mourner's plea ?
Does not the word still fixed remain,
That none shall seek Thy face in vain ?
- 4 That were a grief I could not bear,
Didst Thou not hear and answer prayer ;
But a prayer-hearing, answering God
Supports me under every load.
- 5 Poor though I am, despised, forgot,
Yet God, my God, forgets me not ;
And he is safe, and must succeed,
For whom the Lord vouchsafes to plead.

2 God will never leave thee,
All thy wants He knows,
Feels the pains that grieve thee,
Sees thy cares and woes :
Raise thine eyes to heaven
When thy spirits quail,
When, by tempests driven,
Heart and courage fail.

3 All thy woe and sadness,
In this world below,
Balance not the gladness
Thou in heaven shalt know,
When thy gracious Saviour
In the realms above
Crowns thee with His favor,
Fills thee with His love.

With so blest a Friend provided,
We upon our way would go,
Sure of being safely guided,
Guarded well from every foe.

3 Every day will be the brighter
When Thy gracious face we see ;
Every burden will be lighter

Spread Thy love's broad banner o'er us,

Shines with the glory of His unveiled face,
Through your immortal life, as love still grows,
Tell of His goodness, which no ending knows.
- 3 O Earth, enlightened by His rays Divine,
Stored by His hand with corn and oil and wine,
Crowned with His goodness, let thy nations raise
From shore to shore the song of ceaseless praise.

Sing the deep marvels of that boundless grace
Which sheds on thee the brightness of His face.

657 GOLDEN SHEAVES 8. 7. 8. 7. D.

Sir Arthur Sullivan, 1874

I To Thee, O Lord, our hearts we raise In hymns of ad - o - ra - tion,

To Thee bring sac - ri - fice of praise With shouts of ex - ul - ta - tion:

Bright robes of gold the fields a - dorn, The hills with joy are ring - ing,

The val-leys stand so thick with corn That e - ven they are sing - ing. A-MEN.

2 And now, on this our festal day,
Thy bounteous hand confessing,
Upon Thine altar, Lord, we lay
The first-fruits of Thy blessing:
By Thee the souls of men are fed
With gifts of grace supernal;
Thou who dost give us daily bread,
Give us the Bread eternal.

3 We bear the burden of the day,
And often toil seems dreary;
But labor ends with sunset ray,
And rest is for the weary:

May we, the angel-reaping o'er,
Stand at the last accepted,
Christ's golden sheaves for evermore
To garners bright elected.

4 O blessèd is that land of God,
Where saints abide for ever,
Where golden fields spread fair and broad,
Where flows the crystal river:
The strains of all its holy throng
With ours to-day are blending;
Thrice blessèd is that harvest-song
Which never hath an ending.

2 And as, when ebb'd the Flood, our sires
Kneel'd on the mountain sod,
While o'er the new world's altar fires
Shone out the bow of God;
And sweetly fell the peaceful spell,
Word that shall aye avail,
"Summer and winter shall not cease,
Seed-time nor harvest fail,"—

3 Thus in their change let frost and heat
And winds and dews be given;
All fostering power, all influence sweet
Breathe from the bounteous heaven:

Attemper fair with gentle air
The sunshine and the rain,
That kindly earth, with timely birth,
May yield her fruits again;

4 That we may feed Thy poor aright,
And, gathering round Thy throne,
Here, in the holy angels' sight,
Repay Thee of Thine own;
That we may praise Thee all our days,
And with the Father's Name,
And with the Holy Spirit's gifts,
The Saviour's love proclaim.

Lord of harvest, grant that we
Wholesome grain and pure may be.

3 For the Lord our God shall come,
And shall take His harvest home;
From His field shall in that day
All offences purge away;

Give His angels charge at last
In the fire the tares to cast,
But the fruitful ears to store
In His garner evermore.

4 Even so, Lord, quickly come
To Thy final harvest-home;
Gather Thou Thy people in,
Free from sorrow, free from sin;
There for ever purified,
In Thy presence to abide:
Come, with all Thine angels, come,
Raise the glorious harvest-home.

Peace to the nations, and praise to the Lord.

Henry F. Chorley, 1842: verse 2. l. 3, alt.

671 (STUTTART) 8. 7. 8. 7.

- 1 DREAD Jehovah, God of nations,
From Thy temple in the skies
Hear Thy people's supplications;
Now for their deliverance rise.
- 2 Lo! with deep contrition turning,
Humbly at Thy feet we bend;
Hear us, fasting, praying, mourning;
Hear us, spare us, and defend.
- 3 Though our sins, our hearts confounding,
Long and loud for vengeance call,
Thou hast mercy more abounding,
Jesus' blood can cleanse them all.
- 4 Let that love veil our transgression;
Let that blood our guilt efface;
Save Thy people from oppression,
Save from spoil Thy holy place.

Arr. from Christopher Tye, 1553

1 O Lord, be with us when we sail Up - on the lone - ly deep,

Our Guard, when on the si - lent deck The midnight watch we keep. A - MEN.

2 We need not fear, though all around 'Mid rising winds we hear
The multitude of waters surge;
For Thou, O God, art near.

*5 Be Thou the Mainguard of our host,
Till war and dangers cease;
Defend the right, put up the sword,
And through the world make peace.

3 The calm, the breeze, the gale, the storm,
That pass from land to land,
All, all are Thine, are held within
The hollow of Thy hand.

6 Across this troubled tide of life
Thyself our Pilot be,
Until we reach that better land,
The land that knows no sea.

*4 If duty calls from threatened strife
To guard our native shore,
And shot and shell are answering
The booming cannon's roar,

7 To Thee the Father, Thee the Son,
Whom earth and sky adore,
And Spirit moving on the deep,
Be praise for evermore.

Rev. John B. Dykes, 1861

2 O Saviour, whose almighty word
The winds and waves submissive heard,
Who walkedst on the foaming deep,
And calm amid its rage didst sleep :
O hear us when we cry to Thee
For those in peril on the sea.

3 O Sacred Spirit, who didst brood
Upon the chaos dark and rude,
Who badd'st its angry tumult cease,

And gavest light and life and peace :
O hear us when we cry to Thee
For those in peril on the sea.

4 O Trinity of love and power,
Our brethren shield in danger's hour ;
From rock and tempest, fire and foe,
Protect them wheresoe'er they go ;
And ever let there rise to Thee
Glad hymns of praise from land and sea.

William Whiting, 1860 (Text of 1869)

1 STAR of peace to wanderers weary,
Bright the beams that smile on me ;
Cheer the pilot's vision dreary,
Far, far at sea.

2 Star of hope, gleam on the billow ;
Bless the soul that sighs for Thee,
Bless the sailor's lonely pillow,
Far, far at sea.

3 Star of faith, when winds are mocking
All his toil, he flies to Thee ;
Save him on the billows rocking,
Far, far at sea.

4 Star Divine, O safely guide him,
Bring the wanderer home to Thee ;
Sore temptations long have tried him,
Far, far at sea.

2 How many, at His call,
Have parted from our throng !
They watch us from the crystal wall,
And echo back our song.
They rest, beyond complaints,
Beyond all sighs and tears :
Praise be to God for all His saints
Who wrought in bygone years.

3 The banners they upbore
Our hands still lift on high ;
The Lord they followed evermore
To us is also nigh.

Arise, arise, and tread
The future without fears ;
He leadeth still, whose hand hath led
Through all the bygone years.

4 When we have reached the home
We seek with weary feet,
Our children's children still shall come

And He, whose host is one
Throughout the countless spheres,
Will guide His marching servants on Through everlasting years.

That heaven so bright and fair,
Where all is peace, and joy, and love;
How came those children there,
Singing, "Glory be to God on high"?
- 4 Because the Saviour shed His blood
To wash away their sin;
Bathed in that pure and precious flood,
Behold them white and clean,
Singing, "Glory be to God on high."

2 And since the Lord retaineth
His love for children still,
Though now as King He reigneth
On Zion's heavenly hill,
We'll flock around His banner
Who sits upon His throne,
And cry aloud, "Hosanna
To David's royal Son!"

3 For should we fail proclaiming
Our great Redeemer's praise,
The stones, our silence shaming,
Would their Hosannas raise.
But shall we only render
The tribute of our words?
No; while our hearts are tender,
They too shall be the Lord's.

1 There is a green hill far a - way, With - out a cit - y wall,

Where the dear Lord was cru - ci - fied, Who died to save us all. A - MEN.

2 We may not know, we cannot tell,
What pains He had to bear ;
But we believe it was for us
He hung and suffered there.

4 There was no other good enough
To pay the price of sin ;
He only could unlock the gate
Of heaven, and let us in.

3 He died that we might be forgiven,
He died to make us good,
That we might go at last to heaven,
Saved by His precious blood.

5 O dearly, dearly has He loved,
And we must love Him too,
And trust in His redeeming blood,
And try His works to do.

2 The old man, meek and mild,
The priest of Israel, slept;
His watch the temple-child,
The little Levite, kept;
And what from Eli's sense was sealed
The Lord to Hannah's son revealed.

3 O give me Samuel's ear,
The open ear, O Lord,
Alive and quick to hear
Each whisper of Thy word,
Like him to answer at Thy call,
And to obey Thee first of all.

4 O give me Samuel's heart,
A lowly heart, that waits
Where in Thy house Thou art,
Or watches at Thy gates;
By day and night, a heart that still Moves at the breathing of Thy will.

5 O give me Samuel's mind,
A sweet unurmuring faith,
Obedient and resigned
To Thee in life and death,
That I may read with childlike eyes
Truths that are hidden from the wise.

- 2 Bright youth and snow-crowned age,
Strong men and maidens meek,
Raise high your free, exulting song,
God's wondrous praises speak.
- 3 With all the angel choirs,
With all the saints on earth,
Pour out the strains of joy and bliss,
True rapture, noblest mirth!
- 4 Your clear hosannas raise,
And alleluias loud;

- 5 Whilst answering echoes upward float,
Like wreaths of incense cloud.
- 5 Yes, on through life's long path,
Still chanting as ye go;
From youth to age, by night and day,
In gladness and in woe.
- 6 Still lift your standard high,
Still march in firm array;
As warriors through the darkness toil
Till dawns the golden day.
- 7 At last the march shall end,
The wearied ones shall rest,
The pilgrims find their Father's house,
Jerusalem the blest.
- 8 Then on, ye pure in heart,
Rejoice, give thanks, and sing;
Your glorious banner wave on high,
The cross of Christ your King.

2 I love to tell the story ;
 More wonderful it seems

 I love to tell the story,
 It did so much for me ;
 And that is just the reason
 I tell it now to thee.
 I love to tell, etc.

3 I love to tell the story ;
 'T is pleasant to repeat
 What seems, each time I tell it,
 More wonderfully sweet.

I love to tell the story,
 For some have never heard
 The message of salvation
 From God's own holy word.
 I love to tell, etc.

4 I love to tell the story ;
 For those who know it best
 Seem hungering and thirsting
 To hear it, like the rest.
 And when, in scenes of glory,
 I sing the new, new song,
 'Twill be the old, old story
 That I have loved so long.
 I love to tell, etc.

He gives our daily bread.
All good gifts, etc.

3 We thank Thee, then, O Father,
For all things bright and good,
The seed-time and the harvest,
Our life, our health, our food:

For all Thy love imparts,
But that which Thou desirest,
Our humble, thankful hearts.

4 Thou knowest, not alone as God, all knowing;
 As man, our mortal weakness Thou hast proved:
 On earth, with purest sympathies o'erflowing,
 O Saviour, Thou hast wept, and Thou hast loved;
 And love and sorrow still to Thee may come,
 And find a hiding-place, a rest, a home.

5 Therefore I come, Thy gentle call obeying,
 And lay my sins and sorrows at Thy feet;
 On everlasting Strength my weakness staying,
 Clothed in Thy robe of righteousness complete:
 Then rising and refreshed I leave Thy throne,
 And follow on to know as I am known.

I Forth in Thy Name, O Lord, I go, My dai - ly la - bor to pur - sue;

Thee, on - ly Thee, re - solved to know In all I think, or speak, or do. A-MEN.

2 The task Thy wisdom hath assigned
 O let me cheerfully fulfil;
 In all my works Thy presence find,
 And prove Thy good and perfect will.

4 Thee may I set at my right hand,
 Whose eyes mine inmost substance see,
 And labor on at Thy command,
 And offer all my works to Thee.

3 Preserve me from my calling's snare,
 And hide my simple heart above;
 Above the thorns of choking care,
 The gilded baits of worldly love.

5 Give me to bear Thy easy yoke,
 And every moment watch and pray;
 And still to things eternal look,
 And hasten to Thy glorious day:

6 For Thee delightfully employ
 Whate'er Thy bounteous grace hath given,
 And run my course with even joy,
 And closely walk with Thee to heaven.

Deodatus Dutton, Jr., 1829

2 I love in solitude to shed
The penitential tear,
And all His promises to plead
Where none but God can hear.

3 I love to think on mercies past,
And future good implore,
And all my cares and sorrows cast
On Him whom I adore.

4 I love by faith to take a view
Of brighter scenes in heaven;
The prospect doth my strength renew
While here by tempests driven.

5 Thus, when life's toilsome day is o'er,
May its departing ray
Be calm as this impressive hour,
And lead to endless day.

Phœbe H. Brown, 1818: alt. in Village Hymns, 1824

721 (BEATITUDO) C. M.

1 O THOU, from whom all goodness
I lift my heart to Thee; [flows,
In all my sorrows, conflicts, woes,
Dear Lord, remember me.

2 When groaning on my burdened heart
My sins lie heavily,
My pardon speak, new peace impart;
In love remember me.

3 Temptations sore obstruct my way,
And ills I cannot flee:
O give me strength, Lord, as my day;
For good remember me.

4 Distressed with pain, disease, and grief,
This feeble body see;
Grant patience, rest, and kind relief:
Hear and remember me.

5 If on my face, for Thy dear Name,
Shame and reproaches be,
All hail reproach, and welcome shame,
If Thou remember me.

6 The hour is near; consigned to death,
I own the just decree;
"Saviour," with my last parting breath
I'll cry, "Remember me."

I Je - sus, my Strength, my Hope, On Thee I cast my care;

With hum - ble con - fi - dence look up, And know Thou hearest my prayer;

Give me on Thee to wait, Till I can all things do;

On Thee, al - might - y to cre - ate, Al - might - y to re - new. A-MEN.

2 I want a sober mind,
A self-renouncing will,
That tramples down and casts behind
The baits of pleasing ill;
A soul inured to pain,
To hardship, grief, and loss;
Bold to take up, firm to sustain,
The consecrated cross.

3 I want a godly fear,
A quick-discerning eye,
That looks to Thee when sin is near,
And sees the tempter fly;

A spirit still prepared,
And armed with jealous care;
For ever standing on its guard,
And watching unto prayer.

4 I rest upon Thy word;
Thy promise is for me;
My succor and salvation, Lord,
Shall surely come from Thee:
But let me still abide,
Nor from my Hope remove,
Till Thou my patient spirit guide
Into Thy perfect love.

William H. Squires, 1895

Fa - ther, I know that all my life Is por-tioned out for me ;

And the chan-ges that are sure to come I do not fear to see :

But I ask Thee for a pres - ent mind, In - tent on pleas - ing Thee. A-MEN.

Copyright, 1895, by THE TRUSTEES OF THE PRESBYTERIAN BOARD OF PUBLICATION AND SABBATH-SCHOOL WORK

2 I ask Thee for a thoughtful love,
Through constant watching wise,
To meet the glad with joyful smiles,
And to wipe the weeping eyes ;
And a heart at leisure from itself
To soothe and sympathize.

3 I would not have the restless will
That hurries to and fro,
Seeking for some great thing to do,
Or secret thing to know ;
I would be treated as a child,
And guided where I go.

4 Wherever in the world I am,
In whatsoe'er estate,
I have a fellowship with hearts

To keep and cultivate ;
And a work of lowly love to do
For the Lord on whom I wait.

5 So I ask Thee for the daily strength,
To none that ask denied,
And a mind to blend with outward life,
While keeping at Thy side ;
Content to fill a little space,
If Thou be glorified.

6 In a service which Thy will appoints
There are no bonds for me ;
For my inmost heart is taught the truth
That makes Thy children free ;
And a life of self-renouncing love
Is a life of liberty.

Oratory Hymns, 1868

1 Thou art my Hid - ing-place, O Lord, In Thee I put my trust;

En - cour - aged by Thy ho - ly word, A fee - ble child of dust:

I have no ar - gu - ment be - side, I urge no oth - er plea;

And 'tis e - nough my Sav - iour died, My Sav-iour died for me. A - MEN.

2 When storms of fierce temptation beat,
And furious foes assail,
My refuge is the mercy-seat,
My hope within the veil.
From strife of tongues and bitter words
My spirit flies to Thee:
Joy to my heart the thought affords,
My Saviour died for me.

3 'Mid trials heavy to be borne,
When mortal strength is vain,
A heart with grief and anguish torn,
A body racked with pain;

Ah! what could give the sufferer rest,
Bid every murmur flee,
But this, the witness in my breast
That Jesus died for me?

4 And when Thine awful voice commands
This body to decay,
And life, in its last lingering sands,
Is ebbing fast away, —
Then, though it be in accents weak,
And faint and tremblingly,
O give me strength in death to speak,
"My Saviour died for me."

Directions for Chanting

1 CHANTS consist of two distinct divisions: one portion is recited, the other portion is sung.

2 The words from the commencement of each verse and half-verse up to the accented syllable, which is printed in italics, are called the Recitation, and should be recited smoothly, and without undue haste.

3 On reaching the accented syllable, and beginning with it, the music of the chant commences, in strict time (a tempo), the upright strokes corresponding to the bars. The Recitation must therefore be considered as outside the chant, and may be of any length. The note on which the Recitation is made is called the Reciting-note.

4 If there is no syllable after that which is accented, the accented syllable must be held for one whole bar or measure.

5 An asterisk (*) is a direction to take breath. Other stops (, ;) must be attended to, as in good reading.

6 As the accent holds the position of the first beat of the first bar, it is unnecessary to sing it louder than any of the words recited: its position, musically, will give it quite enough emphasis.

7 Final ed is always to be pronounced as a separate syllable.

8 The expression "2nd part" indicates that the verse so marked is to be sung to the second half of a double chant, when such chant is used.

7 JUBILATE DEO

Rev. Henry Aldrich (1647-1710)

- 1 O BE joyful in the Lord | all ye | lands || serve the Lord with gladness * and come before His | presence | with a | song.
- 2 Be ye sure that the Lord | He is | God || it is He that hath made us * and not we ourselves * we are His people, and the | sheep of | His · = | pasture.
- 3 O go your way into His gates with thanksgiving * and into His | courts with | praise || be thankful unto Him, and | speak good | of His | Name.
- 4 For the Lord is gracious * His mercy is | ever | lasting || and His truth endureth from gener | ation · to | gener | ation.
- Glory be to the Father | and · to the | Son || and | to the | Holy | Ghost ;
As it was in the beginning * is now, and | ever | shall be || world without |
end · = | A · = | men.

12 THE EARTH IS THE LORD'S

William H. Monk, 1879

John Jones, 1770

James Turle (1802-1882)

Sir John Goss (1800-1880)

- 1 THE earth is the Lord's and the | fulness · there | of || the world and | they that | dwell there | in.
- 2 For He hath founded it up | on the | seas || and established | it up | on the | floods.
- 3 Who shall ascend into the hill | of the | Lord || or who shall stand | in His | holy | place?
- 4 He that hath clean hands and a | pure · = | heart || who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity * nor | sworn de | ceitful | ly.
- 5 He shall receive the blessing | from the | Lord || and righteousness from the | God of | his sal | vation.
- 6 This is the generation of | them that | seek Him || that | seek Thy | face O | Jacob.
- 7 Lift up your heads, O ye gates * and be ye lifted up ye ever | lasting | doors || and the King of | Glory | shall come | in.
- 8 Who is this | King of | Glory || The Lord strong and mighty * the Lord | might · = | y in | battle.
- 9 Lift up your heads, O ye gates * even lift them up ye ever | lasting | doors || and the King of | Glory | shall come | in.
- 10 Who is this | King of | Glory || The Lord of hosts He | is the | King of | Glory. Glory be to the Father | and · to the | Son || and | to the | Holy | Ghost ;

15 CHRIST OUR PASSEVER

Sir Joseph Barnby (1838- )

1 CHRIST our Passover is sacri | ficed | for us || therefore | let us | keep the | feast,
2 Not with old leaven * neither with the leaven of | malice · and | wickedness ||
but with the unleavened bread of sin | ceri | ty and | truth.
3 Christ being raised from the dead | dieth · no | more || death hath no more
do | minion | over | Him.
4 For in that He died * He died unto | sin · = | once || but in that He liveth He |
liveth | unto | God.
5 Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed | unto | sin || but alive unto God through | Jesus | Christ our | Lord.

Sir Joseph Barnby (1838- )

6 Now is Christ risen | from the | dead || and become the first | fruits of | them that | slept.
7 For since by | man came | death || by man came also the resur | rection | of the | dead.
8 For as in Adam | all · = | die || even so in Christ shall | all be | made a | live.
Glory be to the Father | and · to the | Son || and | to the | Holy | Ghost ;
As it was in the beginning * is now, and | ever | shall be || world without |
end · = | A · = | men.

Arr. from Purcell, by James Turle (1802-1882)

- 1 LORD, let me know mine end * and the number | of my | days || that I may be certified how | long I | have to | live.
- 2 Behold * Thou hast made my days as it were a | span · = | long || and mine age is even as nothing in respect of Thee * and verily every man living is | alto | gether | vanity.
- 3 For man walketh in a vain shadow * and disquieteth him | self in | vain || he
heapeth up riches, and cannot tell | who shall | gather | them.
- 4 And now, Lord * what | is my | hope || truly my | hope is | even · in | Thee.
- 5 Deliver me from all | mine of | fences || and make me not a re | buke un | to · the | foolish.
- 6 When Thou with rebukes dost chasten man for sin * Thou makest his beauty to consume away * like as it were a moth | fretting · a | garment || every man |
therefore | is but | vanity.
- 7 Hear my prayer O Lord * and with Thine ears con | sider · my | calling || hold
not Thy | peace · = | at my | tears ;
- 8 For I am a stranger with Thee and | a so | journey || as | all my | fathers | were.
- 9 O spare me a little * that I may re | cover · my | strength || before I go
hence | and be | no more | seen.

18 THE XCTH PSALM

1

William Croft, 1700

2

James Foster (1807-1885)

3

William Morley, 1700

- 1 LORD Thou hast been our | dwelling | place || in | all · = | gener | ations.
- 2 Before the mountains were brought forth * or ever Thou hadst formed the | earth · and the | world || even from everlasting to everlasting | Thou · = | art · = | God.
- 3 Thou turnest man | to de | struction || and sayest Re | turn ye | children · of | men.
- 4 For a thousand years in Thy sight are but as yesterday when | it is | past || and as a | watch · = | in the | night.
- 5 Thou carriest them away as with a flood * they are | as a | sleep || in the morning they are like | grass which | groweth | up.
- 6 In the morning it flourisheth and | groweth | up || in the evening it is cut | down and | wither | eth.
- 7 For we are consumed | by Thine | anger || and by Thy | wrath · = | are we | troubled.
- 8 Thou hast set our iniquities be | fore · = | Thee || our secret sins in the | light · = | of Thy | countenance.
- 9 For all our days are passed away | in Thy | wrath || we spend our years as a | tale · = | that is | told.
- 10 The days of our years are threescore | years and | ten || and if by reason of strength they be fourscore years * yet is their strength labor and sorrow; for it is soon cut off | and we | fly a | way.
- 11 Who knoweth the power | of Thine | anger || even according to Thy fear |
so · = | is Thy | wrath.
- 12 So teach us to | number · our | days || that we may apply our | hearts · = | unto | wisdom.
- 13 Return O | Lord, how | long || and let it repent Thee con | cerning |
Thy · = | servants.
- 14 O satisfy us early | with Thy | mercy || that we may rejoice and be | glad · = |
all our | days.
- 15 Make us glad according to the days wherein Thou hast af | flicted | us || and the years where | in we | have seen | evil.
- 16 Let Thy work appear un | to Thy | servants || and Thy | glory · un | to their |

19 AT THE BAPTISM OF INFANTS

Hart

Before the Administration

- 1 THE mercy of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting upon | them that | fear
 Him || and His righteousness | unto | children's | children.
- 2 To such as | keep His | covenant || and to those that remember His com | mand · = | ments to | do them.
- 3 He shall feed His flock | like a | shepherd || He shall gather the lambs with His arm and | carry · them | in His | bosom.
- 4 Suffer little children to come unto Me and for | bid them | not || for of | such ·
 is the | kingdom · of | heaven.

Sir George A. Macfarren, 1850

After the Administration

- 5 Then will I sprinkle clean | water · up | on you || and | ye shall | be · = | clean :
  - 6 A new heart also | will I | give you || and a new spirit | will I | put with | in you,
  - 7 And I will take away the stony heart | out of · your | flesh || and I will | give · you a | heart of | flesh.
  - 8 I will pour my Spirit up | on thy | seed || and · My | blessing · up | on thine | offspring :
  - 9 And they shall spring up as a | mong the | grass || as willows | by the | water | courses.
  - 10 For the promise is unto you and | to your | children || and to all that are afar off * even as many as the | Lord our | God shall | call.
- Glory be to the Father | and · to the | Son || and | to the | Holy | Ghost ;

PSALM I.

Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the wicked,
Nor standeth in the way of sinners,
Nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.
But his delight is in the law of the Lord ;
And in his law doth he meditate day and night.

And he shall be like a tree planted by the streams of water,
That bringeth forth its fruit in its season,

Whose leaf also doth not wither ;
And whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.

The wicked are not so ; but are like the chaff which the wind driveth away.
Therefore the wicked shall not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

For the Lord knoweth the way of the
righteous :
But the way of the wicked shall perish.

PSALM II.

Why do the nations rage,
And the peoples imagine a vain thing ?
The kings of the earth set themselves,
And the rulers take counsel together,
Against the Lord, and against his anointed, saying,

Let us break their bands asunder,
And cast away their cords from us.
He that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh :

The Lord shall have them in derision.
Then shall he speak unto them in his wrath,
And vex them in his sore displeasure :

Yet I have set my king
Upon my holy hill of Zion.
I will tell of the decree :
The Lord said unto me, Thou art my son ;
This day have I begotten thee.

Ask of me, and I will give thee the nations for thine inheritance,
And the uttermost parts of the earth
for thy possession.

Thou shalt break them with a rod of iron ;
Thou shalt dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel.

Now therefore be wise, O ye kings :
Be instructed, ye judges of the earth.

Serve the Lord with fear,
And rejoice with trembling.
Kiss the son, lest he be angry, and ye perish in the way,
For his wrath will soon be kindled.

BLESSED ARE ALL THEY THAT PUT THEIR TRUST IN HIM.

PSALM V.

Give ear to my words, O Lord,
 Consider my meditation.
 Hearken unto the voice of my cry, my
 King, and my God :
For unto thee do I pray.
 O Lord, in the morning shalt thou hear my voice ;
In the morning will I order my prayer
unto thee, and will keep watch.
 For thou art not a God that hath pleasure in wickedness :
Evil shall not sojourn with thee.
The arrogant shall not stand in thy sight :
 Thou hatest all workers of iniquity.
 Thou shalt destroy them that speak lies :
The Lord abhorreth the bloodthirsty
and deceitful man.
But as for me, in the multitude of thy lovingkindness will I come into thy house :
 In thy fear will I worship toward thy holy temple.
Lead me, O Lord, in thy righteous- ness because of mine enemies ;
 Make thy way plain before my face.
For there is no faithfulness in their
mouth ;
Their inward part is very wicked-
ness :
 Their throat is an open sepulchre ;
 They flatter with their tongue.
Hold them guilty, O God ;
Let them fall by their own counsels :
 Thrust them out in the multitude of their transgressions ;
 For they have rebelled against thee.
But let all those that put their trust
in thee rejoice,
Let them ever shout for joy, because
thou defendest them ;

Let them also that love thy name be joyful in thee.
For thou wilt bless the righteous ;
O Lord, thou wilt compass him with favor as with a shield.

PSALM VIII.

O Lord, our Lord,
 How excellent is thy name in all the
 earth !
Who hast set thy glory upon the
heavens.
 Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings hast thou established strength,
 Because of thine adversaries,
That thou mightest still the enemy
and the avenger.
 When I consider thy heavens, the work
 of thy fingers,
 The moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained :
What is man, that thou art mindful of him ?
And the son of man, that thou visitest
him ?
 For thou hast made him but little lower than God,
And crownest him with glory and honour.
 Thou madest him to have dominion
 over the works of thy hands ;
Thou hast put all things under his
feet :
 All sheep and oxen,
 Yea, and the beasts of the field ;
The fowl of the air, and the fish of
the sea,
Whatsoever passeth through the paths
of the seas.
 O LORD, OUR LORD,
 HOW EXCELLENT IS THY NAME IN ALL
 THE EARTH !

PSALM IX.

I will give thanks unto the Lord with my whole heart :

I will show forth all thy marvellous
works.

I will be glad and exult in thee :

I will sing praise to thy name, O thou
Most High.

When mine enemies turn back,
They stumble and perish at thy presence.

For thou hast maintained my right and my cause ;

Thou satest in the throne judging righteously.

Thou hast rebuked the nations, thou hast destroyed the wicked,

Thou hast blotted out their name for ever and ever.

The enemy are come to an end, they are desolate for ever ;

And the cities which thou hast overthrown,

Their very memorial is perished.

But the Lord sitteth as king for ever :

He hath prepared his throne for judgment.

And he shall judge the world in righteousness,

He shall minister judgment to the peoples in uprightness.

The Lord also will be a high tower for the oppressed,

A high tower in times of trouble ;

And they that know thy name will put their trust in thee ;

For thou, Lord, hast not forsaken them that seek thee.

Sing praises to the Lord, which dwell-
eth in Zion :

Declare among the people his doings.

For he that maketh inquisition for blood remembereth them :

He forgetteth not the cry of the poor.

Have mercy upon me, O Lord ;

Behold my affliction which I suffer of them that hate me,

Thou that liftest me up from the gates of death ;

That I may show forth all thy praise :

In the gates of the daughter of Zion,

I will rejoice in thy salvation.

The nations are sunk down in the pit
that they made :

In the net which they hid is their own foot taken.

The Lord hath made himself known,
he hath executed judgment :

The wicked is snared in the work of his own hands.

The wicked shall return to Sheol,

Even all the nations that forget God.

For the needy shall not alway be forgotten,

Nor the expectation of the poor perish
for ever.

Arise, O Lord ; let not man prevail :

Let the nations be judged in thy sight.

Put them in fear, O Lord :

LET THE NATIONS KNOW THEMSELVES TO BE BUT MEN.

PSALM XI.

In the Lord put I my trust :

How say ye to my soul,

Flee as a bird to your mountain ?

For, lo, the wicked bend the bow,

They make ready their arrow upon the string,

That they may shoot in darkness at the upright in heart.

If the foundations be destroyed,

What can the righteous do ?

The Lord is in his holy temple,

The Lord, his throne is in heaven ;

His eyes behold, his eyelids try, the children of men.

The Lord trieth the righteous :

But the wicked and him that loveth violence his soul hateth.

Upon the wicked he shall rain snares ;
Fire and brimstone and burning wind shall be the portion of their cup.

For the Lord is righteous ; he loveth
righteousness :

The upright shall behold his face.

PSALM XV.

Lord, who shall sojourn in thy tabernacle ?

Who shall dwell in thy holy hill ?

He that walketh uprightly, and worketh
righteousness,

And speaketh truth in his heart.

He that slandereth not with his tongue,
Nor doeth evil to his friend,

Nor taketh up a reproach against his neighbour.

In whose eyes a reprobate is despised ;

But he honoureth them that fear the
Lord.

He that sweareth to his own hurt, and changeth not.

He that putteth not out his money to usury,

Nor taketh reward against the innocent.

HE THAT DOETH THESE THINGS SHALL NEVER BE MOVED.

PSALM XVI.

Preserve me, O God : for in thee do I put my trust.

I have said unto the Lord, Thou art
my Lord :

I have no good beyond thee.

As for the saints that are in the
earth,

They are the excellent in whom is all my delight.

Their sorrows shall be multiplied that exchange the Lord for another god :

Their drink offerings of blood will I not offer,

Nor take their names upon my lips.

The Lord is the portion of mine inheritance and of my cup :

Thou maintainest my lot.

The lines are fallen unto me in pleasant places ;

Yea, I have a goodly heritage.

I will bless the Lord, who hath given me counsel :

Yea, my reins instruct me in the night seasons.

I have set the Lord always before
me :

Because he is at my right hand, I shall not be moved.

Therefore my heart is glad, and my glory rejoiceth :

My flesh also shall dwell in safety.

For thou wilt not leave my soul to Sheol ;

Neither wilt thou suffer thine holy one to see corruption.

Thou wilt show me the path of life :

In thy presence is fulness of joy ;

In thy right hand there are pleasures
for evermore.

PSALM XVIII.

I love thee, O Lord, my strength.

The Lord is my rock, and my fortress,
and my deliverer ;

My God, my strong rock, in him will I trust ;

My shield, and the horn of my salvation, my high tower.

I will call upon the Lord, who is worthy to be praised :
So shall I be saved from mine enemies.
The cords of death compassed me,
And the floods of ungodliness made me afraid.
The cords of Sheol were round about
me :
The snares of death came upon me.
In my distress I called upon the Lord,
And cried unto my God :
He heard my voice out of his temple,
And my cry before him came into his ears.
Then the earth shook and trembled,
The foundations also of the mountains moved and were shaken, because he was wroth.
There went up a smoke out of his nostrils, and fire out of his mouth
devoured :
Coals were kindled by it.
He bowed the heavens also, and came down :
And thick darkness was under his
feet.
And he rode upon a cherub, and did fly :
Yea, he flew swiftly upon the wings
of the wind.
He made darkness his hiding place,
his pavilion round about him ;
Darkness of waters, thick clouds of the skies.
At the brightness before him his thick clouds passed, hailstones and coals of fire.
The Lord also thundered in the
heavens,
And the Most High uttered his voice ;
hailstones and coals of fire.
And he sent out his arrows, and scattered them ;

Yea, lightnings manifold, and discomfited them.
Then the channels of waters appeared,
and the foundations of the world were laid bare, at thy rebuke, O
Lord,
At the blast of the breath of thy nostrils.
He sent from on high, he took me ;
he drew me out of many waters.
He delivered me from my strong enemy,
And from them that hated me, for they were too mighty for me.
They came upon me in the day of my calamity :
But the Lord was my stay.
He brought me forth also into a large
place ;
He delivered me, because he delighted in me.
The Lord rewarded me according to my righteousness ;
According to the cleanness of my hands hath he recompensed me.
For I have kept the ways of the Lord,
And have not wickedly departed from my God.
For all his judgments were before me,
And I put not away his statutes from
me.
I was also perfect with him,
And I kept myself from mine iniquity.
Therefore hath the Lord recompensed me according to my righteousness,
According to the cleanness of my hands in his eyesight.
With the merciful thou wilt shew thyself merciful ;
With the perfect man thou wilt shew
thyself perfect ;
With the pure thou wilt shew thyself
pure ;
And with the perverse thou wilt shew
thyself froward.

For thou wilt save the afflicted people ;
But the haughty eyes thou wilt bring
down.

For thou wilt light my lamp :
The Lord my God will lighten my darkness.

For by thee I run upon a troop ;
And by my God do I leap over a wall.

As for God, his way is perfect :
The word of the Lord is tried ; he is a shield unto all them that trust in him.

For who is God, save the Lord ?
And who is a rock, beside our God ?

The God that girdeth me with strength, and maketh my way perfect.

He maketh my feet like hinds' feet :
and setteth me upon my high places.

Thou hast also given me the shield of
thy salvation :

And thy right hand hath holden me up, and thy gentleness hath made me great.

Thou hast enlarged my steps under me,
and my feet have not slipped.

PSALM XIX.

The heavens declare the glory of
God ;

And the firmament sheweth his handywork.

Day unto day uttereth speech,
And night unto night sheweth knowledge.

There is no speech nor language :
Their voice cannot be heard.

Their line is gone out through all the
earth,

And their words to the end of the world.

In them hath he set a tabernacle for the sun,

Which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber, and rejoiceth as a strong man to run his course.

His going forth is from the end of the heaven,

And his circuit unto the ends of it :
and there is nothing hid from the heat thereof.

The law of the Lord is perfect, restoring the soul :

The testimony of the Lord is sure,
making wise the simple.

The precepts of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart :

The commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes.

The fear of the Lord is clean, enduring
for ever :

The judgments of the Lord are true,
and righteous altogether.

More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold :

Sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb.

Moreover by them is thy servant
warned :

In keeping of them there is great reward.

Who can discern his errors ?

Clear thou me from hidden faults.

Keep back thy servant also from presumptuous sins ;

Let them not have dominion over me :
then shall I be perfect, and I shall be clear from great transgression.

LET THE WORDS OF MY MOUTH AND
THE MEDITATION OF MY HEART
BE ACCEPTABLE IN THY SIGHT,
O LORD, MY ROCK, AND MY RE-DEEMER.

PSALM XX.

The Lord answer thee in the day of trouble ; the name of the God of Jacob set thee up on high ;

Send thee help from the sanctuary, and strengthen thee out of Zion ;

We will triumph in thy salvation, and in the name of our God we will set up our banners :

The Lord fulfil all thy petitions.

Now know I that the Lord saveth his anointed ;

He will answer him from his holy heaven with the saving strength of his right hand.

Some trust in chariots, and some in horses :

But we will make mention of the name of the Lord our God.

They are bowed down and fallen : but we are risen, and stand upright.

Save, Lord : let the King answer us when we call.

SELECTION FROM PSALM XXII.

I will declare thy name unto my brethren :

In the midst of the congregation will I praise thee.

Ye that fear the Lord, praise him ;

All ye the seed of Jacob, glorify him ; and stand in awe of him, all ye the seed of Israel.

For he hath not despised nor abhorred the affliction of the afflicted :

Neither hath he hid his face from him ; but when he cried unto him, he heard.

Of thee cometh my praise in the great congregation :

I will pay my vows before them that fear him.

The meek shall eat and be satisfied : they shall praise the Lord that seek after him :

Let your heart live for ever.

All the ends of the earth shall remember and turn unto the Lord :

And all the kindreds of the nations shall worship before thee.

For the kingdom is the Lord's :

And he is the ruler over the nations.

All the fat ones of the earth shall eat and worship :

All they that go down to the dust shall bow before him, even he that cannot keep his soul alive.

A seed shall serve him ;

It shall be told of the Lord unto the next generation. They shall come and shall declare his righteousness unto a people that shall be born, that he hath done it.

PSALM XXIII.

The Lord is my shepherd ; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures : he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul :

He guideth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil ; for thou art with me :

Thy rod and thy staff, they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies :

Thou hast anointed my head with oil ; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life :

And I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

PSALM XXIV.

The earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof ;

The world, and they that dwell therein.

For he hath founded it upon the seas,

And established it upon the floods.

Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord ?

And who shall stand in his holy place ?

He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart ;

Who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity,

And hath not sworn deceitfully.

He shall receive a blessing from the Lord,

And righteousness from the God of his salvation.

This is the generation of them that seek after him,

That seek thy face, O God of Jacob.

Lift up your heads, O ye gates ;

And be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors :

And the King of glory shall come in.

Who is the King of glory ?

The Lord strong and mighty,

The Lord mighty in battle.

Lift up your heads, O ye gates ;

Yea, lift them up, ye everlasting doors :

And the King of glory shall come in.

Who is this King of glory ?

The Lord of hosts,

He is the King of glory.

PSALM XXV.

Unto thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul.

O my God, in thee have I trusted,

Let me be not ashamed :

Let not mine enemies triumph over me.

Yea, none that wait on thee shall be ashamed :

They shall be ashamed that deal treacherously without cause.

Shew me thy ways, O Lord ;

Teach me thy paths.

Guide me in thy truth, and teach me ;

For thou art the God of my salvation ;

On thee do I wait all the day.

Remember, O Lord, thy tender mercies and thy lovingkindnesses ;

For they have been ever of old.

Remember not the sins of my youth, nor my transgressions :

According to thy lovingkindness remember thou me,

For thy goodness' sake, O Lord.

Good and upright is the Lord :

Therefore will he instruct sinners in the way.

The meek will he guide in judgment :

And the meek will he teach his way.

All the paths of the Lord are lovingkindness and truth

Unto such as keep his covenant and his testimonies.

For thy name's sake, O Lord,

Pardon mine iniquity, for it is great.

What man is he that feareth the Lord ?

Him shall he instruct in the way that he shall choose.

His soul shall dwell at ease ;

And his seed shall inherit the land.

The secret of the Lord is with them that fear him ;

And he will shew them his covenant.

Mine eyes are ever toward the Lord ;

For he shall pluck my feet out of the net.

Turn thee unto me, and have mercy upon me ;

For I am desolate and afflicted.

The troubles of my heart are enlarged :

O bring thou me out of my distresses.

Consider mine affliction and my travail ;
And forgive all my sins.

Consider mine enemies, for they are many ;

And they hate me with cruel hatred.

O keep my soul, and deliver me :

Let me not be ashamed, for I put my trust in thee.

Let integrity and uprightness preserve me.

For I wait on thee.

Redeem Israel, O God,
Out of all his troubles.

PSALM XXVII.

The Lord is my light and my salvation ;
whom shall I fear ?

The Lord is the strength of my life ;
of whom shall I be afraid ?

When evil-doers came upon me to eat up my flesh,

Even mine adversaries and my foes,
they stumbled and fell.

Though an host should encamp against me,

My heart shall not fear :

Though war should rise against me,

Even then will I be confident.

One thing have I asked of the Lord,
that will I seek after ;

That I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life,

To behold the beauty of the Lord, and to inquire in his temple.

For in the day of trouble he shall keep me secretly in his pavilion :

In the covert of his tabernacle shall he hide me ;

He shall lift me up upon a rock.

And now shall mine head be lifted up above mine enemies round about me :

And I will offer in his tabernacle sacrifices of joy ;

I will sing, yea, I will sing praises unto the Lord.

Hear, O Lord, when I cry with my voice :
Have mercy also upon me, and answer me.

When thou saidst, Seek ye my face ;
my heart said unto thee,

Thy face, Lord, will I seek.

Hide not thy face from me ;

Put not thy servant away in anger :

Thou hast been my help ;

Cast me not off, neither forsake me,
O God of my salvation.

For my father and my mother have forsaken me,

But the Lord will take me up.

Teach me thy way, O Lord ;

And lead me in a plain path,

Because of mine enemies.

Deliver me not over unto the will of mine adversaries :

For false witnesses are risen up against me, and such as breathe out cruelty.

I had fainted, unless I had believed to see the goodness of the Lord

In the land of the living.

Wait on the Lord :

Be strong, and let thine heart take courage ;

Yea, wait thou on the Lord.

PSALM XXVIII.

Unto thee, O Lord, will I call ;

My rock, be not thou deaf unto me :

Lest, if thou be silent unto me,

I become like them that go down into the pit.

Hear the voice of my supplications,
when I cry unto thee,
When I lift up my hands toward thy holy oracle.

Blessed be the Lord,
Because he hath heard the voice of my supplications.

The Lord is my strength and my shield;
My heart hath trusted in him, and I am helped :

Therefore my heart greatly rejoiceth ;
And with my song will I praise him.

The Lord is their strength,
And he is a strong hold of salvation to his anointed.

Save thy people, and bless thine inheritance :

Feed them also, and bear them up
for ever.

PSALM XXIX.

Give unto the Lord, O ye sons of the mighty,

Give unto the Lord glory and strength.

Give unto the Lord the glory due unto
his name ;

Worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness.

The voice of the Lord is upon the waters :

The God of glory thundereth,
Even the Lord upon many waters.

The voice of the Lord is powerful ;

The voice of the Lord is full of majesty.

The voice of the Lord breaketh the cedars ;

Yea, the Lord breaketh in pieces the cedars of Lebanon.

He maketh them also to skip like a calf ;

Lebanon and Sirion like a young wild-ox.

The voice of the Lord cleaveth the flames of fire.

The voice of the Lord shaketh the wilderness ;

The Lord shaketh the wilderness of Kadesh.

The voice of the Lord maketh the hinds to calve,

And strippeth the forests bare :

And in his temple every thing saith,
Glory.

The Lord sat as king at the Flood ;

Yea, the Lord sitteth as king for ever.

The Lord will give strength unto his
people ;

The Lord will bless his people with peace.

PSALM XXX.

I will extol thee, O Lord ; for thou hast raised me up,

And hast not made my foes to rejoice
over me.

O Lord my God,

I cried unto thee, and thou hast healed me.

O Lord, thou hast brought up my soul
from Sheol :

Thou hast kept me alive, that I should not go down to the pit.

Sing praise unto the Lord, O ye saints of his,

And give thanks to his holy name.

For his anger is but for a moment ;

In his favor is life :

Weeping may tarry for the night,

But joy cometh in the morning.

As for me, I said in my prosperity,

I shall never be moved.

Thou, Lord, of thy favour hadst made my mountain to stand strong :

Thou didst hide thy face ; I was troubled.

I cried to thee, O Lord ;
 And unto the Lord I made supplica-
 tion :
 What profit is there in my blood, when
 I go down to the pit ?
 Shall the dust praise thee ? shall it declare thy truth ?
 Hear, O Lord, and have mercy upon
 me :
 Lord, be thou my helper.
 Thou hast turned for me my mourning
 into dancing ;
 Thou hast loosed my sackcloth, and girded me with gladness :
 To the end that my glory may sing praise to thee, and not be silent.
 O Lord my God, I will give thanks unto thee for ever.

PSALM XXXI.

In thee, O Lord, do I put my trust ;
 let me never be ashamed :
 Deliver me in thy righteousness.
 Bow down thine ear unto me ; deliver me speedily :
 Be thou to me a strong rock, an house of defence to save me.
 For thou art my rock and my fortress ;
 Therefore for thy name's sake lead me
 and guide me.
 Pluck me out of the net that they have laid privily for me ;
 For thou art my strong hold.
 Into thine hand I commend my spirit :
 Thou hast redeemed me, O Lord,
 thou God of truth.
 I hate them that regard lying vanities :
 But I trust in the Lord.
 I will be glad and rejoice in thy mercy :
 For thou hast seen my affliction ;
 Thou hast known my soul in adversi-ties.

And thou hast not shut me up into the hand of the enemy ;
 Thou hast set my feet in a large
 place.
 Have mercy upon me, O Lord, for I am in distress :
 Mine eye wasteth away with grief,
 yea, my soul and my body.
 For my life is spent with sorrow, and my years with sighing :
 But I trusted in thee, O Lord :
 I said, Thou art my God.
 My times are in thy hand :
 Make thy face to shine upon thy servant :
 Save me in thy lovingkindness.
 Let me be not ashamed, O Lord ; for
 I have called upon thee :
 Oh how great is thy goodness, which thou hast laid up for them that fear thee,
 Which thou hast wrought for them that put their trust in thee, before the sons of men !
 In the covert of thy presence shalt thou hide them from the plottings
 of man :
 Thou shalt keep them secretly in a pavilion from the strife of tongues.
 Blessed be the Lord :
 For he hath shewed me his marvellous lovingkindness in a strong city.
 As for me, I said in my haste, I am cut off from before thine eyes :
 Nevertheless thou heardest the voice of my supplications when I cried unto thee.
 O love the Lord, all ye his saints :
 The Lord preserveth the faithful,
 And plentifully rewardeth the proud doer.
 BE STRONG, AND LET YOUR HEART TAKE COURAGE,
 ALL YE THAT HOPE IN THE LORD.

PSALM XXXII.

Blessed is he whose transgression is forgiven, who sin in covered.

Blessed is the man unto whom the Lord imputeth not iniquity,

And in whose spirit there is no guile.

When I kept silence, my bones waxed old

Through my roaring all the day long.

For day and night thy hand was heavy upon me :

My moisture was changed as with the drought of summer.

I acknowledged my sin unto thee, and mine iniquity have I not hid :

I said, I will confess my transgressions unto the Lord ;

And thou forgavest the iniquity of my sin.

For this let every one that is godly pray unto thee in a time when thou mayest be found :

Surely when the great waters overflow they shall not reach unto him.

Thou art my hiding place ; thou wilt preserve me from trouble ;

Thou wilt compass me about with songs of deliverance.

I will instruct thee and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go :

I will counsel thee with mine eye upon thee.

Be ye not as the horse, or as the mule, which have no understanding :

Whose trappings must be bit and bridle to hold them in,

Else they will not come near unto thee.

Many sorrows shall be to the wicked :

But he that trusteth in the Lord, mercy shall compass him about.

Be glad in the Lord, and rejoice, ye righteous :

And shout for joy, all ye that are upright in heart.

PSALM XXXIII.

Rejoice in the Lord, O ye righteous :

Praise is comely for the upright.

Give thanks unto the Lord with harp :

Sing praises unto him with the psaltery of ten strings.

Sing unto him a new song ;

Play skilfully with a loud noise.

For the word of the Lord is right ;

And all his work is done in faithfulness.

He loveth righteousness and judgement :

The earth is full of the lovingkindness of the Lord.

By the word of the Lord were the heavens made ;

And all the host of them by the breath of his mouth.

He gathereth the waters of the sea together as an heap :

He layeth up the deeps in storehouses.

Let all the earth fear the Lord :

Let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him.

For he spake, and it was done ;

He commanded, and it stood fast.

The Lord bringeth the counsel of the nations to nought :

He maketh the thoughts of the peoples to be of none effect.

The counsel of the Lord standeth fast for ever,

The thoughts of his heart to all generations.

Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord ;

The people whom he hath chosen for his own inheritance.

The Lord looketh from heaven ;

He beholdeth all the sons of men ;
 From the place of his habitation he looketh forth
 Upon all the inhabitants of the earth ;
 He that fashioneth the hearts of them
 all,
 That considereth all their works.
 There is no king saved by the multitude of an host :
 A mighty man is not delivered by great strength.
 An horse is a vain thing for safety :
 Neither shall he deliver any by his great power.
 Behold, the eye of the Lord is upon them that fear him,
 Upon them that hope in his mercy ;
 To deliver their soul from death,
 And to keep them alive in famine.
 Our soul hath waited for the Lord :
 He is our help and our shield.
 For our heart shall rejoice in him,
 Because we have trusted in his holy
 name.
 Let thy mercy, O Lord, be upon us,
 According as we have hoped in thee.

PSALM XXXIV.

I will bless the Lord at all times :
 His praise shall continually be in my mouth.
 My soul shall make her boast in the
 Lord :
 The meek shall hear thereof, and be glad.
 O magnify the Lord with me,
 And let us exalt his name together.
 I sought the Lord, and he answered me,
 And delivered me from all my fears.
 They looked unto him, and were lightened :
 And their faces shall never be confounded.

This poor man cried, and the Lord
 heard him,
 And saved him out of all his troubles.
 The angel of the Lord encampeth round about them that fear him,
 And delivereth them.
 O taste and see that the Lord is good :
 Blessed is the man that trusteth in
 him.
 O fear the Lord, ye his saints :
 For there is no want to them that fear him.
 The young lions do lack, and suffer hunger :
 But they that seek the Lord shall not want any good thing.
 Come, ye children, and hearken unto
 me :
 I will teach you the fear of the Lord.
 What man is he that desireth life,
 And loveth many days, that he may see good ?
 Keep thy tongue from evil,
 And thy lips from speaking guile.
 Depart from evil, and do good ;
 Seek peace, and pursue it.
 The eyes of the Lord are toward the
 righteous,
 And his ears are open unto their cry.
 The face of the Lord is against them
 that do evil,
 To cut off the remembrance of them from the earth.
 The righteous cried, and the Lord
 heard,
 And delivered them out of all their troubles.
 The Lord is nigh unto them that are of a broken heart,
 And saveth such as be of a contrite
 spirit.
 Many are the afflictions of the righteous :

But the Lord delivereth him out of them all.

He keepeth all his bones :

Not one of them is broken.

Evil shall slay the wicked :

And they that hate the righteous shall be condemned.

The Lord redeemeth the soul of his servants :

And none of them that trusted in him shall be condemned.

PSALM XXXVI.

The transgression of the wicked saith within my heart,

There is no fear of God before his eyes.
For he flattereth himself in his own eyes,

That his iniquity shall not be found out and be hated.

The words of his mouth are iniquity and deceit :

He hath left off to be wise and to do good.

He deviseth iniquity upon his bed ;

He setteth himself in a way that is not good ;

He abhorreth not evil.

Thy lovingkindness, O Lord, is in the heavens ;

Thy faithfulness reacheth unto the skies.

Thy righteousness is like the mountains of God ;

Thy judgements are a great deep :

O Lord, thou preservest man and beast.

How precious is thy lovingkindness, O God !

And the children of men take refuge under the shadow of thy wings.

They shall be abundantly satisfied with the fatness of thy house ;

And thou shalt make them drink of the river of thy pleasures.

For with thee is the fountain of life :

In thy light shall we see light.

O continue thy lovingkindness unto them that know thee ;

And thy righteousness to the upright in heart.

Let not the foot of pride come against me,

And let not the hand of the wicked drive me away.

There are the workers of iniquity fallen :

They are thrust down, and shall not be able to rise.

PSALM XXXVII.

Fret not thyself because of evil-doers,
Neither be thou envious against them that work unrighteousness.

For they shall soon be cut down like the grass,

And wither as the green herb.

Trust in the Lord, and do good ;

Dwell in the land, and follow after faithfulness.

Delight thyself also in the Lord ;

And he shall give thee the desires of thine heart.

Commit thy way unto the Lord ;

Trust also in him, and he shall bring it to pass.

And he shall make thy righteousness to go forth as the light,

And thy judgement as the noonday.

Rest in the Lord, and wait patiently for him :

Fret not thyself because of him who prospereth in his way,

Because of the man who bringeth wicked devices to pass.

Cease from anger, and forsake wrath :

Fret not thyself, it tendeth only to evil-doing.

For evil-doers shall be cut off :

But those that wait upon the Lord,
they shall inherit the land.

For yet a little while, and the wicked shall not be :

Yea, thou shalt diligently consider his place, and he shall not be.

But the meek shall inherit the land ;

And shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace.

The wicked plotteth against the just,

And gnasheth upon him with his teeth.

The Lord shall laugh at him :

For he seeth that his day is coming.

The wicked have drawn out the sword,
and have bent their bows ;

To cast down the poor and needy,

To slay such as be upright in the way :

Their sword shall enter into their own heart,

And their bows shall be broken.

Better is a little that the righteous hath
Than the abundance of many wicked.

For the arms of the wicked shall be broken :

But the Lord upholdeth the righteous.

The Lord knoweth the days of the perfect :

And their inheritance shall be for ever.

They shall not be ashamed in the time of evil :

And in the days of famine they shall be satisfied.

But the wicked shall perish,

And the enemies of the Lord shall be as the excellency of the pastures :

They shall consume ; in smoke shall they consume away.

The wicked borroweth, and payeth not again :

But the righteous dealeth graciously,
and giveth.

For such as be blessed of him shall inherit the land ;

And they that be cursed of him shall be cut off.

A man's goings are established of the Lord :

And he delighteth in his way.

Though he fall, he shall not be utterly cast down :

For the Lord upholdeth him with his hand.

I have been young, and now am old ;

Yet have I not seen the righteous forsaken.

Nor his seed begging their bread.

All the long day he dealeth graciously, and lendeth ;

And his seed is blessed.

Depart from evil, and do good ;

And dwell for evermore.

For the Lord loveth judgement,

And forsaketh not his saints ;

They are preserved for ever :

But the seed of the wicked shall be cut off.

The righteous shall inherit the land,

And dwell therein for ever.

The mouth of the righteous talketh of wisdom,

And his tongue speaketh judgement.

The law of his God is in his heart ;

None of his steps shall slide.

The wicked watcheth the righteous,

And seeketh to slay him.

The Lord will not leave him in his hand,

Nor condemn him when he is judged.

Wait on the Lord, and keep his way,

And he shall exalt thee to inherit the land :

When the wicked are cut off, thou shalt see it.

I have seen the wicked in great power,
And spreading himself like a green tree in its native soil.

But one passed by, and lo, he was not :
Yea, I sought him, but he could not be found.

Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright :

For the latter end of that man is peace.
As for transgressors, they shall be destroyed together :

The latter end of the wicked shall be cut off.

But the salvation of the righteous is of the Lord :

He is their strong hold in the time of trouble.

And the Lord helpeth them, and res-
cueth them :

He rescueth them from the wicked,
and saveth them,

Because they have taken refuge in
him.

PSALM XXXIX.

I said, I will take heed to my ways,
That I sin not with my tongue :

I will keep my mouth with a bridle,
While the wicked is before me.

I was dumb with silence, I held my peace, even from good ;

And my sorrow was stirred.

My heart was hot within me ;

While I was musing the fire kindled :

Then spake I with my tongue :

Lord, make me to know mine end,

And the measure of my days, what it is :

Let me know how frail I am.

Behold, thou hast made my days as handbreadths ;

And mine age is as nothing before
thee :

Surely every man at his best estate is altogether vanity.

Surely every man walketh in a vain
show :

Surely they are disquieted in vain :

He heapeth up riches, and knoweth not who shall gather them.

And now, Lord, what wait I for ?

My hope is in thee.

Deliver me from all my transgressions :

Make me not the reproach of the foolish.

I was dumb, I opened not my mouth ;
Because thou didst it.

Remove thy stroke away from me :

I am consumed by the blow of thine
hand.

When thou with rebukes dost correct
man for iniquity,

Thou makest his beauty to consume
away like a moth :

Surely every man is vanity.

Hear my prayer, O Lord, and give ear unto my cry ;

Hold not thy peace at my tears :

For I am a stranger with thee,

A sojourner, as all my fathers were.

O spare me, that I may recover
strength,

Before I go hence, and be no more.

PSALM XL.

I waited patiently for the Lord ;

And he inclined unto me, and heard my cry.

He brought me up also out of an horrible pit, out of the miry clay ;

And he set my feet upon a rock, and established my goings.

And he hath put a new song in my mouth, even praise unto our God :

Many shall see it, and fear,

And shall trust in the Lord.

Blessed is the man that maketh the Lord his trust,

And respecteth not the proud, nor such as turn aside to lies.

Many, O Lord my God, are the wonderful works which thou hast done,

And thy thoughts which are to us-ward :

They cannot be set in order unto thee ;

If I would declare and speak of them,

They are more than can be numbered.

Sacrifice and offering thou hast no delight in ;

Mine ears hast thou opened :

Burnt offering and sin offering hast thou not required.

Then said I, Lo, I am come ;

In the roll of the book it is written of
me :

I delight to do thy will, O my God ;

Yea, thy law is within my heart.

I have published righteousness in the great congregation ;

Lo, I will not refrain my lips,

O Lord, thou knowest.

I have not hid thy righteousness within my heart ;

I have declared thy faithfulness and
thy salvation :

I have not concealed thy lovingkindness and thy truth from the great congregation.

Withhold not thou thy tender mercies
from me, O Lord :

Let thy lovingkindness and thy truth continually preserve me.

For innumerable evils have compassed me about,

Mine iniquities have overtaken me, so that I am not able to look up ;

They are more than the hairs of mine
head, and my heart hath failed me.

Be pleased, O Lord, to deliver me :

Make haste to help me, O Lord.

Let them be ashamed and confounded together

That seek after my soul to destroy it :

Let them be turned backward and brought to dishonour

That delight in my hurt.

Let them be desolate by reason of their shame

That say unto me, Aha, Aha.

Let all those that seek thee rejoice and be glad in thee :

Let such as love thy salvation say continually,

The Lord be magnified.

But I am poor and needy ;

Yet the Lord thinketh upon me :

Thou art my help and my deliverer ;

Make no tarrying, O my God.

PSALM XLII.

As the hart panteth after the water
brooks,

So panteth my soul after thee, O God.

My soul thirsteth for God, for the living God :

When shall I come and appear before
God ?

My tears have been my meat day and night,

While they continually say unto me,
Where is thy God ?

These things I remember, and pour out my soul within me,

How I went with the throng, and led them to the house of God,

With the voice of joy and praise, a multitude keeping holy day.

Why art thou cast down, O my soul ?

And why art thou disquieted within
me ?

Hope thou in God : for I shall yet
praise him

For the health of his countenance.

O my God, my soul is cast down within me :
Therefore do I remember thee from the land of Jordan,
And the Hermons, from the hill
Mizar.
Deep calleth unto deep at the noise of thy waterspouts :
All thy waves and thy billows are gone
over me.
Yet the Lord will command his lovingkindness in the day-time,
And in the night his song shall be
with me,
Even a prayer unto the God of my
life.
I will say unto God my rock, Why hast thou forgotten me ?
Why go I mourning because of the oppression of the enemy ?
As with a sword in my bones, mine adversaries reproach me ;
While they continually say unto me,
Where is thy God ?
Why art thou cast down, O my soul ?
And why art thou disquieted within
me ?
Hope thou in God : for I shall yet
praise him,
Who is the health of my countenance,
and my God.

PSALM XLV.

My heart overfloweth with a goodly matter :
I speak the things which I have made touching the king :
My tongue is the pen of a ready writer.
Thou art fairer than the children of
men ;
Grace is poured into thy lips :

Therefore God hath blessed thee for ever.
Gird thy sword upon thy thigh, O
mighty one,
Thy glory and thy majesty.
And in thy majesty ride on prosper-
ously,
Because of truth and meekness and
righteousness :
And thy right hand shall teach thee
terrible things.
Thine arrows are sharp ;
The peoples fall under thee ;
They are in the heart of the king's enemies.
Thy throne, O God, is for ever and
ever :
A sceptre of equity is the sceptre of thy kingdom.
Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated wickedness :
Therefore God, thy God, hath anointed
thee
With the oil of gladness above thy fellows.
All thy garments smell of myrrh, and aloes, and cassia ;
Out of ivory palaces stringed instruments have made thee glad.
Kings' daughters are among thy honourable women :
At thy right hand doth stand the queen in gold of Ophir.
Hearken, O daughter, and consider,
and incline thine ear ;
Forget also thine own people, and thy father's house ;
So shall the king desire thy beauty :
For he is thy Lord ; and worship thou
him.
And the daughter of Tyre shall be
there with a gift ;
Even the rich among the people shall intreat thy favour.

The king's daughter within the palace is all glorious :

Her clothing is inwrought with gold.

She shall be led unto the king in broidered work :

The virgins her companions that follow her

Shall be brought unto thee.

With gladness and rejoicing shall they be led :

They shall enter into the king's palace.

Instead of thy fathers shall be thy children,

Whom thou shalt make princes in all
the earth.

I will make thy name to be remembered
in all generations :

Therefore shall the peoples give thee
thanks for ever and ever.

PSALM XLVI.

God is our refuge and strength,

A very present help in trouble.

Therefore will we not fear, though the earth do change,

And though the mountains be moved in the heart of the seas ;

Though the waters thereof roar and
be troubled,

Though the mountains shake with the swelling thereof.

There is a river, the streams whereof make glad the city of God,

The holy place of the tabernacles of
the Most High.

God is in the midst of her ; she shall not be moved :

God shall help her, and that right early.

The nations raged, the kingdoms were moved :

He uttered his voice, the earth melted.

The Lord of hosts is with us ;

The God of Jacob is our refuge.

Come, behold the works of the Lord,
What desolations he hath made in the earth.

He maketh wars to cease unto the end of the earth ;

He breaketh the bow, and cutteth
the spear in sunder ;

He burneth the chariots in the fire.

Be still, and know that I am God :

I will be exalted among the nations,

I will be exalted in the earth.

The Lord of hosts is with us :

The God of Jacob is our refuge.

PSALM XLVIII.

Great is the Lord, and highly to be praised,

In the city of our God, in his holy mountain.

Beautiful in elevation, the joy of the whole earth,

Is mount Zion, on the sides of the north,

The city of the great King.

God hath made himself known in her palaces for a refuge.

For, lo, the kings assembled themselves,

They passed by together.

They saw it, then were they amazed ;

They were dismayed, they hasted away.

Trembling took hold of them there ;

Pain, as of a woman in travail.

With the east wind

Thou breakest the ships of Tarshish.

As we have heard, so have we seen

In the city of the Lord of hosts, in the city of our God :

God will establish it for ever.

We have thought on thy lovingkind-
ness, O God,

In the midst of thy temple.

As is thy name, O God,
So is thy praise unto the ends of the
earth :

Thy right hand is full of righteousness.

Let mount Zion be glad,

Let the daughters of Judah rejoice,

Because of thy judgements.

Walk about Zion, and go round about her :

Tell the towers thereof.

Mark ye well her bulwarks,

Consider her palaces ;

That ye may tell it to the generation
following.

For this God is our God for ever and
ever :

He will be our guide even unto death.

PSALM LI.

Have mercy upon me, O God, according to thy lovingkindness :

According to the multitude of thy tender mercies blot out my transgressions.

Wash me thoroughly from mine iniquity,

And cleanse me from my sin.

For I acknowledge my transgressions :

And my sin is ever before me.

Against thee, thee only, have I sinned,
And done that which is evil in thy
sight :

That thou mayest be justified when thou speakest,

And be clear when thou judgest.

Behold, I was shapen in iniquity ;

And in sin did my mother conceive
me.

Behold, thou desirest truth in the inward parts :

And in the hidden part thou shalt make me to know wisdom.

Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean :

Wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

Make me to hear joy and gladness ;

That the bones which thou hast broken may rejoice.

Hide thy face from my sins,

And blot out all mine iniquities.

Create in me a clean heart, O God ;

And renew a right spirit within me.

Cast me not away from thy presence ;

And take not thy holy spirit from me.

Restore unto me the joy of thy salva-
tion :

And uphold me with a free spirit.

Then will I teach transgressors thy
ways ;

And sinners shall be converted unto
thee.

Deliver me from bloodguiltiness, O
God, thou God of my salvation ;

And my tongue shall sing aloud of thy righteousness.

O Lord, open thou my lips ;

And my mouth shall shew forth thy praise.

For thou delightest not in sacrifice ;
else would I give it :

Thou hast no pleasure in burnt offering.

The sacrifices of God are a broken
spirit :

A broken and a contrite heart, O God,
thou wilt not despise.

Do good in thy good pleasure unto
Zion :

Build thou the walls of Jerusalem.

Then shalt thou delight in the sacrifices of righteousness, in burnt offering and whole burnt offering :

Then shall they offer bullocks upon thine altar.

A SELECTION FROM PSALMS
LXI., LXII., LXIII.

Hear my cry, O God :

Attend unto my prayer.

From the end of the earth will I call unto thee, when my heart is overwhelmed :

Lead me to the rock that is higher than I.

For thou hast been a-refuge for me,
A strong tower from the enemy.

I will dwell in thy tabernacle for ever :

I will take refuge in the covert of thy wings.

For thou, O God, hast heard my vows :

Thou hast given me the heritage of those that fear thy name.

My soul waiteth only upon God :

From him cometh my salvation.

He only is my rock and my salvation :

He is my high tower ; I shall not be greatly moved.

My soul, wait thou only upon God ;

For my expectation is from him.

He only is my rock and my salvation :

He is my high tower ; I shall not be moved.

With God is my salvation and my
glory :

The rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God.

Trust in him at all times, ye people ;

Pour out your heart before him :

God is a refuge for us.

Surely men of low degree are vanity,
and men of high degree are a lie :

In the balances they will go up ;

They are together lighter than vanity.

Trust not in oppression,

And become not vain in robbery :

If riches increase, set not your heart thereon.

God hath spoken once,

Twice have I heard this ;

That power belongeth unto God :

Also unto thee, O Lord, belongeth
mercy :

For thou renderest to every man according to his work.

O God, thou art my God ; early will I seek thee :

My soul thirsteth for thee, my flesh
longeth for thee,

In a dry and weary land, where no water is.

So have I looked upon thee in the sanctuary,

To see thy power and thy glory.

For thy lovingkindness is better than
life ;

My lips shall praise thee.

So will I bless thee while I live :

I will lift up my hands in thy
name.

My soul shall be satisfied as with marrow and fatness ;

And my mouth shall praise thee with joyful lips ;

When I remember thee upon my bed,
And meditate on thee in the night watches.

For thou hast been my help,

And in the shadow of thy wings will I rejoice.

My soul followeth hard after thee :

Thy right hand upholdeth me.

A SELECTION FROM PSALMS
LXV., LXVI.

Praise waiteth for thee, O God, in
Zion :

And unto thee shall the vow be performed.

O thou that hearest prayer,

Unto thee shall all flesh come.

Iniquities prevail against me :

As for our transgressions, thou shalt purge them away.

Blessed is the man whom thou choosest, and causest to approach unto
thee,

That he may dwell in thy courts :

We shall be satisfied with the goodness of thy house,

The holy place of thy temple.

By terrible things thou wilt answer us in righteousness,

O God of our salvation ;

Thou that art the confidence of all the ends of the earth,

And of them that are afar off upon the sea :

Which by his strength setteth fast
the mountains ;

Being girded about with might :

Which stilleth the roaring of the seas,
the roaring of their waves,

And the tumult of the peoples.

They also that dwell in the utter-most parts are afraid at thy tokens :

Thou makest the outgoings of the morning and evening to rejoice.

Thou visitest the earth, and waterest
it,

Thou greatly enrichest it ;

The river of God is full of water :

Thou providest them corn, when thou hast so prepared the earth.

Thou waterest her furrows abundantly ;

Thou settlest the ridges thereof :

Thou makest it soft with showers ;

Thou blessest the springing thereof.

Thou crownest the year with thy goodness ;

And thy paths drop fatness.

They drop upon the pastures of the
wilderness :

And the hills are girded with joy.

The pastures are clothed with flocks ;
The valleys also are covered over with corn ;

They shout for joy, they also sing.

Make a joyful noise unto God, all the
earth :

Sing forth the glory of his name :

Make his praise glorious.

Say unto God, How terrible are thy works !

Through the greatness of thy power shall thine enemies submit themselves unto thee.

All the earth shall worship thee,

And shall sing unto thee ;

They shall sing to thy name.

Come, and see the works of God ;

He is terrible in his doing toward the
children of men.

He turned the sea into dry land :

They went through the river on foot :

There did we rejoice in him.

He ruleth by his might for ever ;

His eyes observe the nations :

Let not the rebellious exalt themselves.

O bless our God, ye peoples,

And make the voice of his praise to be
heard :

Which holdeth our soul in life,

And suffereth not our feet to be moved.

For thou, O God, hast proved us :

Thou hast tried us, as silver is tried.

Come, and hear, all ye that fear God,

And I will declare what he hath done for my soul.

I cried unto him with my mouth,

And he was extolled with my tongue.

If I regard iniquity in my heart,

The Lord will not hear :

But verily God hath heard ;

He hath attended to the voice of my prayer.

Blessed be God,
Which hath not turned away my prayer,
nor his mercy from me.

A SELECTION FROM PSALMS
LXVII., LXVIII., LXIX.

God be merciful unto us, and bless us,
And cause his face to shine upon us ;
That thy way may be known upon
earth.

Thy saving health among all nations.
Let the peoples praise thee, O God ;
Let all the peoples praise thee.

O let the nations be glad and sing for
joy :
For thou shalt judge the peoples with equity,

And govern the nations upon earth.
Let the peoples praise thee, O God ;
Let all the peoples praise thee.

The earth hath yielded her increase :
God, even our own God, shall bless us.
God shall bless us ;

And all the ends of the earth shall
fear him.

Sing unto God, sing praises to his
name :

Cast up a high way for him that rideth through the deserts ;
His name is JAH ; and exult ye before
him.

A father of the fatherless, and a judge of the widows,
Is God in his holy habitation.

God setteth the solitary in families :
He bringeth out the prisoners into prosperity :

But the rebellious dwell in a parched land.

O God, when thou wentest forth before
thy people,

When thou didst march through the
wilderness ;

The earth trembled,
The heavens also dropped at the presence of God :

Even yon Sinai trembled at the presence of God, the God of Israel.

Thou, O God, didst send a plentiful
rain,

Thou didst confirm thine inheritance,
when it was weary.

Thy congregation dwelt therein :

Thou, O God, didst prepare of thy goodness for the poor.

The Lord giveth the word :

The women that publish the tidings are a great host.

The chariots of God are twenty thousand, even thousands upon thousands :

The Lord is among them, as in Sinai,
in the sanctuary.

Thou hast ascended on high, thou hast led thy captivity captive ;

Thou hast received gifts among men,
Yea, among the rebellious also, that the Lord God might dwell with them.

Blessed be the Lord, who daily beareth
our burden,

Even the God who is our salvation.

God is unto us a God of deliverances ;
And unto Jehovah the Lord belong
the issues from death.

They have seen thy goings, O God,
Even the goings of my God, my King,
into the sanctuary.

The singers went before, the minstrels followed after,

In the midst of the damsels playing with timbrels.

Bless ye God in the congregations,

Even the Lord, ye that are of the fountain of Israel.

Sing unto God, ye kingdoms of the earth ;

O sing praises unto the Lord ;
To him that rideth upon the heavens of heavens, which are of old ;
Lo, he uttereth his voice, and that a mighty voice.

Ascribe ye strength unto God :
His excellency is over Israel,
And his strength is in the skies.

O God, thou art terrible out of thy holy places :

The God of Israel, he giveth strength and power unto his people.

BLESSED BE GOD.

I will praise the name of God with a song,

And will magnify him with thanksgiving.

And it shall please the Lord better than an ox,

Or a bullock that hath horns and hoofs.

The meek have seen it, and are glad :
Ye that seek after God, let your heart
live.

For the Lord heareth the needy,
And despiseth not his prisoners.

Let Heaven and earth praise him,
The seas, and every thing that moveth
therein.

For God will save Zion, and build the cities of Judah ;

And they shall abide there, and have it in possession.

The seed also of his servants shall inherit it :

And they that love his name shall dwell therein.

PSALM LXXII.

Give the king thy judgements, O God,
And thy righteousness unto the king's
son.

He shall judge thy people with righteousness,

And thy poor with judgement.
The mountains shall bring peace to the
people,

And the hills, in righteousness.

He shall judge the poor of the people,
He shall save the children of the needy,

And shall break in pieces the oppressor.

They shall fear thee while the sun
endureth,

And so long as the moon, throughout
all generations.

He shall come down like rain upon the mown grass :

As showers that water the earth.

In his days shall the righteous flourish ;

And abundance of peace, till the moon be no more.

He shall have dominion also from sea
to sea,

And from the River unto the ends of
the earth.

They that dwell in the wilderness shall bow before him ;

And his enemies shall lick the dust.

The kings of Tarshish and of the isles shall bring presents :

The kings of Sheba and Seba shall offer gifts.

Yea, all kings shall fall down before him:

All nations shall serve him.

For he shall deliver the needy when he crieth ;

And the poor, that hath no helper.

He shall have pity on the poor and
needy,

And the souls of the needy he shall save.

He shall redeem their soul from oppression and violence :

And precious shall their blood be in his sight :

And they shall live; and to him shall be given of the gold of Sheba :
And men shall pray for him continually ;
They shall bless him all the day long.
 There shall be abundance of corn in the earth upon the top of the mountains :
The fruit thereof shall shake like
Lebanon :
 And they of the city shall flourish like grass of the earth.
His name shall endure for ever ;
His name shall be continued as long as the sun :
 And men shall be blessed in him ;
All nations shall call him happy.
 Blessed be the Lord God, the God of Israel,
 Who only doeth wondrous things :
And blessed be his glorious name for
ever ;
And let the whole earth be filled with his glory.
 AMEN, AND AMEN.

PSALM LXXIII.

Surely God is good to Israel,
 Even to such as are pure in heart.
But as for me, my feet were almost gone ;
My steps had well nigh slipped.
 For I was envious at the arrogant,
 When I saw the prosperity of the wicked.
For there are no bands in their death :
But their strength is firm.
 They are not in trouble as other men ;
 Neither are they plagued like other
 men.
Therefore pride is as a chain about
their neck ;
Violence covereth them as a garment.

Their eyes stand out with fatness :
 They have more than heart could wish.
They scoff, and in wickedness utter oppression :
They speak loftily.
 They have set their mouth in the
 heavens,
 And their tongue walketh through the
 earth.
Therefore his people return hither :
And waters of a full cup are wrung
out by them.
 And they say, How doth God know ?
 And is there knowledge in the Most High ?
Behold, these are the wicked ;
And, being alway at ease, they in- crease in riches.
 Surely in vain have I cleansed my
 heart,
 And washed my hands in innocency ;
For all the day long have I been plagued,
And chastened every morning.
 If I had said, I will speak thus ;
 Behold, I had dealt treacherously with the generation of thy children.
When I thought how I might know
this,
It was too painful for me ;
 Until I went into the sanctuary of God,
 And considered their latter end.
Surely thou settest them in slippery
places :
Thou castest them down to destruc- tion.
 How are they become a desolation in a moment !
 They are utterly consumed with terrors.
As a dream when one awaketh ;
So, O Lord, when thou awakest, thou shalt despise their image.
 For my heart was grieved,
 And I was pricked in my reins :

So brutish was I, and ignorant ;
 I was as a beast before thee.
 Nevertheless I am continually with
 thee :
 Thou hast holden my right hand.
 Thou shalt guide me with thy counsel,
 And afterward receive me to glory.
 Whom have I in heaven but thee ?
 And there is none upon earth that I desire beside thee.
 My flesh and my heart faileth :
 But God is the strength of my heart and my portion for ever.
 For, lo, they that are far from thee shall perish :
 Thou hast destroyed all them that go a whoring from thee.
 But it is good for me to draw near unto God :
 I have made the Lord God my refuge,
 That I may tell of all thy works.

PSALM LXXVII.

I will cry unto God with my voice ;
 Even unto God with my voice, and he will give ear unto me.
 In the day of my trouble I sought the
 Lord :
 My hand was stretched out in the night, and slacked not ;
 My soul refused to be comforted.
 I remember God, and am disquieted :
 I complain, and my spirit is overwhelmed.
 Thou holdest mine eyes watching :
 I am so troubled that I cannot speak.
 I have considered the days of old,
 The years of ancient times.
 I call to remembrance my song in the
 night :
 I commune with mine own heart ;
 And my spirit made diligent search.

Will the Lord cast off for ever ?
 And will he be favourable no more ?
 Is his mercy clean gone for ever ?
 Doth his promise fail for evermore ?
 Hath God forgotten to be gracious ?
 Hath he in anger shut up his tender mercies ?
 And I said, This is my infirmity ;
 But I will remember the years of the right hand of the Most High.
 I will make mention of the deeds of
 the Lord ;
 For I will remember thy wonders of old.
 I will meditate also upon all thy work,
 And muse on thy doings.
 Thy way, O God, is in the sanctuary :
 Who is a great god like unto God ?
 Thou art the God that doest wonders :
 Thou hast made known thy strength
 among the peoples.
 Thou hast with thine arm redeemed
 thy people,
 The sons of Jacob and Joseph.
 The waters saw thee, O God ;
 The waters saw thee, they were afraid :
 The depths also trembled.
 The clouds poured out water ;
 The skies sent out a sound :
 Thine arrows also went abroad.
 The voice of thy thunder was in the whirlwind ;
 The lightnings lightened the world :
 The earth trembled and shook.
 Thy way was in the sea,
 And thy paths in the great waters,
 And thy footsteps were not known.
 Thou leddest thy people like a flock,
 By the hand of Moses and Aaron.

PSALM LXXXIV.

How amiable are thy tabernacles,
 O Lord of hosts !

My soul longeth, yea, even fainteth
for the courts of the Lord ;
My heart and my flesh cry out unto the living God.
Yea, the sparrow hath found her an
house,
And the swallow a nest for herself,
where she may lay her young,
Even thine altars, O Lord of hosts,
My King, and my God.
Blessed are they that dwell in thy
house :
They will be still praising thee.
Blessed is the man whose strength is
in thee ;
In whose heart are the high ways to Zion.
Passing through the valley of Weeping they make it a place of springs ;
Yea, the early rain covereth it with blessings.
They go from strength to strength,
Every one of them appeareth before
God in Zion.
O Lord God of hosts, hear my prayer :
Give ear, O God of Jacob.
Behold, O God our shield,
And look upon the face of thine anointed.
For a day in thy courts is better than a thousand.
I had rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God,
Than to dwell in the tents of wickedness.
For the Lord God is a sun and a shield :
The Lord will give grace and glory :
No good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly.
O LORD OF HOSTS,
BLESSED IS THE MAN THAT TRUSTETH
IN THEE.

PSALM LXXXV.

Lord, thou hast been favourable unto thy land :
Thou hast brought back the captivity
of Jacob.
Thou hast forgiven the iniquity of thy
people,
Thou hast covered all their sin.
Thou hast taken away all thy wrath :
Thou hast turned thyself from the fierceness of thine anger.
Turn us, O God of our salvation,
And cause thine indignation toward us to cease.
Wilt thou be angry with us for ever ?
Wilt thou draw out thine anger to
all generations ?
Wilt thou not quicken us again :
That thy people may rejoice in
thee ?
Shew us thy mercy, O Lord,
And grant us thy salvation.
I will hear what God the Lord will speak :
For he will speak peace unto his people, and to his saints :
But let them not turn again to folly.
Surely his salvation is nigh them that
fear him ;
That glory may dwell in our land.
Mercy and truth are met together ;
Righteousness and peace have kissed each other.
Truth springeth out of the earth ;
And righteousness hath looked down from heaven.
Yea, the Lord shall give that which is good ;
And our land shall yield her increase.
Righteousness shall go before him ;
And shall make his footsteps a way to walk in.

PSALM LXXXVI.

Bow down thine ear, O Lord, and answer me;

For I am poor and needy.

Preserve my soul; for I am godly:

O thou my God, save thy servant that trusteth in thee.

Be merciful unto me, O Lord;

For unto thee do I cry all the day long.

Rejoice the soul of thy servant;

For unto thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul.

For thou, Lord, art good, and ready to forgive,

And plenteous in mercy unto all them that call upon thee.

Give ear, O Lord, unto my prayer;

And hearken unto the voice of my supplications.

In the day of my trouble I will call upon thee;

For thou wilt answer me.

There is none like unto thee among the gods, O Lord;

Neither are there any works like unto thy works.

All nations whom thou hast made shall come and worship before thee, O
Lord;

And they shall glorify thy name.

For thou art great, and doest wondrous things:

Thou art God alone.

Teach me thy way, O Lord; I will walk in thy truth:

Unite my heart to fear thy name.

I will praise thee, O Lord my God,
with my whole heart;

And I will glorify thy name for ever-
more.

For great is thy mercy toward me;

And thou hast delivered my soul from the lowest pit.

O God, the proud are risen up against
me,

And the congregation of violent men have sought after my soul,

And have not set thee before them.

But thou, O Lord, art a God full of compassion and gracious,

Slow to anger, and plenteous in mercy and truth.

O turn unto me, and have mercy upon
me;

Give thy strength unto thy servant,

And save the son of thine handmaid.

Shew me a token for good;

That they which hate me may see it,
and be ashamed,

Because thou, Lord, hast holpen me,
and comforted me.

PSALM LXXXIX.

I will sing of the mercies of the Lord
for ever:

With my mouth will I make known thy faithfulness to all generations.

For I have said, Mercy shall be built up for ever;

Thy faithfulness shalt thou establish in the very heavens.

I have made a covenant with my chosen,

I have sworn unto David my servant;

Thy seed will I establish for ever,

And build up thy throne to all generations.

And the heavens shall praise thy wonders, O Lord;

Thy faithfulness also in the assembly of the holy ones.

For who in the skies can be compared unto the Lord?

Who among the sons of the mighty is like unto the Lord,

A God very terrible in the council of the holy ones,

And to be feared above all them that are round about him ?

O Lord God of hosts,
Who is a mighty one, like unto thee,
O JAH?

And thy faithfulness is round about
thee.

Thou rulest the pride of the sea :

When the waves thereof arise, thou stillest them.

Thou hast broken Rahab in pieces, as one that is slain ;

Thou hast scattered thine enemies with the arm of thy strength.

The heavens are thine, the earth also is thine :

The world and the fulness thereof,
thou hast founded them.

The north and the south, thou hast created them :

Tabor and Hermon rejoice in thy
name.

Thou hast a mighty arm :

Strong is thy hand, and high is thy right hand.

Righteousness and judgement are the foundation of thy throne :

Mercy and truth go before thy face.

Blessed is the people that know the joyful sound :

They walk, O Lord, in the light of thy countenance.

In thy name do they rejoice all the day :

And in thy righteousness are they exalted.

For thou art the glory of their strength :
And in thy favour our horn shall be exalted.

For our shield belongeth unto the Lord ;

And our king to the Holy One of Israel.

Then thou spakest in vision to thy saints,

And saidst, I have laid help upon one that is mighty ;

I have exalted one chosen out of the
people.

I have found David my servant ;

With my holy oil have I anointed
him :

With whom my hand shall be established ;

Mine arm also shall strengthen him.

The enemy shall not exact upon him ;

Nor the son of wickedness afflict him.

And I will beat down his adversaries
before him,

And smite them that hate him.

But my faithfulness and my mercy shall be with him ;

And in my name shall his horn be exalted.

I will set his hand also on the sea,

And his right hand on the rivers.

He shall cry unto me, Thou art my father,

My God, and the rock of my salvation.

I also will make him my firstborn,

The highest of the kings of the earth.

My mercy will I keep for him for ever-
more,

And my covenant shall stand fast with him.

His seed also will I make to endure
for ever.

And his throne as the days of heaven.

If his children forsake my law,

And walk not in my judgements ;

If they break my statutes,

And keep not my commandments ;

Then will I visit their transgression
with the rod,

And their iniquity with stripes.

But my mercy will I not utterly take from him,

Nor suffer my faithfulness to fail.

My covenant will I not break,

Nor alter the thing that is gone out of my lips.
Once have I sworn by my holiness ;
I will not lie unto David ;
His seed shall endure for ever,
And his throne as the sun before me.
It shall be established for ever as the moon,
And as the faithful witness in the sky.
BLESSED BE THE LORD FOR EVERMORE.
AMEN, AND AMEN.

PSALM XC.

Lord, thou hast been our dwelling place
In all generations.
Before the mountains were brought forth,
Or ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world,
Even from everlasting to everlasting,
thou art God.
Thou turnest man to destruction ;
And sayest, Return, ye children of
men.
For a thousand years in thy sight
Are but as yesterday when it is past,
And as a watch in the night.
Thou carriest them away as with a flood ; they are as a sleep :
In the morning they are like grass which groweth up.
In the morning it flourisheth, and
groweth up ;
In the evening it is cut down, and withereth.
For we are consumed in thine anger,
And in thy wrath are we troubled.
Thou hast set our iniquities before
thee,
Our secret sins in the light of thy countenance.

For all our days are passed away in thy wrath :
We bring our years to an end as a
tale that is told.
The days of our years are threescore years and ten,
Or even by reason of strength fourscore years ;
Yet is their pride but labour and sorrow ;
For it is soon gone, and we fly away.
Who knoweth the power of thine anger,
And thy wrath according to the fear that is due unto thee ?
So teach us to number our days,
That we may get us an heart of wisdom.
Return, O Lord ; how long ?
And let it repent thee concerning thy servants.
O satisfy us in the morning with thy
mercy ;
That we may rejoice and be glad all our days.
Make us glad according to the days
wherein thou hast afflicted us,
And the years wherein we have seen evil.
Let thy work appear unto thy servants,
And thy glory upon their children.
And let the beauty of the Lord our God be upon us :
And establish thou the work of our hands upon us ;
Yea, the work of our hands establish thou it.

PSALM XCI.

He that dwelleth in the secret place of
the Most High
Shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress ;
 My God, in whom I trust.
 For he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler,
 And from the noisome pestilence.
He shall cover thee with his pinions,
 And under his wings shalt thou take refuge :
 His truth is a shield and a buckler.
Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night,
 Nor for the arrow that flieth by day ;
 For the pestilence that walketh in
 darkness,
 Nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday.
A thousand shall fall at thy side,
 And ten thousand at thy right hand ;
 But it shall not come nigh thee.
 Only with thine eyes shalt thou behold,
And see the reward of the wicked.
 For thou, O Lord, art my refuge !
Thou hast made the Most High thy habitation ;
 There shall no evil befall thee,
 Neither shall any plague come nigh thy tent.
For he shall give his angels charge
 over thee,
 To keep thee in all thy ways.
 They shall bear thee up in their hands,
 Lest thou dash thy foot against a stone.
Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder :
 The young lion and the serpent shalt thou trample under feet.
Because he hath set his love upon me,
 therefore will I deliver him :
 I will set him on high, because he hath known my name.
He shall call upon me, and I will answer him ;
 I will be with him in trouble :

I will deliver him, and honour him.
 With long life will I satisfy him,
And shew him my salvation.

PSALM XCII.

It is a good thing to give thanks unto
 the Lord,
And to sing praises unto thy name,
 O Most High :
 To shew forth thy lovingkindness in the morning,
And thy faithfulness every night,
 With an instrument of ten strings, and with the psaltery ;
With a solemn sound upon the harp.
 For thou, Lord, hast made me glad through thy work :
I will triumph in the works of thy hands.
 How great are thy works, O Lord !
 Thy thoughts are very deep.
A brutish man knoweth not ;
 Neither doth a fool understand this :
 When the wicked spring as the grass,
 And when all the workers of iniquity
 do flourish ;
It is that they shall be destroyed for ever :
But thou, O Lord, art on high for evermore.
 For, lo, thine enemies, O Lord,
 For, lo, thine enemies shall perish ;
All the workers of iniquity shall be scattered.
 But my horn hast thou exalted like the horn of the wild-ox :
I am anointed with fresh oil.
 Mine eye also hath seen my desire on mine enemies,
Mine ears have heard my desire of the evil-doers that rise up against
 me.

The righteous shall flourish like the palm tree :

He shall grow like a cedar in Lebanon.
They that are planted in the house of the Lord

Shall flourish in the courts of our God.

They shall still bring forth fruit in old age ;

They shall be full of sap and green :
To shew that the Lord is upright ;
He is my rock, and there is no unrighteousness in him.

PSALM XCIII.

The Lord reigneth : he is apparelled with majesty ;

The Lord is apparelled, he hath girded himself with strength :

The world also is stablished, that it cannot be moved.

Thy throne is established of old :

Thou art from everlasting.

The floods have lifted up, O Lord,

The floods have lifted up their voice ;

The floods lift up their waves.

Above the voices of many waters,

The mighty breakers of the sea,

The Lord on high is mighty.

Thy testimonies are very sure :

Holiness becometh thine house,

O Lord, for evermore.

PSALM XCV.

O come, let us sing unto the Lord :

Let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation.

Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving,

Let us make a joyful noise unto him with psalms.

For the Lord is a great God,

And a great King above all gods.

In his hand are the deep places of the earth ;

The heights of the mountains are his also.

The sea is his, and he made it ;

And his hands formed the dry land.

O come, let us worship and bow down ;

Let us kneel before the Lord our Maker :

For he is our God,

And we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand.

To-day, Oh that ye would hear his voice !

Harden not your heart, as at Meribah,
As in the day of Massah in the wilderness :

When your fathers tempted me,

Proved me, and saw my work.

Forty years long was I grieved with that generation,

And said, It is a people that do err in their heart,

And they have not known my ways :

Wherefore I sware in my wrath,

That they should not enter into my rest.

PSALM XCVI.

O sing unto the Lord a new song :

Sing unto the Lord, all the earth.

Sing unto the Lord, bless his name ;

Shew forth his salvation from day to day.

Declare his glory among the nations,

His marvellous works among all the peoples.

For great is the Lord, and highly to be praised :

He is to be feared above all gods.

For all the gods of the peoples are idols :

But the Lord made the heavens.

Honour and majesty are before him :

Strength and beauty are in his sanctuary.

Give unto the Lord, ye kindreds of the peoples,

Give unto the Lord glory and
strength.

Give unto the Lord the glory due unto
his name :

Bring an offering, and come into his courts.

O worship the Lord in the beauty of
holiness :

Tremble before him, all the earth.

Say among the nations, The Lord
reigneth :

The world also is stablished that it cannot be moved :

He shall judge the peoples with equity.

Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice ;

Let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof ;

Let the field exult, and all that is
therein ;

Then shall all the trees of the wood sing for joy ;

Before the Lord, for he cometh ;

For he cometh to judge the earth :

He shall judge the world with righteousness,

And the peoples with his truth.

PSALM XCVII.

The Lord reigneth ; let the earth rejoice ;

Let the multitude of isles be glad.

Clouds and darkness are round about
him :

Righteousness and judgement are the foundation of his throne.

A fire goeth before him,

And burneth up his adversaries round about.

His lightnings lightened the world :
The earth saw, and trembled.

The hills melted like wax at the presence of the Lord,

At the presence of the Lord of the
whole earth.

The heavens declare his righteousness,

And all the peoples have seen his glory.

Ashamed be all they that serve graven
images,

That boast themselves of idols :

Worship him, all ye gods.

Zion heard and was glad,

And the daughters of Judah rejoiced ;

Because of thy judgements, O Lord.

For thou, Lord, art most high above
all the earth :

Thou art exalted far above all gods.

O ye that love the Lord, hate evil :

He preserveth the souls of his saints ;

He delivereth them out of the hand of the wicked.

Light is sown for the righteous,

And gladness for the upright in heart.

Be glad in the Lord, ye righteous ;

And give thanks to his holy name.

PSALM XCVIII.

O sing unto the Lord a new song ;

For he hath done marvellous things :

His right hand, and his holy arm,
hath wrought salvation for him.

The Lord hath made known his salva-
tion :

His righteousness hath he openly shewed in the sight of the nations.

He hath remembered his mercy and his faithfulness toward the house of Israel :

All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.

Make a joyful noise unto the Lord, all
the earth :

Break forth and sing for joy, yea,
sing praises.

Sing praises unto the Lord with the
harp ;

With the harp and the voice of melody.

With trumpets and sound of cornet

Make a joyful noise before the King,
the Lord.

Let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof :

The world, and they that dwell therein ;

Let the floods clap their hands ;

Let the hills sing for joy together ;

Before the Lord, for he cometh to judge
the earth :

He shall judge the world with righteousness,

And the peoples with equity.

PSALM XCIX.

The Lord reigneth ; let the peoples
tremble :

He sitteth upon the cherubim ; let the earth be moved.

The Lord is great in Zion ;

And he is high above all the peoples.

Let them praise thy great and terrible
name :

Holy is he.

The king's strength also loveth judgement ;

Thou dost establish equity,

Thou executest judgement and righteousness in Jacob.

Exalt ye the Lord our God,

And worship at his footstool :

Holy is he.

Moses and Aaron among his priests,

And Samuel among them that call upon
his name ;

They called upon the Lord, and he answered them.

He spake unto them in the pillar of cloud :

They kept his testimonies, and the statute that he gave them.

Thou answeredst them, O Lord our
God :

Thou wast a God that forgavest them,
Though thou tookest vengeance of their doings.

Exalt ye the Lord our God,

And worship at his holy hill ;

FOR THE LORD OUR GOD IS HOLY.

PSALM C.

Make a joyful noise unto the Lord, all ye lands.

Serve the Lord with gladness :

Come before his presence with singing.

Know ye that the Lord he is God :

It is he that hath made us, and we are his ;

We are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

Enter into his gates with thanksgiving,

And into his courts with praise :

Give thanks unto him, and bless his
name.

For the Lord is good ; his mercy endureth for ever ;

AND HIS FAITHFULNESS UNTO ALL GENERATIONS.

PSALM CIII.

Bless the Lord, O my soul ;

And all that is within me, bless his holy name.

Bless the Lord, O my soul,
And forget not all his benefits :
 Who forgiveth all thine iniquities ;
Who healeth all thy diseases ;
 Who redeemeth thy life from destruction ;

Who crowneth thee with lovingkindness and tender mercies :
 Who satisfieth thy mouth with good things ;

So that thy youth is renewed like the eagle.

The Lord executeth righteous acts,
And judgements for all that are oppressed.

He made known his ways unto Moses,
His doings unto the children of Israel.

The Lord is full of compassion and gracious,

Slow to anger, and plenteous in mercy.
He will not always chide ;

Neither will he keep his anger for ever.

He hath not dealt with us after our sins,

Nor rewarded us after our iniquities.

For as the heaven is high above the earth,

So great is his mercy toward them that fear him.

As far as the east is from the west,
 So far hath he removed our transgressions from us.

Like as a father pitieth his children,
So the Lord pitieth them that fear him.

For he knoweth our frame ;
He remembereth that we are dust.

As for man, his days are as grass ;
 As a flower of the field, so he flourisheth.

For the wind passeth over it, and it is gone ;

And the place thereof shall know it no more.

But the mercy of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear him,

And his righteousness unto children's children ;

To such as keep his covenant,
 And to those that remember his precepts to do them.

The Lord hath established his throne in the heavens ;

And his kingdom ruleth over all.

Bless the Lord, ye angels of his :

Ye mighty in strength, that fulfil his word,

Hearkening unto the voice of his word.

Bless the Lord, all ye his hosts ;

Ye ministers of his, that do his pleasure.

Bless the Lord, all ye his works,

In all places of his dominion :

Bless the Lord, O my soul.

PSALM CIV.

Bless the Lord, O my soul.

O Lord my God, thou art very great ;
 Thou art clothed with honour and majesty.

Who coverest thyself with light as with a garment ;

Who stretchest out the heavens like a curtain :

Who layeth the beams of his chambers in the waters ;

Who maketh the clouds his chariot ;

Who walketh upon the wings of the wind :

Who maketh winds his messengers ;
 His ministers a flaming fire :

Who laid the foundations of the earth,
 That it should not be moved for ever.

Thou coveredst it with the deep as
with a vesture ;
The waters stood above the mountains.

At thy rebuke they fled ;

At the voice of thy thunder they hasted away ;

They went up by the mountains, they went down by the valleys,
Unto the place which thou hadst
founded for them.

Thou hast set a bound that they may not pass over ;

That they turn not again to cover
the earth.

He sendeth forth springs into the valleys ;

They run among the mountains :

They give drink to every beast of the field.

The wild asses quench their thirst.

By them the fowl of the heaven have their habitation,

They sing among the branches.

He watereth the mountains from his chambers :

The earth is satisfied with the fruit of thy works.

He causeth the grass to grow for the cattle,

And herb for the service of man ;

That he may bring forth food out of
the earth :

And wine that maketh glad the heart
of man,

And oil to make his face to shine,

And bread that strengtheneth man's
heart.

The trees of the Lord are satisfied ;

The cedars of Lebanon, which he hath planted ;

Where the birds make their nests :

As for the stork, the fir trees are her
house.

The high mountains are for the wild goats ;

The rocks are a refuge for the conies.

He appointed the moon for seasons :

The sun knoweth his going down.

Thou makest darkness, and it is night ;

Wherein all the beasts of the forest do creep forth.

The young lions roar after their prey,
And seek their meat from God.

The sun ariseth, they get them away,

And lay them down in their dens.

Man goeth forth unto his work

And to his labour until the evening.

O Lord, how manifold are thy works !

In wisdom hast thou made them all :

The earth is full of thy riches.

Yonder is the sea, great and wide,

Wherein are things creeping innumerable,

Both small and great beasts.

There go the ships ;

There is leviathan, whom thou hast formed to take his pastime therein.

These wait all upon thee,

That thou mayest give them their meat
in due season.

That thou givest unto them they gather ;

Thou openest thine hand, they are satisfied with good.

Thou hidest thy face, they are troubled ;

Thou takest away their breath, they die,

And return to their dust.

Thou sendest forth thy spirit, they are created ;

And thou renewest the face of the ground.

Let the glory of the Lord endure for
ever ;

Let the Lord rejoice in his works :

Who looketh on the earth, and it
trembleth ;

He toucheth the mountains, and they smoke.

I will sing unto the Lord as long as I live.

I will sing praise to my God while I have any being.

Let my meditation be sweet unto him :

I will rejoice in the Lord.

Let sinners be consumed out of the
earth,

And let the wicked be no more.

Bless the Lord, O my soul.

Praise ye the Lord.

PSALM CVII.

O give thanks unto the Lord ; for he is good :

For his mercy endureth for ever.

Let the redeemed of the Lord say so,
Whom he hath redeemed from the hand of the adversary ;

And gathered them out of the lands,
From the east and from the west,
From the north and from the south.

They wandered in the wilderness in a desert way ;

They found no city of habitation.

Hungry and thirsty,
Their soul fainted in them.

Then they cried unto the Lord in their trouble,

And he delivered them out of their distresses.

He led them also by a straight way,
That they might go to a city of habita-
tion.

Oh that men would praise the Lord
for his goodness,

And for his wonderful works to the
children of men !

For he satisfieth the longing soul,
And the hungry soul he filleth with
good.

Such as sat in darkness and in the shadow of death,

Being bound in affliction and iron ;

Because they rebelled against the words of God,

And contemned the counsel of the Most High :

Therefore he brought down their heart with labour ;

They fell down, and there was none
to help.

Then they cried unto the Lord in their
trouble,

And he saved them out of their distresses.

He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death,

And brake their bands in sunder.

Oh that men would praise the Lord for
his goodness,

And for his wonderful works to the
children of men !

For he hath broken the gates of brass,

And cut the bars of iron in sunder.

Fools because of their transgression,
And because of their iniquities, are afflicted.

Their soul abhorreth all manner of meat ;

And they draw near unto the gates of death.

Then they cry unto the Lord in their
trouble,

And he saveth them out of their dis-
tresses.

He sendeth his word, and healeth
them,

And delivereth them from their destructions.

Oh that men would praise the Lord for
his goodness,

And for his wonderful works to the
children of men !

And let them offer the sacrifices of
 thanksgiving,
 And declare his works with singing.
 They that go down to the sea in ships,
 That do business in great waters ;
 These see the works of the Lord,
 And his wonders in the deep.
 For he commandeth, and raiseth the stormy wind,
 Which lifteth up the waves thereof.
 They mount up to the heaven, they go down again to the depths :
 Their soul melteth away because of
 trouble.
 They reel to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man,
 And are at their wits' end.
 Then they cry unto the Lord in their
 trouble,
 And he bringeth them out of their
 distresses.
 He maketh the storm a calm,
 So that the waves thereof are still.
 Then are they glad because they be quiet ;
 So he bringeth them unto the haven
 where they would be.
 Oh that men would praise the Lord for
 his goodness,
 And for his wonderful works to the
 children of men !
 Let them exalt him also in the assembly of the people,
 And praise him in the seat of the elders.
 He turneth rivers into a wilderness,
 And watersprings into a thirsty ground ;
 A fruitful land into a salt desert,
 For the wickedness of them that
 dwell therein.
 He turneth a wilderness into a pool of water,
 And a dry land into watersprings.

And there he maketh the hungry to dwell,
 That they may prepare a city of habitation ;
 And sow fields, and plant vineyards,
 And get them fruits of increase.
 He blesseth them also, so that they are multiplied greatly ;
 And he suffereth not their cattle to decrease.
 Again, they are minished and bowed
 down
 Through oppression, trouble, and sorrow.
 He poureth contempt upon princes,
 And causeth them to wander in the waste, where there is no way.
 Yet setteth he the needy on high from affliction,
 And maketh him families like a flock.
 The upright shall see it, and be glad ;
 And all iniquity shall stop her mouth.
 Whoso is wise shall give heed to these things,
 And they shall consider the mercies of
 the Lord.

PSALM CXI.

Praise ye the Lord.
 I will give thanks unto the Lord
 with my whole heart,
 In the council of the upright, and in the congregation.
 The works of the Lord are great,
 Sought out of all them that have pleasure therein.
 His work is honour and majesty :
 And his righteousness endureth for
 ever.
 He hath made his wonderful works
 to be remembered :
 The Lord is gracious and full of compassion.

He hath given meat unto them that
fear him :

He will ever be mindful of his covenant.

He hath shewed his people the power of his works,

In giving them the heritage of the nations.

The works of his hands are truth and judgement ;

All his precepts are sure.

They are established for ever and ever,
They are done in truth and uprightness.

He hath sent redemption unto his
people ;

He hath commanded his covenant for
ever :

Holy and reverend is his name.

The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom ;

A good understanding have all they
that do thereafter :

His praise endureth for ever.

PSALM CXII.

Praise ye the Lord.

Blessed is the man that feareth the
Lord,

That delighteth greatly in his commandments.

His seed shall be mighty upon earth ;

The generation of the upright shall be blessed.

Wealth and riches are in his house :

And his righteousness endureth for
ever.

Unto the upright there ariseth light in the darkness :

He is gracious, and full of compassion, and righteous.

Well is it with the man that dealeth
graciously and lendeth ;

He shall maintain his cause in judgement.

For he shall never be moved ;

The righteous shall be had in everlasting remembrance.

He shall not be afraid of evil tidings :

His heart is fixed, trusting in the
Lord.

His heart is established, he shall not be afraid,

Until he see his desire upon his adversaries.

He hath dispersed, he hath given to the needy ;

His righteousness endureth for ever :

His horn shall be exalted with honour.

The wicked shall see it, and be grieved ;

He shall gnash with his teeth, and melt away :

The desire of the wicked shall perish.

PSALM CXV.

Not unto us, O Lord, not unto us,

But unto thy name give glory,

For thy mercy, and for thy truth's sake.

Wherefore should the nations say,

Where is now their God ?

But our God is in the heavens :

He hath done whatsoever he pleased.

Their idols are silver and gold,

The work of men's hands.

They have mouths, but they speak
not ;

Eyes have they, but they see not ;

They have ears, but they hear not ;

Noses have they, but they smell not ;

They have hands, but they handle
not ;

Feet have they, but they walk not ;

Neither speak they through their throat.

They that make them shall be like unto
them :

Yea, every one that trusteth in them.

O Israel, trust thou in the Lord :
He is their help and their shield.

O house of Aaron, trust ye in the Lord :
He is their help and their shield.

Ye that fear the Lord, trust in the
Lord :

He is their help and their shield.

The Lord hath been mindful of us ;
he will bless us :

He will bless the house of Israel ;

He will bless the house of Aaron.

He will bless them that fear the Lord,
Both small and great.

The Lord increase you more and more,
You and your children.

Blessed are ye of the Lord,
Which made heaven and earth.

The heavens are the heavens of the
Lord :

But the earth hath he given to the
children of men.

The dead praise not the Lord,
Neither any that go down into silence ;

But we will bless the Lord
From this time forth and for ever-
more.

PRAISE YE THE LORD.

PSALM CXVI.

I love the Lord, because he hath heard
My voice and my supplications.

Because he hath inclined his ear unto
me,

Therefore will I call upon him as long as I live.

The cords of death compassed me,
And the pains of Sheol gat hold upon
me :

I found trouble and sorrow.

Then called I upon the name of the
Lord ;

O Lord, I beseech thee, deliver my soul.

Gracious is the Lord, and righteous ;
Yea, our God is merciful.

The Lord preserveth the simple :

I was brought low, and he saved me.

Return unto thy rest, O my soul ;
For the Lord hath dealt bountifully with thee.

For thou hast delivered my soul from
death,

Mine eyes from tears,

And my feet from falling.

I will walk before the Lord
In the land of the living.

I believe, for I will speak :

I was greatly afflicted :

I said in my haste,
All men are a lie.

What shall I render unto the Lord
For all his benefits toward me ?

I will take the cup of salvation,
And call upon the name of the Lord.

I will pay my vows unto the Lord,
Yea, in the presence of all his people.

Precious in the sight of the Lord
Is the death of his saints.

O Lord, truly I am thy servant :

I am thy servant, the son of thine
handmaid ;

Thou hast loosed my bonds.

I will offer to thee the sacrifice of
thanksgiving,

And will call upon the name of the
Lord.

I will pay my vows unto the Lord,

Yea, in the presence of all his people ;

In the courts of the Lord's house,

In the midst of thee, O Jerusalem.

PRAISE YE THE LORD.

PSALM CXVIII.

O give thanks unto the Lord ; for he is good :

For his mercy endureth for ever

Let Israel now say,
That his mercy endureth for ever.
 Let the house of Aaron now say,
That his mercy endureth for ever.
 Let them now that fear the Lord say,
That his mercy endureth for ever.
 Out of my distress I called upon the
 Lord :
 The Lord answered me and set me in a large place.
The Lord is on my side ; I will not fear :
What can man do unto me ?
 It is better to trust in the Lord
 Than to put confidence in man.
It is better to trust in the Lord
Than to put confidence in princes.
 The Lord is my strength and song ;
And he is become my salvation.
 The voice of rejoicing and salvation is in the tents of the righteous :
The right hand of the Lord doeth
valiantly.
 The right hand of the Lord is exalted :
The right hand of the Lord doeth
valiantly.
 I shall not die, but live,
 And declare the works of the Lord.
The Lord hath chastened me sore :
But he hath not given me over unto
death.
 Open to me the gates of righteousness :
 I will enter into them, I will give thanks
 unto the Lord.
This is the gate of the Lord ;
The righteous shall enter into it.
 I will give thanks unto thee, for thou hast answered me,
 And art become my salvation.
The stone which the builders rejected
Is become the head of the corner.
 This is the Lord's doing ;
 It is marvellous in our eyes.

This is the day which the Lord hath
made ;
We will rejoice and be glad in it.
 Save now, we beseech thee, O Lord :
O Lord, we beseech thee, send now
prosperity.
 Blessed be he that cometh in the name
 of the Lord :
We have blessed you out of the house
of the Lord.

PSALM CXIX.

Wherewithal shall a young man cleanse
 his way ?
By taking heed thereto according to
thy word.
 With my whole heart have I sought
 thee :
O let me not wander from thy com-
mandments.
 Thy word have I laid up in mine
 heart,
 That I might not sin against thee.
Blessed art thou, O Lord :
Teach me thy statutes.
 With my lips have I declared
 All the judgements of thy mouth.
I have rejoiced in the way of thy testimonies,
As much as in all riches.
 I will meditate in thy precepts,
 And have respect unto thy ways.
I will delight myself in thy statutes :
I will not forget thy word.
 Deal bountifully with thy servant, that I may live ;
 So will I observe thy word.
Open thou mine eyes, that I may be- hold
Wondrous things out of thy law.
 I am a sojourner in the earth :
 Hide not thy commandments from me.

My soul breaketh for the longing
That it hath unto thy judgements at all times.

Thou hast rebuked the proud that are cursed,

Which do wander from thy commandments.

Take away from me reproach and contempt ;

For I have kept thy testimonies.

Teach me, O Lord, the way of thy statutes ;

And I shall keep it unto the end.

Give me understanding, and I shall keep thy law ;

Yea, I shall observe it with my whole
heart.

Make me to go in the path of thy commandments ;

For therein do I delight.

Incline my heart unto thy testimonies,

And not to covetousness.

Turn away mine eyes from beholding
vanity,

And quicken me in thy ways.

Confirm thy word unto thy servant,

Which belongeth unto the fear of
thee.

Turn away my reproach whereof I am afraid ;

For thy judgements are good.

Behold, I have longed after thy precepts :

Quicken me in thy righteousness.

Thou hast dealt well with thy servant,

O Lord, according unto thy word.

Teach me good judgement and knowledge ;

For I have believed in thy commandments.

Before I was afflicted I went astray ;

But now I observe thy word.

Thou art good, and doest good ;

Teach me thy statutes.

It is good for me that I have been
afflicted ;

That I might learn thy statutes.

The law of thy mouth is better unto
me

Than thousands of gold and silver.

Thy hands have made me and fashioned me :

Give me understanding, that I may learn thy commandments.

They that fear thee shall see me and be glad ;

Because I have hoped in thy word.

I know, O Lord, that thy judgements are righteous,

And that in faithfulness thou hast afflicted me.

Let, I pray thee, thy lovingkindness be for my comfort,

According to thy word unto thy servant.

Let thy tender mercies come unto me,
that I may live :

For thy law is my delight.

Let the proud be ashamed ; for they have overthrown me wrongfully :

But I will meditate in thy precepts.

Let those that fear thee turn unto
me,

And they shall know thy testimonies.

Let my heart be perfect in thy statutes ;

That I be not ashamed.

For ever, O Lord,

Thy word is settled in heaven.

Thy faithfulness is unto all generations :

Thou hast established the earth, and it abideth.

They abide this day according to thine ordinances ;

For all things are thy servants.

Unless thy law had been my delight,
I should then have perished in mine
affliction.

I will never forget thy precepts ;
For with them thou hast quickened me.

I am thine, save me ;

For I have sought thy precepts.

The wicked have waited for me to destroy me ;

But I will consider thy testimonies.

I have seen an end of all perfection ;

But thy commandment is exceeding broad.

Oh how I love thy law !

It is my meditation all the day.

Thy commandments make me wiser than mine enemies ;

For they are ever with me.

I have more understanding than all my teachers ;

For thy testimonies are my meditation.

I understand more than the aged,

Because I have kept thy precepts.

I have refrained my feet from every evil way,

That I might observe thy word.

I have not turned aside from thy judgements ;

For thou hast taught me.

How sweet are thy words unto my taste !

Yea, sweeter than honey to my mouth !

Through thy precepts I get understanding ;

Therefore I hate every false way.

Thy word is a lamp unto my feet,

And light unto my path.

I have sworn, and have confirmed it,
That I will observe thy righteous
judgements.

I am afflicted very much :

Quicken me, O Lord, according unto
thy word.

Accept, I beseech thee, the freewill offerings of my mouth, O Lord,
And teach me thy judgements.

My soul is continually in my hand ;

Yet do I not forget thy law.

The wicked have laid a snare for me ;

Yet went I not astray from thy precepts.

Thy testimonies have I taken as an heritage for ever ;

For they are the rejoicing of my heart.

I have inclined mine heart to perform
thy statutes,

For ever, even unto the end.

PSALM CXXI.

I will lift up mine eyes unto the mountains :

From whence shall my help come ?

My help cometh from the Lord,

Which made heaven and earth.

He will not suffer thy foot to be moved :

He that keepeth thee will not slumber.

Behold, he that keepeth Israel

Shall neither slumber nor sleep.

The Lord is thy keeper :

The Lord is thy shade upon thy right
hand.

The sun shall not smite thee by day,

Nor the moon by night.

The Lord shall keep thee from all evil ;

He shall keep thy soul.

The Lord shall keep thy going out and thy coming in,

From this time forth and for ever-
more.

PSALM CXXII.

I was glad when they said unto me,

Let us go unto the house of the Lord.

Our feet are standing

Within thy gates, O Jerusalem ;

Jerusalem, that art builded
 As a city that is compact together :
 Whither the tribes go up, even the tribes of the Lord,
 For a testimony unto Israel,
 To give thanks unto the name of the
 Lord.
 For there are set thrones for judgement,
 The thrones of the house of David.
 Pray for the peace of Jerusalem :
 They shall prosper that love thee.
 Peace be within thy walls,
 And prosperity within thy palaces.
 For my brethren and companions'
 sakes,
 I will now say, Peace be within thee.
 For the sake of the house of the Lord
 our God
 I will seek thy good.

PSALM CXXV.

They that trust in the Lord
 Are as mount Zion, which cannot be moved, but abideth for ever.
 As the mountains are round about
 Jerusalem,
 So the Lord is round about his people,
 From this time forth and for ever-
 more.
 For the sceptre of wickedness shall not rest upon the lot of the righteous ;
 That the righteous put not forth their hands unto iniquity.
 Do good, O Lord, unto those that be
 good,
 And to them that are upright in their hearts.
 But as for such as turn aside unto their crooked ways,
 The Lord shall lead them forth with the workers of iniquity.
 Peace be upon Israel.

PSALM CXXVI.

When the Lord turned again the captivity of Zion,
 We were like unto them that dream.
 Then was our mouth filled with laughter,
 And our tongue with singing :
 Then said they among the nations,
 The Lord hath done great things for
 them.
 The Lord hath done great things
 for us ;
 Whereof we are glad.
 Turn again our captivity, O Lord,
 As the streams in the South.
 They that sow in tears shall reap in
 joy.
 Though he goeth on his way weeping,
 bearing forth the seed ;
 He shall come again with joy, bringing his sheaves with him.

PSALM CXXX.

Out of the depths have I cried unto thee, O Lord.
 Lord, hear my voice :
 Let thine ears be attentive
 To the voice of my supplications.
 If thou, Lord, shouldest mark iniquities,
 O Lord, who shall stand ?
 But there is forgiveness with thee,
 That thou mayest be feared.
 I wait for the Lord, my soul doth wait,
 And in his word do I hope.
 My soul looketh for the Lord,
 More than watchmen look for the morning ;
 Yea, more than watchmen for the morning.
 O Israel, hope in the Lord ;
 For with the Lord there is mercy,
 And with him is plenteous redemption.

And he shall redeem Israel
From all his iniquities.

PSALM CXXXIII.

Behold, how good and how pleasant
it is

For brethren to dwell together in unity !

It is like the precious oil upon the head,

That ran down upon the beard,

Even Aaron's beard ;

That came down upon the skirt of his garments ;

Like the dew of Hermon,

That cometh down upon the mountains of Zion :

For there the Lord commanded the blessing,

Even life for evermore.

PSALM CXXXV.

Praise ye the Lord.

Praise ye the name of the Lord ;

Praise him, O ye servants of the Lord :

Ye that stand in the house of the
Lord,

In the courts of the house of our God.

Praise ye the Lord ; for the Lord is
good :

Sing praises unto his name ; for it is pleasant.

For the Lord hath chosen Jacob unto himself,

And Israel for his peculiar treasure.

For I know that the Lord is great,

And that our Lord is above all gods.

Whatsoever the Lord pleased, that hath
he done,

In heaven and in earth, in the seas and in all deeps.

He causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth ;

He maketh lightnings for the rain ;

He bringeth forth the wind out of his treasuries.

Ye that fear the Lord, bless ye the
Lord.

Blessed be the Lord out of Zion,
Who dwelleth at Jerusalem.

PRaise ye the Lord.

PSALM CXXXVIII.

I will give thee thanks with my whole
heart :

Before the gods will I sing praises unto
thee.

I will worship toward thy holy temple,

And give thanks unto thy name for thy lovingkindness and for thy truth :

For thou hast magnified thy word above
all thy name.

In the day that I called thou an-sweredst me,

Thou didst encourage me with strength in my soul.

All the kings of the earth shall give thee thanks, O Lord,

For they have heard the words of thy
mouth.

Yea, they shall sing of the ways of
the Lord ;

For great is the glory of the Lord.

For though the Lord be high, yet hath he respect unto the lowly :

But the haughty he knoweth from afar.

Though I walk in the midst of trouble,
thou wilt revive me ;

Thou shalt stretch forth thine hand against the wrath of mine enemies,

And thy right hand shall save me.

The Lord will perfect that which con-
cerneth me :

Thy mercy, O Lord, endureth for ever ;
 Forsake not the works of thine own hands.

PSALM CXXXIX.

O Lord, thou hast searched me, and known me.

Thou knowest my downsitting and mine uprising,

Thou understandest my thought afar off.

Thou searchest out my path and my lying down,

And art acquainted with all my ways.

For there is not a word in my tongue,
 But, lo, O Lord, thou knowest it altogether.

Thou hast beset me behind and before,
 And laid thine hand upon me.

Such knowledge is too wonderful for
 me ;

It is high, I cannot attain unto it.

Whither shall I go from thy spirit ?

Or whither shall I flee from thy presence ?

If I ascend up into heaven, thou art
 there :

If I make my bed in Sheol, behold,
 thou art there.

If I take the wings of the morning,
 And dwell in the uttermost parts of
 the sea ;

Even there shall thy hand lead me,
 And thy right hand shall hold me.

If I say, Surely the darkness shall overwhelm me,

And the light about me shall be
 night ;

Even the darkness hideth not from
 thee,

But the night shineth as the day :

The darkness and the light are both alike to thee.

For thou hast possessed my reins :
 Thou hast covered me in my mother's womb.

I will give thanks unto thee ; for I am fearfully and wonderfully
 made :

Wonderful are thy works ;

And that my soul knoweth right well.

My frame was not hidden from thee,

When I was made in secret,

And curiously wrought in the lowest parts of the earth.

Thine eyes did see mine unperfect
 substance,

And in thy book were all my members
 written,

Which day by day were fashioned,

When as yet there was none of them.

How precious also are thy thoughts unto me, O God !

How great is the sum of them !

If I should count them, they are more
 in number than the sand :

When I awake, I am still with thee.

Surely thou wilt slay the wicked, O
 God :

Depart from me therefore, ye bloodthirsty men.

For they speak against thee wickedly,
 And thine enemies take thy name in vain.

Do not I hate them, O Lord, that hate
 thee ?

And am not I grieved with those that rise up against thee ?

I hate them with perfect hatred :

I count them mine enemies.

Search me, O God, and know my
 heart :

Try me, and know my thoughts :

And see if there be any way of wickedness in me,

And lead me in the way everlasting.

PSALM CXL.

I said unto the Lord, Thou art my God :
Give ear unto the voice of my supplications, O Lord.

I know that the Lord will maintain the cause of the afflicted,
 And the right of the needy.

Surely the righteous shall give thanks unto thy name :

The upright shall dwell in thy presence.

PSALM CXLI.

Lord, I have called upon thee ; make haste unto me :

Give ear unto my voice, when I call
 unto thee.

Let my prayer be set forth as incense
 before thee ;

The lifting up of my hands as the evening sacrifice.

For mine eyes are unto thee, O God
 the Lord :

In thee do I put my trust ; leave not my soul destitute.

PSALM CXLIH.

Hear my prayer, O Lord ; give ear to
 my supplications :

In thy faithfulness answer me, and in thy righteousness.

And enter not into judgement with thy servant ;

For in thy sight shall no man living be justified.

I remember the days of old ;

I meditate on all thy doings :

I muse on the work of thy hands.

I spread forth my hands unto thee :

My soul thirsteth after thee, as a weary land.

Make haste to answer me, O Lord ; my spirit faileth :

Hide not thy face from me ;

Lest I become like them that go down into the pit.

Cause me to hear thy lovingkindness
 in the morning ;

For in thee do I trust :

Cause me to know the way wherein I should walk ;

For I lift up my soul unto thee.

Deliver me, O Lord, from mine enemies :

I flee unto thee to hide me.

Teach me to do thy will ; for thou art
 my God :

Thy spirit is good ; lead me in the land of uprightness.

Quicken me, O Lord, for thy name's
 sake :

In thy righteousness bring my soul out of trouble.

PSALM CXLIV.

Lord, what is man, that thou takest knowledge of him ?

Or the son of man, that thou makest account of him ?

Man is like to vanity :

His days are as a shadow that passeth away.

PSALM CXLV.

I will extol thee, my God, O King ;

And I will bless thy name for ever
 and ever.

Every day will I bless thee ;

And I will praise thy name for ever
 and ever.

Great is the Lord, and highly to be praised ;

And his greatness is unsearchable.

One generation shall laud thy works to another,
And shall declare thy mighty acts.
Of the glorious majesty of thine honour,
And of thy wondrous works, will I meditate.
And men shall speak of the might of thy terrible acts ;
And I will declare thy greatness.
They shall utter the memory of thy great goodness,
And shall sing of thy righteousness.
The Lord is gracious, and full of com-
passion ;
Slow to anger, and of great mercy.
The Lord is good to all ;
And his tender mercies are over all his works.
All thy works shall give thanks unto
thee, O Lord ;
And thy saints shall bless thee.
They shall speak of the glory of thy kingdom,
And talk of thy power ;
To make known to the sons of men
his mighty acts,
And the glory of the majesty of his kingdom.
Thy kingdom is an everlasting kingdom,
And thy dominion endureth throughout all generations.
The Lord upholdeth all that fall,
And raiseth up all those that be bowed down.
The eyes of all wait upon thee ;
And thou givest them their meat in due season.
Thou openest thine hand,
And satisfiest the desire of every living thing.
The Lord is righteous in all his
ways,
And gracious in all his works.

The Lord is nigh unto all them that call upon him,
To all that call upon him in truth.
He will fulfil the desire of them that
fear him ;
He also will hear their cry, and will save them.
The Lord preserveth all them that love him ;
But all the wicked will he destroy.
My mouth shall speak the praise of the
Lord ;
And let all flesh bless his holy name for ever and ever.

PSALM CXLVI.

Praise ye the Lord.
Praise the Lord, O my soul.
While I live will I praise the Lord :
I will sing praises unto my God while
I have any being.
Put not your trust in princes,
Nor in the son of man, in whom there is no help.
His breath goeth forth, he returneth
to his earth ;
In that very day his thoughts perish.
Happy is he that hath the God of Jacob
for his help,
Whose hope is in the Lord his God :
Which made heaven and earth,
The sea, and all that in them is ;
Which keepeth truth for ever :
Which executeth judgement for the oppressed ;
Which giveth food to the hungry :
The Lord looseth the prisoners ;
The Lord openeth the eyes of the blind ;
The Lord raiseth up them that are
bowed down ;
The Lord loveth the righteous ;
The Lord preserveth the strangers ;

He upholdeth the fatherless and widow ;
But the way of the wicked he turneth upside down.

The Lord shall reign for ever,

Thy God, O Zion, unto all generations.

PRAYSE YE THE LORD.

PSALM CXLVII.

Praise ye the Lord ;

For it is good to sing praises unto our
God :

For it is pleasant, and praise is comely.

The Lord doth build up Jerusalem ;

He gathereth together the outcasts of Israel.

He healeth the broken in heart,

And bindeth up their wounds.

He telleth the number of the stars ;

He giveth them all their names.

Great is our Lord, and mighty in power ;

His understanding is infinite.

The Lord upholdeth the meek :

He bringeth the wicked down to the ground.

Sing unto the Lord with thanksgiving ;

Sing praises upon the harp unto our
God :

Who covereth the heaven with clouds,

Who prepareth rain for the earth,

Who maketh grass to grow upon the mountains.

He giveth to the beast his food,

And to the young ravens which cry.

He delighteth not in the strength of the horse :

He taketh no pleasure in the legs of a man.

The Lord taketh pleasure in them that fear him,

In those that hope in his mercy.

Praise the Lord, O Jerusalem ;

Praise thy God, O Zion.

For he hath strengthened the bars of thy gates ;

He hath blessed thy children within
thee.

He maketh peace in thy borders ;

He filleth thee with the finest of the wheat.

He sendeth out his commandment
upon earth ;

His word runneth very swiftly.

He giveth snow like wool ;

He scattereth the hoar frost like ashes.

He casteth forth his ice like morsels :

Who can stand before his cold ?

He sendeth out his word, and melteth
them :

He causeth his wind to blow, and the waters flow.

He sheweth his word unto Jacob,

His statutes and his judgements unto Israel.

He hath not dealt so with any nation :

And as for his judgements, they have not known them.

PRAYSE YE THE LORD.

PSALM CXLVIII.

Praise ye the Lord.

Praise ye the Lord from the heavens :

Praise him in the heights.

Praise ye him, all his angels :

Praise ye him, all his host.

Praise ye him, sun and moon :

Praise him, all ye stars of light.

Praise him, ye heavens of heavens,

And ye waters that be above the heavens.

Let them praise the name of the
Lord :

For he commanded, and they were created.

He hath also stablished them for ever
and ever :

He hath made a decree which shall not pass away.

Praise the Lord from the earth,

Ye dragons, and all deeps :

Fire and hail, snow and vapour ;

Stormy wind, fulfilling his word :

Mountains and all hills ;

Fruitful trees and all cedars :

Beasts and all cattle ;

Creeping things and flying fowl :

Kings of the earth and all peoples ;

Princes and all judges of the earth :

Both young men and maidens ; .

Old men and children :

Let them praise the name of the
Lord :

For his name alone is exalted :

His glory is above the earth and heaven.

And he hath lifted up the horn of his
people,

The praise of all his saints ;

Even of the children of Israel, a people near unto him.

PRAISE YE THE LORD.

PSALM CXLIX.

Praise ye the Lord.

Sing unto the Lord a new song,

And his praise in the assembly of the saints.

Let Israel rejoice in him that made
him :

Let the children of Zion be joyful in their King.

Let them praise his name in the dance :

Let them sing praises unto him with the timbrel and harp.

For the Lord taketh pleasure in his
people :

He will beautify the meek with salvation.

Let the saints exult in glory :

Let them sing for joy upon their beds.

Let the high praises of God be in their mouth.

PSALM CL.

Praise ye the Lord.

Praise God in his sanctuary :

Praise him in the firmament of his power.

Praise him for his mighty acts :

Praise him according to his excellent greatness.

Praise him with the sound of the trumpet :

Praise him with the psaltery and
harp.

Praise him with the timbrel and dance :

Praise him with stringed instruments and the pipe.

Praise him upon the loud cymbals :

Praise him upon the high sounding cymbals.

LET EVERY THING THAT HATH BREATH
PRAISE THE LORD.

PRAISE YE THE LORD.

SELECTIONS.

THE BIRTH OF JESUS THE CHRIST.

Behold, a king shall reign in righteousness,

And princes shall rule in judgement.

And a man shall be as an hiding place from the wind, and a covert from the tempest ;

As rivers of water in a dry place, as the shadow of a great rock in a weary land.

Then judgement shall dwell in the wilderness,

And righteousness shall abide in the fruitful field.

And the work of righteousness shall be peace ;

And the effect of righteousness quietness and confidence for ever.

The wilderness and the solitary place shall be glad ;

And the desert shall rejoice, and blossom as the rose.

It shall blossom abundantly, and rejoice even with joy and singing ;

The glory of Lebanon shall be given unto it, the excellency of Carmel and Sharon :

They shall see the glory of the Lord,

The excellency of our God.

Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped.

Then shall the lame man leap as an hart, and the tongue of the dumb shall sing :

For in the wilderness shall waters break out, and streams in the desert.

And the glowing sand shall become a pool, and the thirsty ground springs of water.

And an high way shall be there, and a way, and it shall be called The way of holiness ;

The unclean shall not pass over it ; but it shall be for those : the way-faring men, yea fools, shall not err therein.

No lion shall be there, nor shall any ravenous beast go up thereon, they shall not be found there ;

But the redeemed shall walk there : and the ransomed of the Lord shall return, and come with singing unto Zion ;

And everlasting joy shall be upon their heads :

They shall obtain gladness and joy, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

Comfort ye, comfort ye my people, saith your God.

Speak ye comfortably to Jerusalem, and cry unto her, that her warfare is accomplished, that her iniquity is pardoned ;

That she hath received of the Lord's hand double for all her sins.

The voice of one that crieth, Prepare ye in the wilderness the way of the Lord,

Make straight in the desert a high way for our God.

Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low :

And the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough places plain :

And the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together : for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it.

O thou that tellest good tidings to Zion, get thee up into the high mountain ;

O thou that tellest good tidings to Jerusalem, lift up thy voice with strength ;

Lift it up, be not afraid ; say unto the cities of Judah, Behold, your God !

Behold, the Lord God will come as a mighty one, and his arm shall rule for him :

Behold, his reward is with him, and his recompence before him.

He shall feed his flock like a shepherd, he shall gather the lambs in his arm, and carry them in his bosom, and shall gently lead those that give suck.

Sing unto the Lord a new song, and his praise from the end of the earth.

Sing, O heavens ; and be joyful, O earth ; and break forth into singing, O mountains :

For the Lord hath comforted his people,

And will have compassion upon his afflicted.

And the ransomed of the Lord shall return, and come with singing unto Zion ; and everlasting joy shall be upon their heads :

They shall obtain gladness and joy, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel ;
For he hath visited and wrought redemption for his people,

And hath raised up a horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David,

Salvation from our enemies, and from the hand of all that hate us ;

To shew mercy towards our fathers, and to remember his holy covenant ;

The oath which he sware unto Abraham our father,

To grant unto us that we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies should serve him without fear,

In holiness and righteousness before him all our days.

Glory to God in the highest,

And on earth peace among men in whom he is well pleased.

Now lettest thou thy servant depart, O Lord, according to thy word, in peace ;

For mine eyes have seen thy salvation, which thou hast prepared before the face of all peoples ;

A light for revelation to the Gentiles, and the glory of thy people Israel.

Now unto the King eternal, incorruptible, invisible, the only God, be honour and glory for ever and ever.

AMEN.

[From the Prophecies of Isaiah and the Gospel according to Luke.]

THE RESURRECTION OF JESUS THE CHRIST.

But now hath Christ been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of them that are asleep.

- For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead.
- For as in Adam all die, so also in Christ shall all be made alive.
- We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump :
- For the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.
- For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.
- But when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall come to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory.
- O death, where is thy victory? O death, where is thy sting?
- The sting of death is sin; and the power of sin is the law :
- But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.
- But having the same spirit of faith, according to that which is written, I believed, and therefore did I speak; we also believe, and therefore also we speak;
- Knowing that he which raised up the Lord Jesus shall raise up us also with Jesus, and shall present us with you.
- Wherefore we faint not; but though our outward man is decaying, yet our inward man is renewed day by day.
- For our light affliction, which is for the moment, worketh for us more and more exceedingly an eternal weight of glory;
- While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen :
- For the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal.
- For we know that if the earthly house of our tabernacle be dissolved, we have a building from God,
- A house not made with hands, eternal, in the heavens.
- For verily in this we groan, longing to be clothed upon with our habitation which is from heaven :
- If so be that being clothed we shall not be found naked.
- For indeed we that are in this tabernacle do groan, being burdened ;
- Not for that we would be unclothed, but that we would be clothed upon, that what is mortal may be swallowed up of life.
- Now he that hath wrought us for this very thing is God,
- Who gave unto us the earnest of the Spirit.
- Being therefore always of good courage, and knowing that, whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord; we are of good courage, I say,
- And are willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be at home with the Lord.
- Who shall lay anything to the charge of God's elect?
- It is God that justifieth ;
- Who is he that shall condemn?
- It is Christ Jesus that died, yea rather, that was raised from the dead, who is at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us.
- Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or anguish, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us.

For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who according to his great mercy begat us again unto a living hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,

Unto an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you, who by the power of God are guarded through faith unto a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.

Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us, unto him be the glory in the church and in Christ Jesus unto all generations for ever and ever.

Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God our Father which loved us and gave us eternal comfort and good hope through grace, comfort your hearts and stablish them in every good work and word.

Worthy is the Lamb that hath been slain to receive the power, and riches, and wisdom, and might, and honour, and glory, and blessing.

Unto him that sitteth on the throne, and unto the Lamb, be the blessing, and the honour, and the glory, and the dominion, for ever and ever.

Amen.

THE WORK OF CHRISTIAN MISSIONS.

O Lord, thou art my God; I will exalt thee,

For thou hast done wonderful things, even counsels of old, in faithfulness and truth.

For thou hast been a strong hold to the poor, a strong hold to the needy in his distress,

A refuge from the storm, a shadow from the heat, when the blast of the terrible ones is as a storm against the wall.

He hath swallowed up death for ever; and the Lord God will wipe away tears from off all faces;

And the reproach of his people shall he take away from off all the earth: for the Lord hath spoken it.

And it shall be said in that day, Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, and he will save us:

This is the Lord; we have waited for him, we will be glad and rejoice in his salvation.

We have a strong city; salvation will he appoint for walls and bulwarks.

Open ye the gates, that the righteous nation which keepeth truth may enter in.

Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee: because he trusteth in thee.

Trust ye in the Lord for ever : for in the Lord Jehovah is an everlasting rock.

Lord, thou wilt ordain peace for us :
for thou hast also wrought all our works for us.

O Lord our God, other lords beside thee have had dominion over us ; but by thee only will we make mention of thy name.

How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace,

That bringeth good tidings of good, that publisheth salvation ;

That saith unto Zion, Thy God reigneth !

The voice of thy watchmen ! they lift up the voice, together do they sing ;

For they shall see, eye to eye, when the Lord returneth to Zion.

Break forth into joy, sing together, ye waste places of Jerusalem :

For the Lord hath comforted his people, he hath redeemed Jerusalem.

The Lord hath made bare his holy arm in the eyes of all the nations ;

And all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God.

Sing, O barren, thou that didst not bear ; break forth into singing, and cry aloud,

For more are the children of the desolate than the children of the married wife, saith the Lord.

Enlarge the place of thy tent, and let them stretch forth the curtains of thy habitations ;

Spare not : lengthen thy cords, and strengthen thy stakes.

For thou shalt spread abroad on the right hand and on the left ; and thy seed shall possess the nations.

Fear not ; for thou shalt not be ashamed : neither be thou confounded ; for thou shalt not be put to shame :

For thou shalt forget the shame of thy youth, and the reproach of thy widowhood shalt thou remember no more.

For thy Maker is thine husband ; the Lord of hosts is his name :

And the Holy One of Israel is thy redeemer ; the God of the whole earth shall he be called.

For a small moment have I forsaken thee ; but with great mercies will I gather thee.

In overflowing wrath I hid my face from thee for a moment ; but with everlasting kindness will I have mercy on thee, saith the Lord thy redeemer.

And all thy children shall be taught of the Lord ;

And great shall be the peace of thy children.

Awake, awake, put on strength, O arm of the Lord ;

Awake, as in the days of old, the generations of ancient times.

Art thou not it which dried up the sea, the waters of the great deep ;

That made the depths of the sea a way for the redeemed to pass over ?

And the ransomed of the Lord shall return, and come with singing unto Zion ;

And everlasting joy shall be upon their heads : they shall obtain gladness and joy, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

[From the Prophecies of Isaiah.]

THE WORK OF CHRISTIAN MISSIONS.

And it shall come to pass in the latter days, that the mountain of the Lord's house shall be established in the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills ;

And all nations shall flow unto it.

And many peoples shall go and say,
Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of the Lord, to the house of the God of Jacob ;

And he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths :

For out of Zion shall go forth the law,
And the word of the Lord from Jerusalem.

And he shall judge between the nations,
and shall reprove many peoples :

And they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks :

Nation shall not lift up sword against nation,

Neither shall they learn war any
more.

In that day shall the branch of the Lord be beautiful and glorious,

And the fruit of the land shall be excellent and comely for them that are escaped of Israel.

For over all the glory shall be spread a canopy.

And there shall be a pavilion for a shadow in the day-time from the heat, and for a refuge and for a covert from the storm and from rain.

The people that walked in darkness
have seen a great light :

They that dwelt in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined.

Thou hast multiplied the nation, thou hast increased their joy :

They joy before thee according to the joy in harvest, as men rejoice when they divide the spoil.

For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given ; and the government shall be upon his shoulder :

And his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

Of the increase of his government and of peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to establish it,

And to uphold it with judgement and with righteousness from henceforth even for ever.

And there shall come forth a shoot out of the stock of Jesse,

And a branch out of his roots shall bear fruit :

And the spirit of the Lord shall rest upon him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding,

The spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and of the fear
of the Lord ;

And his delight shall be in the fear of
the Lord :

And he shall not judge after the sight of his eyes, neither reprove after the hearing of his ears :

But with righteousness shall he judge the poor, and reprove with equity for the meek of the earth.

And righteousness shall be the girdle of his loins, and faithfulness the girdle of his reins.

And the wolf shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid ;

And the calf and the young lion and the fatling together ; and a little child shall lead them.

And the cow and the bear shall feed ;
their young ones shall lie down
together :

And the lion shall eat straw like the ox.

They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain :

For the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea.

And it shall come to pass in that day, that the root of Jesse, which standeth for an ensign of the peoples, unto him shall the nations seek ;

And his resting place shall be glorious.

And in that day thou shalt say, I will give thanks unto thee, O Lord.

Behold, God is my salvation ; I will trust, and will not be afraid :

For the Lord JEHOVAH is my strength and song ;

And he is become my salvation.

Therefore with joy shall ye draw water out of the wells of salvation.

Give thanks unto the Lord, call upon his name, declare his doings among the peoples, make mention that his name is exalted.

Sing unto the Lord ; for he hath done excellent things :

Let this be known in all the earth.

Cry aloud and shout, thou inhabitant of Zion :

For great is the Holy One of Israel in the midst of thee.

[From the Prophecies of Isaiah.]

FOR A PUBLIC DAY OF FASTING.

I will make mention of the lovingkindnesses of the Lord, and the praises of the Lord, according to all that the Lord hath bestowed on us ;

And the great goodness toward the house of Israel, which he hath be- stowed on them according to his mercies, and according to the multitude of his lovingkindnesses.

In all their affliction he was afflicted, and the angel of his presence saved them :

In his love and in his pity he redeemed them ; and he bare them, and carried them all the days of old.

But they rebelled, and grieved his holy spirit :

Therefore he was turned to be their enemy, and himself fought against them.

Then he remembered the days of old, Moses, and his people, saying, Where is he that brought them up out of the sea with the shepherds of his flock ?

Where is he that put his holy spirit in the midst of them ? That caused his glorious arm to go at the right hand of Moses ? that divided the water before them ?

Look down from heaven, and behold from the habitation of thy holiness and of thy glory : where is thy zeal and thy mighty acts ?

The yearning of thy bowels and thy compassions are restrained toward me.

For thou art our father, though Abraham knoweth us not, and Israel doth not acknowledge us :

Thou, O Lord, art our father ; our redeemer from everlasting is thy name.

Oh that thou wouldest rend the heavens, that thou wouldest come down,

For we are all become as one that is unclean, and all our righteousnesses are as a polluted garment :

And we all do fade as a leaf ; and our iniquities, like the wind, take us away.

And there is none that calleth upon thy name, that stirreth up himself to take hold of thee :

For thou hast hid thy face from us, and hast consumed us by means of our iniquities.

But now, O Lord, thou art our father ; we are the clay, and thou our potter ; and we all are the work of thy hand.

Be not wroth very sore, O Lord, neither remember iniquity for ever :

Behold, look, we beseech thee, we are all thy people.

Though our iniquities testify against us, work thou for thy name's sake, O Lord :

For our backslidings are many ; we have sinned against thee.

O thou hope of Israel, the saviour thereof in the time of trouble, why shouldst thou be as a sojourner in the land,

And as a wayfaring man that turneth aside to tarry for a night ?

Why shouldst thou be as a man astonished, as a mighty man that cannot save ?

Yet thou, O Lord, art in the midst of us, and we are called by thy name ; leave us not.

It is of the Lord's mercies that we are not consumed, because his compassions fail not.

They are new every morning ; great is thy faithfulness.

The Lord is my portion, saith my soul ; therefore will I hope in him.

The Lord is good unto them that wait for him, to the soul that seeketh him.

It is good that a man should hope and quietly wait for the salvation of the Lord.

For the Lord will not cast off for ever.

For though he cause grief, yet will he have compassion according to the multitude of his mercies.

For he doth not afflict willingly, nor grieve the children of men.

Wherefore doth a living man complain, a man for the punishment of his sins ?

Let us search and try our ways, and turn again to the Lord.

Let us lift up our heart with our hands unto God in the heavens.

I called upon thy name, O Lord, out of the lowest dungeon. Thou heardest my voice ; hide not thine ear at my breathing, at my cry.

Thou, O Lord, abidest for ever ;

Thy throne is from generation to generation.

Wherefore dost thou forget us for ever, and forsake us so long time ?

Turn thou us unto thee, O Lord, and we shall be turned ; renew our days as of old.

Though the fig tree shall not blossom,

Neither shall fruit be in the vines ;

The labour of the olive shall fail,

And the fields shall yield no meat ;

The flocks shall be cut off from the fold,

And there shall be no herd in the stalls :

Yet I will rejoice in the Lord,

I will joy in the God of my salvation.

Jehovah, the Lord, is my strength,

And he maketh my feet like hinds' feet, and will make me to walk upon my high places.

THE LORD'S SUPPER.

Who hath believed our report ?
And to whom hath the arm of the Lord been revealed ?

For he grew up before him as a tender plant, and as a root out of a dry ground :

He hath no form nor comeliness ; and when we see him, there is no beauty that we should desire him.

He was despised, and rejected of men ; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief :

And as one from whom men hide their face he was despised, and we esteemed him not.

Surely he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows :

Yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted.

But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities :

The chastisement of our peace was upon him ; and with his stripes we are healed.

All we like sheep have gone astray ; we have turned every one to his own way ;

And the Lord hath laid on him the iniquity of us all.

He was oppressed, yet he humbled himself and opened not his mouth ;

As a lamb that is led to the slaughter, and as a sheep that before her shearers is dumb ; yea, he opened not his mouth.

By oppression and judgement he was taken away ;

And as for his generation, who among them considered that he was cut off out of the land of the living ?

For the transgression of my people was he stricken.

And they made his grave with the wicked, and with the rich in his death ;

Although he had done no violence, neither was any deceit in his mouth.

Yet it pleased the Lord to bruise him ; he hath put him to grief :

When thou shalt make his soul an offering for sin, he shall see his seed, he shall prolong his days,

And the pleasure of the Lord shall prosper in his hand.

He shall see of the travail of his soul, and shall be satisfied :

By his knowledge shall my righteous servant justify many : and he shall bear their iniquities.

Therefore will I divide him a portion with the great, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong ;

Because he poured out his soul unto death, and was numbered with the transgressors :

Yet he bare the sin of many, And made intercession for the transgressors.

Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money ; come ye, buy, and eat ;

Yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price.

Wherefore do ye spend money for that which is not bread ?

And your labour for that which satisfieth not ?

Hearken diligently unto me, and eat ye that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness.

Incline your ear, and come unto me ; hear, and your soul shall live.

Seek ye the Lord while he may be found,

Call ye upon him while he is near :

Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts :

and let him return unto the Lord,
and he will have mercy upon him ;
And to our God, for he will abundantly pardon.

For my thoughts are not your thoughts,

Neither are your ways my ways,
saith the Lord.

For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways,

And my thoughts than your thoughts.

For as the rain cometh down and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud, and giveth seed to the sower and bread to the eater ;

So shall my word be that goeth forth
out of my mouth :

It shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please,

And it shall prosper in the thing where-
to I sent it.

For ye shall go out with joy,

And be led forth with peace :

The mountains and the hills shall break forth before you into singing,

And all the trees of the fields shall clap their hands.

Instead of the thorn shall come up the fir tree, and instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle tree:

And it shall be to the Lord for a name, for an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off.

SERVICE FOR THE DEDICATION OF A CHURCH.

O Lord, the God of Israel, there is no
God like thee, in heaven above, or on earth beneath :

Who keepest covenant and mercy with thy servants, that walk before thee with all their heart.

But will God in very deed dwell on the earth? Behold, heaven and the heaven of heavens cannot contain
thee ;

How much less this house that we have builded !

Yet have thou respect unto the prayer of thy servant, and to his supplication, O Lord my God,

That thine eyes may be open toward this house night and day, even toward the place whereof thou hast said, My name shall be there.

And hearken thou to the supplication of thy servant, and of thy people Israel, when they shall pray toward this place :

Yea, hear thou in heaven thy dwelling place ; and when thou hear-est, forgive.

The Lord our God be with us, as he was with our fathers : let him not leave us, nor forsake us :

That he may incline our hearts unto him, to walk in all his ways, and to keep his commandments, and his statutes, and his judgements, which he commanded our fathers.

Arise, O Lord God, into thy resting
place,

Thou, and the ark of thy strength :

Let thy priests, O Lord God, be clothed with salvation,

And let thy saints rejoice in goodness.

For the Lord hath chosen Zion ; he hath desired it for his habitation.

This is my resting place for ever :
here will I dwell ; for I have desired it.

I will abundantly bless her provision :
I will satisfy her poor with bread.

Her priests also will I clothe with salvation : and her saints shall shout aloud for joy.

Behold, bless ye the Lord, all ye servants of the Lord, lift up your hands to the sanctuary, and bless ye the Lord.

The Lord bless thee out of Zion ; even he that made heaven and earth.

Praise ye the Lord, ye that stand in the house of the Lord.

Sing praises unto his name ; for it is pleasant.

Sing unto the Lord a new song, and his praise in the assembly of the saints.

Let Israel rejoice in him that made him : let the children of Zion be joyful in their King.

I will pay my vows unto the Lord, in the courts of the Lord's house.

Open to me the gates of righteousness : I will enter into them, I will give thanks unto the Lord.

This is the gate of the Lord ; the righteous shall enter into it.

I will give thanks unto thee, for thou hast answered me, and art become my salvation.

The stone which the builders rejected is become the head of the corner.

This is the Lord's doing ; it is marvellous in our eyes.

Blessed be he that cometh in the name of the Lord :

We have blessed you out of the house of the Lord.

Thou art my God, and I will give thanks unto thee : thou art my God, I will exalt thee.

O give thanks unto the Lord ; for he is good : for his mercy endureth for ever.
